

JEFFERSON SCHOLARS FOUNDATION

2009

Alumni

JEFFERSON FELLOWS

JEFFERSON SCHOLARS

ALUMNI

Jefferson Fellows

2005

Malgorzata Wieslawa Glinska (M.F.A.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
gosia_glinska@yahoo.com

Gosia has been developing case studies on high-growth companies for the Batten Institute.

Jaime Amanda Martinez (P.H.D.)

Lumberton, North Carolina
jam6ah@gmail.com; jaime.martinez@uncp.edu

Jaime just completed her first school year as an assistant professor of history at the University of North Carolina at Pembroke. She teaches classes in Civil War & Reconstruction, African-American History, and U.S. Women's History in addition to general U.S. History. Jaime served on the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Andrew Daryl Witmer (P.H.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
adv4w@virginia.edu

Andrew concluded an enjoyable and productive year as a postdoctoral fellow at U.Va.'s Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture in May 2009. He will spend the 2009-2010 school year as a Mellon Post-doctoral Fellow in the Humanities at the University of Pennsylvania.

2006

Lindsey Paige Bowser (M.A.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
lb4yc@virginia.edu

Lindsey teaches chemistry and environmental science at Foxcroft School in Northern Virginia.

Peter Vinding Swendsen (P.H.D.)

Oberlin, Ohio
peter.swendsen@oberlin.edu

Peter recently completed his second year of teaching at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, where he is assistant professor of computer music and digital arts and has the pleasure of working with wonderful students and colleagues. Summer plans include performances in San Diego and Montreal, and finally having time to help his wife, Adina Filipoi, with garden and house projects. Peter had three new pieces premiere this year: "Before Frozen Fog" for tenor recorder and live electronics, was written for Amsterdam-based performer, Terri Hron, who performed the piece throughout North America and will soon tour the piece in Europe and release it as part of a CD she recorded at the Banff Centre; "Nothing that is not there and the nothing that is" for bass drum and live electronics, was written for percussionist Jennifer Torrence, who premiered the piece in Oberlin and will perform it in the United Kingdom in the coming months; "coldness and lightness," premiered in Oberlin in May and will appear on the Goose Route Dance Festival this summer. More detailed information about Peter's activities can be found on his personal website: www.swendsen.net.

Dana Michelle Wheelles (M.A.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
dw6h@virginia.edu

As project administrator of NINES (Networked Infrastructure for Nineteenth-Century Electronic Scholarship) Dana oversaw a site redesign and re-launch in December and has attended a number of conferences and workshops to promote best practices in digital scholarship. NINES has added eight new partner websites in the past year and now boasts over 400,000 peer-reviewed digital objects in Collex, their online finding aid.

2007

Brian Phillips Murphy (P.H.D.)

Hamden, Connecticut
brianphillipsmurphy@gmail.com

Brian recently finished his first year in the history department at Baruch College at the City University of New York. One of the classes taught had students reading the written works and letters of Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton. Of the 24 students, 21 decided to write their final papers on Jefferson. He spent the summer working on turning his dissertation into a book manuscript, doing some research but much more editing and polishing. Brian also handled the hammer and paintbrush at their new home in Hamden, a 210-year old farmhouse that needs some TLC. He was recently awarded the Richard L. Morton Award for an article he published in the William and Mary Quarterly last year, which was judged the best essay submitted by someone while in graduate school.

Cynthia Lisa Nicoletti (M.A., J.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
cln4x@virginia.edu

Cynthia has been working on completing her dissertation, "The Great Question of the War: The Legal Status of Secession in the Aftermath of the American Civil War, 1865-1869." She has presented papers at several historical conferences, including the annual meeting of the American Society for Legal History, where her paper won the Kathryn T. Preyer Award for the best paper in legal history by a young scholar. Her article, "The American Civil War as a Trial by Battle," will appear in the Law and History Review in spring 2010.

Allison Susanne Robbins (M.A.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
asr3a@virginia.edu

Allison will finish her dissertation on 1930s film musicals this December. Next spring she plans to revise sections of her dissertation for publication and tackle the academic job market.

Brent Vernon Savoie (J.D., M.D.)

Nashville, Tennessee
brentsavoie@gmail.com

Brent recently graduated from medical school and is about to begin his intern year at Vanderbilt. He continues to serve as the president of the Inter-American Health Alliance (IAHA), a non-profit organization that supports community health programs in Guatemala. This past fall, Brent met with two Jefferson Scholars, Megan Dunning (JS '08) and Ben McVane (JS '08), in San Mateo Ixtatan, Guatemala, to talk with representatives of the Ixtatan Foundation about possibilities for developing health projects in the area. It was an amazing coincidence to have a mini Jefferson Scholar reunion in such a remote part of the country. Brent served on the Nashville Regional Selection Committee.

Jennifer Catherine Van Horn (M.A., P.H.D.)

Columbia, Maryland
jcv2a@virginia.edu

Jennifer successfully defended her dissertation this spring.

2008

Adam Wilson Duggins (M.B.A.)

Atlanta, Georgia
aduggins@gmail.com

Adam started at Bain & Company in July 2008 and has enjoyed his year with the firm in Atlanta. Also, Adam and his wife had their first child, Mason Duggins, in October 2008.

Anna Bond Estes (M.S.)

Peterborough, New Hampshire
aestes@virginia.edu

Anna has been in Tanzania since April completing the last field season for her doctoral work. Last spring and summer she received research grants from the National Science Foundation (Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Grant) and the US Fish and Wildlife Service's African Elephant Fund. These funds allowed her to deploy six GPS collars on elephants in the Serengeti ecosystem in September 2008. Anna has also formed a collaboration with a research group at the University of Wisconsin and at the National Zoo.

Adam Scott Lovelady (J.D., M.U.E.P.)

Richmond, Virginia
adamlovelady@gmail.com

After receiving his J.D. and Master of Urban and Environmental Planning in 2008, Adam joined the law firm McGuireWoods in Richmond, Virginia. He is an associate in the Land Use & Environmental Group Adam is certified as a LEED® Accredited Professional (LEED AP). LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) is the U.S. Green Building Council's nationally accepted benchmark for design, construction, and operation of high performance green buildings. In June 2008, Adam and his wife, Tracy, welcomed their first child, Carter.

Eric Ryan McDermott (M.B.A.)

Atlanta, Georgia
eric.mcdermott@gmail.com

Eric married Erin Marino on July 26, 2008 in Hershey, Pennsylvania. He and Erin then moved to Atlanta where Eric started at Bain & Company in October. In his first year at Bain, Eric has aided in the corporate reorganization of a $14 billion oil and gas company, and he is currently working on a project in the treated lumber industry.

Matthew Christopher Pawlowicz (M.A.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
mcp71@virginia.edu

Matthew completed his Ph.D. research in December 2008, which was supported by the National Science Foundation, the Explorers Club Washington Group, the U.Va. Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and the Jefferson Scholars Foundation. The project, an archaeological survey of the southern Tanzanian coast around the historic town of Mikindani, was successful in recovering 55 archaeological sites covering the the past two millennia of East African coastal history and is making a significant contribution to our understanding of the functioning of the pre-modern "global system" which existed in the Indian Ocean. As he began writing his dissertation in the spring of 2009, Matthew also taught a course, Matt Pawlowicz (JF '08) stands in the middle of a 15th century palace at Kilwa, which he visited while conducting research for his dissertation.

"People, Culture and the Environment in Africa," in the U.Va. Anthropology Department and plans to teach at least one additional course in the 2009-2010 academic year.

Brian Russell Roberts (Ph.D.)

Provo, Utah
brianrussellroberts@byu.edu

Brian accepted a tenure-track appointment at Brigham Young University after completing his Ph.D. in 2008. His areas of specialization include African American literature and culture, American Studies, and US literature after the Civil War. Brian's essays are published or forthcoming in African American Review, Journal of Narrative Theory, Modern Fiction Studies, and other venues. His book-length manuscript, which grows out of his dissertation, focuses on the literary and diplomatic performances of African American writers who traveled as U.S. diplomats during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Examining the interrelated spheres of racial, aesthetic, and international representation, this project brings the literary and diplomatic dossiers of famous figures such as Frederick Douglass and James Weldon Johnson into dialogue with the work of the U.S.'s lesser-known black writer-diplomats.

Todné Yvette Thomas (M.A.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
tyt51@virginia.edu

Todné is currently working on her dissertation on a West Indian evangelical church community in the Atlanta metropolitan area. Specifically, she is using anthropological theories about kinship and relatedness to analyze the local and trans-local church relationships constitutive of personal and institutional church networks. She ultimately argues and endeavors to illustrate how these relationships constitute a form of everyday church kinship for members and their families. In the fall of 2009 Todné will be teaching a 300 level course entitled "Kinfolks, Families, and Relating in the African Diaspora" for the Woodson Institute for African American and African Studies. In the spring of 2010 she will be teaching a course on the "Anthropology of Evangelicalism" for the anthropology department.

Peter Michael Traub (M.A.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
pmt4u@virginia.edu

Peter finished his fifth year as a Ph.D. student in the composition and computer technologies program, and his dissertation is underway. It is titled "Spatial Exploration: Physical, Virtual, and Hybrid Spaces as Compositional Parameters". Peter received a Graduate School of Arts and Sciences Dissertation Year Fellowship for 2009-2010 to support his final year of dissertation work and was also recently awarded a Double Hoo Grant to work with an undergraduate partner on a research project.

ALUMNI

Jefferson Scholars

1985

Julia Frances Burch (PH.D.)

Maplewood, New Jersey
jfb@echoryc.com

Julia continues to enjoy her time with her family: her partner, Aixa, children, Ino (9) and Amelia (7), and Gracie the wonder-dog. Her successful writing coaching practice keeps her fairly busy these days, but in her spare time, Julia helps out at the girls' school and works on do-it-yourself house and yard projects.

Paul Vincent DeMarco (M.D.)

Florence, South Carolina
pdemarco@fmarion.edu

Paul continues to serve as director of Rural Community Health at Francis Marion University in Florence, South Carolina. His program won the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education's Service Learning Award for 2009. Paul has joined two more boards this year, the Mercy Medicine Free Clinic and the Eastern Carolina Community Foundation. He served on the Alumni Advisory Committee and as a member of the Central and Upstate South Carolina Regional Selection Committee.

Robert Wilson Downes (J.D.)

New York, New York
downesr@sullcrom.com

Bob practices corporate and securities law in New York City with Sullivan & Cromwell, where he is now head of the corporate and finance group. Bob also continues as co-chair of the New York City Regional Selection Committee. He serves as a director of ArtsConnection, a not-for-profit organization that promotes the arts in the education of New York City schoolchildren. He spends his free time with his family, wife Mary Ann and two daughters Margaret (11) and Helen (9).

Virginia Hilton Hallock (M.ED., PH.D.)

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
hallock@gse.upenn.edu

Hilton has completed a busy year as the vice president for enrollment and student engagement at New England College in Henniker, New Hampshire, providing leadership to the college's work in academic support and advising, enrollment management, student affairs, athletics, and civic engagement. She continued to advise doctoral students in the higher education program at the University of Pennsylvania and enjoyed taking students on a study trip to South Africa last summer.

Karen Michele Hardwick (J.D.)

Washington, D.C.

At last report, Karen was working with the Anacostia Waterfront Corporation as executive vice president and general counsel.

Frederick Joseph Keith (M.D., PH.D.)

Smyrna, Georgia
joe.keith@atlantabonded.com

Joe continues his involvement with the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee and remains in a strategic development role at Whitefield Academy,

Michael Kennedy Osborn (M.S.)

Oak Hill, Virginia
osbornm@saic.com

Mike continues to research advanced sensor concepts for air defense applications with Science Applications International Corporation in Arlington, Virginia. He stays busy with the activities of his two children Elizabeth (16) and John (14).

John Marshall Page III (J.D.)

New Orleans, Louisiana
mpage@joneswalker.com

Marshall is a partner in the New Orleans office of Jones Walker law firm where he primarily handles which his three children attend. Joe also continues in his management roles at Atlanta Bonded Warehouse and Colonial Cartage Corporation, and he looks forward to an economy where mere survival in the transportation sector is not the measure of success!

Paul DeMarco (JS '85) and his team provide free health screenings as part of his role as director of Rural Community Health at Francis Marion University in South Carolina.

John Anthony Martin (M.D.)

Chicago, Illinois
j-martin3@northwestern.edu

John continues to practice medicine in the field of gastroenterology at Northwestern Memorial Hospital. He also works as a professor at the Feinberg School of Medicine at Northwestern University.

Holly Gilmore Moetell (J.D.)

Scarsdale, New York
moetell@optonline.net

Holly and her family continue to enjoy the New York City metro area.

mergers and acquisitions and private investment transactions. He heads the business and banking practice group at Jones Walker and serves as treasurer on the board of his children's school.

Amy Jo Sampson

Chesapeake, Virginia
amyjohoo@cox.net

Amy is busy with daughter Audra (10) and all of her activities. Amy, a vice president at Children's Hospital of The King's Daughters, was a member of the Tidewater Regional Selection Committee this year.

Thomas Franklin Schuler

Landenberg, Pennsylvania
mtschu@comcast.net

Tom continues in his role of vice president and general manager of DuPont's Building Innovation business. He continues to enjoy working with the Delaware Regional Selection Committee. This fall, his son Patrick, will be entering the first year class at U.Va.!

John David Villasenor (M.S., PH.D.)

*San Francisco, California
jvilla@attglobal.net*

John continues to work at the University of California-Los Angeles as a professor of electrical engineering and serves as a member of the Jefferson Scholars Foundation Graduate Advisory Committee.

1986

John Carr Coates IV (J.D.)

*Brookline, Massachusetts
jcoates@law.harvard.edu*

John and his family moved in July to a larger house in Newton with a larger yard to accommodate the twins and their sister. Fortunately, John also has a sabbatical coming up next year to recover and, hopefully, complete a long-standing book project. John volunteered for the Obama campaign as a policy analyst and has episodically continued consulting with the administration on financial regulatory reform.

Daniel Marvin Garrett (PH.D.)

*Sunnyvale, California
dgarrett@cornerstone.com*

Dan continues as a partner at Cornerstone Research, working on antitrust, securities, and general business cases. He and his wife, Nancy Beth (Col' 87), homeschool their three youngest children. Their oldest daughter will be starting at the University this fall. They enjoy relaxing in the Sierra when schedules permit.

Stephen Ross Grand (PH.D.)

*Arlington, Virginia
sgrand@brookings.edu*

Steve continues to work at the Brookings Institution as a fellow and director of the Project on United States Relations with the Islamic World. He resides in Arlington, Virginia, with his wife Paige, who is the vice president of the International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX), and their three children. Their eldest daughter Rachel (12) just completed her first year of middle school; younger daughter Carly (9) is a rising fifth grader; and their son Josh (5) will enter kindergarten this fall.

Timothy Joseph Ingrassia

*New York, New York
tim.ingrassia@gs.com*

Tim continues as managing director at Goldman Sachs & Company. He also serves as the chair of the Finance Committee on the Board of Directors for the Jefferson Scholars Foundation.

Glynn deVon Key (J.D.)

*Washington, D.C.
glynn.key@ge.com*

Glynn continues with GE IGCC/Water and Process Technologies. She remains a member of the U.Va. Board of Visitors Executive Committee as well as chair of the Education Policy Committee.

Mary L. Lindsay-Barber (M.D.)

*Matthews, North Carolina
mlbabydoc@aol.com*

Mary continues to practice pediatrics in Union County, North Carolina, and joined the Center for Child and Adolescent Medicine in 2008. She has a full life being very involved in her church, community, and her children's activities.

William Robertson Pogue III (M.S.)

*Easton, Maryland
w_pogue@yahoo.com*

At last report, Willie was working at the Naval Research Laboratory in Washington, D.C.

Susan Stringfellow Walker (J.D.)

*Virginia Beach, Virginia
swalker@jonesandwalker.com*

In addition to practicing law, Susan serves on the board of governors of the real property section of the Virginia State Bar Association. She also continues to serve on the Virginia Beach advisory board of Heritage Bank. This year she enjoyed co-chairing the Jefferson Scholars Tidewater Regional Selection Committee.

Frank Camp Williams III (J.D.)

*Greenville, South Carolina
frank.williams@smithmoorelaw.com*

Frank continues his work as a partner and attorney with the firm of Smith Moore Leatherwood LLP and is a member of the firm's management committee. Frank handles corporate and commercial transactions. He served again this year as chair of the Central and Upstate South Carolina Regional Selection Committee and is also a member of the Alumni Advisory Committee. He is a member of the Board of Directors of The Upstate Alliance, an economic development organization representing the upstate region of South Carolina, a member of the board of directors of Communities in Schools, which works with at-risk children in elementary schools, and a member of the board of directors of the Christ Church Episcopal School Alumni Association. Frank and his wife Leslie are active communicants of Christ Episcopal Church and have two children, Ellie (13) and Camp (9).

Charlotte Shaffer Woody

*Oakland, California
chargardens@earthlink.net*

Charlotte continues to design landscapes in the San Francisco Bay Area. Her work has been featured in local garden tours focusing on environmentally friendly garden design and practice. She has also been a regular on a design panel aimed at helping homeowners reinvent their own yards. Edibles and beautification of old fruit trees are her specialties.

1987

Edward Stanley Brinkley (PH.D.)

*Cape Charles, Virginia
thalamoico@gmail.com*

Ned continues as director of manufacturing (COO) at New Ravenna Mosaics & Stone in Exmore, Virginia, and continues to edit the North American Birds journal for the American Birding Association. Home renovations proceed slowly, thanks to the happy distractions of the Eastern Shore.

Eric Andrew Engels (M.D., M.P.H.)

*Bethesda, Maryland
engelse@exchange.nih.gov*

In 2007 Eric received tenure as a senior investigator in the infections and immunoepidemiology branch of the National Cancer Institute. He continues to conduct research on the role of infections, inflammation, and the immune system in the development of cancer. He also provides medical care to HIV-infected people in Baltimore, Maryland.

Kathleen A. Hubbard Erwin (PH.D., M.D.)

Oceanside, California doctor.erwin@gmail.com

Kathleen is busy splitting her time between Scripps Memorial Hospital Encinitas, her adjacent private psychiatry practice, and the V.A. where she sees many service members recently returned from Iraq. Off duty she skis, hangs out with her stepdaughters (now 11 and 13), and enjoys having her nephews live around the corner (5 months old and 2 years old).

James Sebrell Farmer Jr.

Seattle, Washington
sebrell@hotmail.com

At last report, Jim was working in program development at Microsoft.

Mary Susan Fretts (M.ED.)

McLean, Virginia
Mary_Fretts@apsva.us

Mary continues as a high school chemistry teacher at Washington-Lee High School in Arlington, Virginia, and mother to Madelyn (14) and Emma (12). She was married to Jack Howland on July 5, 2008.

Alison Mylander Gregory (J.D.)

Bedford, New York
amgbedford@aol.com

Alison serves on the management committee of GlobeOp Financial Services where she is the head of the company's enterprise risk management department. She is the proud mother of two young boys. In addition, she continues to serve on various committees, including several industry committees, and to guest lecture at Yale. Alison served as co-chair of the Westchester, New York/Fairfield, Connecticut Regional Selection Committee.

Stephen Glynn Harrison (M.S., M.A.)

Cleveland, Ohio
sharrison@clevelandart.org

Stephen continues his work as curator of decorative art and design at the Cleveland Museum of Art. This past year he opened a major international loan exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art that traveled to San Francisco's Palace of the Legion of Honor. His book, Artistic Luxury: Faberge, Tiffany, Lalique, which accompanied the exhibition, won the Robert C. Smith Award from the Decorative Arts Society. He is also working on the reinstallation of the decorative arts collection for the museum, which is opening in multiple phases. Stephen continues to serve as a member of the Northeast Ohio Regional Selection Committee and the Alumni Advisory Committee as well as a number of professional organizations throughout the country. He spends a great deal of time gardening, restoring his house, and enjoying the company of his West Highland terrier, Jack.

Matthew Lawrence Iwicki (J.D.)

Sammamish, Washington
matt.iwicki@boeing.com

Matt continues to work with Boeing's office of general counsel on domestic and international environmental and supply chain matters. He and his wife Catherine (Com '87) live in Seattle with their two children Mattie (12) and Lizzie (8). Matt coaches Mattie's wrestling and soccer teams, and Catherine coaches Lizzie's soccer team.

James Thornton Kirby (J.D.)

Columbia, South Carolina
tkirby@scha.org

Thornton continues his work as president of the South Carolina Hospital Association with much of his time spent on health care reform. He speaks frequently on healthcare-related topics, and he serves on a number of statewide and national boards, including the South Carolina Student Loan Corporation, the South Carolina Research Foundation, and the South Carolina Office of Rural Health. Thornton teaches a communication course each summer for environmental entrepreneurs in Bozeman, Montana, and he spends his free time traveling, scuba diving, paddling, and taking photographs. His artwork is on line at www.thorntonkirby.com.

Aniruddh Dhiren Patel (PH.D.)

La Jolla, California
apatel@nsi.edu

Ani continues his work on music and the brain at The Neurosciences Institute in San Diego. Together with other music scientists, he appeared in a PBS documentary "The Music Instinct" that aired on June 24, 2009. He is increasingly interested in links between music neuroscience and music therapy, a topic he will explore in a keynote address at the American Music Therapy Association conference this November. His wife Jennifer continues her work as a writer and filmmaker, and their children have just started piano lessons.

Christopher Roy Rutledge (M.B.A.)

Atlanta, Georgia
chris_rutledge@bellsouth.net

Chris and his wife Theone made some major changes in their lives this year. Chris left his position as a partner at Accenture to open his own business operating urgent care centers in Atlanta. Family life also keeps them busy raising two daughters, Sarah (7) and Jessica (5). Chris served as a member of the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee.

Jill Elizabeth Siegel

Stuarts Draft, Virginia
jilliesiegel@yahoo.com

At last report, Jill was working for the American Red Cross of the Blue Ridge.

1988Joseph Michael Bizup (PH.D.)

Brookline, Massachusetts
jbizup@gmail.com

Joe is an associate professor of English and director of the College of Arts and Sciences writing program at Boston University.

Stuart Mitchell Brumfield

Richmond, Virginia
stuart.brumfield@thalhimer.com

Stuart continues to work as the director of corporate accounting for Thalhimer and as the treasurer for Continental Appraisal. He was a member of the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

Luis David Cardenas (M.B.A.)

Stamford, Connecticut
DCardenas@OlympusPartners.com

Dave continues as a partner at Olympus Partners in Stamford, Connecticut, and co-chaired the Westchester, New York/Fairfield, Connecticut Regional Selection Committee. Dave and his wife Stacey have their hands full with their three daughters and son.

Margaret Ann Debelius (PH.D.)

Arlington, Virginia
madebelius@yahoo.com

Maggie continues to teach at Georgetown University where she serves as associate director of the university writing program. Sons Charlie (8) and Jack (5) keep her and husband, Mike Schiavo, on their toes. She continues to serve on the Alumni Advisory Committee and the Piedmont Area Virginia Regional Selection Committee.

Eileen Filliben Edmunds (J.D., M.B.A.)

Wilmington, Delaware
eedmunds@modernthink.com

After a recurrence of early stage breast cancer last year, Eileen is even more grateful for her life in Wilmington, Delaware, with husband Nate, son Austin (2), daughter Kelly (5), and step-daughter Carson (16). The family just returned from a spectacular trip to California. Highlights included crab and sourdough at Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco and waterfalls at Yosemite. Eileen's consulting firm, ModernThink LLC, co-sponsors the national recognition program "Great Colleges to Work For" in partnership with the Chronicle of Higher Education. Eileen chaired the Designated Schools Regional Selection Committee for private schools in Delaware, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania and served as a committee member for the Delaware region.

Hugh McCloskey Evans III (M.B.A.)

Baltimore, Maryland
hugh_evans@troweprice.com

Hugh continues to work as a portfolio manager for T. Rowe Price. He serves on the investment committees of Catholic Charities of Maryland, the Archdiocese of Baltimore, and the Chesapeake Bay Foundation. He also serves on the board of directors of Catholic Charities of Maryland and LINC, a nonprofit serving the needs of the disabled. He has served on the Jefferson Scholars Selection Committee and is currently a member of the Capital Campaign Committee and the Undergraduate Advisory Committee.

Douglas McCarley Garrou (J.D.)

Richmond, Virginia
Dgarrou@hunton.com

Doug is a partner with Hunton & Williams LLP in Richmond on their competition team. His practice focuses on antitrust class actions and on related e-discovery issues. Doug is a board member with the Commonwealth Autism Service and has become active in fundraising for childhood cancer research. His sons James, Thomas, and Daniel provide endless excitement and no small number of thrills. Doug served on the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

Tracey Christine Hopper (J.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
TraceyHopper@hopperlegal.com

Tracey works as an attorney in her practice, the Family Law Offices of Tracey C. Hopper.

Kenneth Roger Johnson Jr. (J.D., M.B.A.)

Richmond, Virginia
rjohnson@ivyventures.com

Roger and wife Kim are very much enjoying watching their three girls grow up and have developed into professional spectators at kids' sporting events and recitals. Roger remains active in church activities and on the board of World Harvest Mission.

Sarah Lyman Kravits (M.F.A.)

West Orange, New Jersey
Slymank2@gmail.com

Sarah continues her work as co-author of the Keys to Success textbooks for Prentice Hall/Pearson Education, writing as well as giving training workshops at colleges around the country where Keys to Success books are in use. She is also taking on new roles this fall in support of her children's educational growth -- as a member of the parent board of Delia's preschool and a co-chair of the Fifth Grade Activities Committee at Josephine's elementary school. To deal with the time crunch that will result, she will attempt to transfer some of her role as stuff-putter-awayer to the children. Finally, she is proud to have been once again involved with the Northern New Jersey Regional Selection Committee, which will send its third Jefferson Scholar to Charlottesville this fall.

Brady Lum (J5 '89), president and COO of the Special Olympics, attends the Winter World Games in Idaho.

Stewart Joseph Lagarde Jr. (M.A.)

Richmond, Virginia
sj@lagardes.net

Jay works with a business and technology consulting firm. He serves on the finance committee of his church, and in his free time, Jay enjoys boating and sailing.

Katherine Dodds LeJeune (M.S., PH.D.)

London, England
klejeune@stratusconsulting.com

Kate and family are now living in London while Howard works on the 2012 Olympic venue construction. What a change London is from Nederland, Colorado

Christopher Eugene Lindsey (J.D., M.B.A.)

Greensboro, North Carolina
clindsey@purringtonmoody.com

This year has passed in a blur of carpools to and from schools and tennis tournaments, skating competitions, ballet productions, various instrument recitals, and the practices related to each. Somewhere in all that Molly and Chris celebrated their fifteenth anniversary. Chris continued to practice law, and while his firm has felt the effects of the economic downturn, they seem to be weathering it fairly well. Chris and Molly remain active at church and at their children's schools. Chris served once again on the Piedmont Triad, North Carolina Selection Committee and was struck by how much younger the applicants seem to be getting.

Maurie Dee McInnis (PH.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
mcinnis@virginia.edu

Maurie is on the faculty at the University of Virginia where she is an associate professor of art history and director of American Studies. She serves on the Jefferson Scholars Undergraduate Advisory Committee, and this year was a member of the Jefferson Fellowship Selection Committee.

Karen Elizabeth Mayer Ross (M.D.)

Raleigh, North Carolina
kross919@earthlink.net

The Ross family has adopted a precious golden retriever (born on Karen's birthday) named Fiona. She will now be one of FOUR children walking to their local public elementary school in Raleigh. They remain active in their Catholic Church, their local school foundation, and the John Locke Foundation, a conservative think tank. They hosted Jefferson Scholar Jess Huang ('09) last summer for a medical and beach combing internship. Karen serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee

George Edward Tyson II (M.B.A.)

Charlottesville, Minnesota
george.tyson@xcelenergy.com

George is vice president and treasurer for Xcel Energy, a Midwestern utility company with operations in eight states. George serves on the boards of The Children's Theatre Company in Minneapolis and Junior Achievement of the Upper Midwest. He is also actively involved with the Boy Scouts of America as treasurer for Chaska Troop 589. George and Jackie have three sons: Matthew (14), Spencer (13), and Alex (9).

1989

Stephen Stambaugh Burchett (J.D.)*Ashland, Kentucky
ssburchett@ofnlaw.com*

Steve continues to practice law in the relatively recession proof Central Appalachians. Son Troy continues with his guitar, and daughter Anne Witten is very active with horses. His only advice to other Scholars is to beware of anyone offering a free horse.

Laura Wagner Eastwood*Hillsborough, North Carolina
lauraeastwood@yahoo.com*

Laura is the associate university secretary at Duke University. Sons Jack and Nick continue to grow amazingly fast, and Laura and David wonder where the days go during this amazing journey. Summer plans included an RV trip to Iowa to visit David's family and spending as much time as possible in their backyard pool.

Debra Shapiro Gill (PH.D.)*West Orange, New Jersey
dgill@sbhcs.com*

Debra continues as director of the Healthy LIFE weight management program at Saint Barnabas Medical Center and has expanded her role as a psychologist this year. She is seeing pediatric patients diagnosed with diabetes and other endocrine problems, and she provides therapy to adults and teens as part of a group psychology practice in Summit, New Jersey. Debra continues to teach fitness classes and is particularly excited about leading high intensity water-aerobics classes. She served on the Northern New Jersey Regional Selection Committee. Debra is living happily with fiancé Dan Stillman along with her twin boys, age 9, and younger "step" children.

Joseph Benson Harlan Jr. (M.D.)*Baltimore, Maryland
drjoseph.harlan@gmail.com*

J.B. has recently left academic medicine to pursue private practice, but still continues to teach medical students and residents.

Elise Charbonnet Keegan (J.D.)*Oakton, Virginia
elise.keegan@cox.net*

At last report, Elise was living in Northern Virginia and staying busy taking care of four young children.

Deanna Leicht Loughnane (M.B.A.)*Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania
deanna_loughnane@yahoo.com*

Deanna, Paul, and the kids are doing well. Emma has been making great progress and is now walking. Deanna remains very active at their schools and continues her role on the board. She again served as co-chair of the Philadelphia Regional Selection Committee.

Jack Brady Lum (M.B.A.)*Chevy Chase, Maryland
brady@lum.net*

Brady just completed his one-year anniversary as president and chief operating officer of Special Olympics International, based in Washington, DC. He also continues on the board of directors of the Points of Light Institute and Hands on Network, helping build a national infrastructure for volunteerism, community service and civic engagement. Brady and Jill have enjoyed moving closer to the University, and the rest of the family continues to bring daily joys -- son Wiley (1), daughters Perry (10) and Sandy (7). Trying to live up to the Jeffersonian tradition of lifelong learning, Brady is also pursuing a master's of music from the Berklee College of Music in Boston, fulfilling a mid-life dream and having a lot of fun in the process.

Erin Kathleen Monaghan (J.D.)*Charlottesville, Virginia
emonaghan@mindspring.com*

Erin confirmed the wisdom of having a large home in August 2008, when her parents (and their dog) came to stay during some extensive renovations to their long-planned "last house" in Charlottesville. She is now being well repaid for her stint as temporary landlord with frequent meals! After working as an admissions reader for both the School of Law and the undergraduate Office of Admission during the winter and early spring, Erin continues to look for her next job while enjoying the company of her Australian shepherd and attacking some long-neglected projects. She remains on the board of directors of Gifts for the Homeless, Inc. in Washington D.C., and is slowly becoming more involved in voter registration and election administration at the local level.

Marion Parker Myers (M.S., M.B.A.)*Maidens, Virginia
pmyers@alum.mit.edu*

Parker continues to live in Maidens, Virginia, with his wife and two children.

John Redding Perry (J.D.)*Studio City, California
johnperry@johnperrylaw.com*

John maintains his immigration law practice, The Law Offices of John R. Perry, in the Los Angeles area.

Elizabeth Roark (M.S.)*Richmond, Virginia
elizabeth@embarktech.com*

Elizabeth continues to consult with early stage and growing businesses as well as non-profits. In addition to chairing the Richmond Regional Selection Committee, Elizabeth serves on several non-profit boards and participates in U.Va.'s T100 Program, facilitating the establishment and growth of companies commercializing University-developed technology.

Scott A. Robertson (M.D.)*Norfolk, Virginia
scottandchar@yahoo.com*

Scott served as the co-chair of the Tidewater Regional Selection Committee.

Barbara Lynn Shubinski (PH.D.)*Iowa City, Iowa
barbara-shubinski@uiowa.edu*

Barbara finally earned her Ph.D. -- after many trips to graduate school over the years-- in American Studies from the University of Iowa. The past year brought a new puppy and a huge flood to Iowa. Barbara produced an award-winning original musical last July based on local stories from the flood, and the production donated $18,000 in proceeds to local flood relief. The show won two Iowa Cultural Corridor Alliance awards in January 2009. The soundtrack, "Moving Home," is available on i-Tunes.

Michael J. Spitalney*Arlington, Virginia
mspitalney@SmartCommercial.com*

Michael and Leslie remain in Arlington with Isabel (10) and Ethan (8). Michael continues to manage SmartCommercial Funding -- a commercial mortgage banking firm serving small business owners and investors nationwide. Leslie recently started in a new role, putting her legal background to work in a creative environment as director of legal affairs for Travel Channel Media.

Taylor Charles Windham (M.A.)*Decatur, Georgia
tcwindham@gmail.com*

Taylor works as a sale coordinator for NCC in Georgia.

Mitchell Eliot Zamoff (J.D.)

Edina, Minnesota
mitch.zamoff@uhc.com

Mitch continues as general counsel of UnitedHealthcare and is also serving as co-interim chief legal officer for UnitedHealth Group. Mitch, Erin and their three children survived their first Minnesota winter and are enjoying life on the frozen tundra. Mitch is active in youth sports programs and ran his first Boston Marathon in April. He continues to serve on the Alumni Advisory Committee.

1990Michael Christopher Cloud (J.D.)

London, England
mclouds8@yahoo.com

Michael remains in London with his wife and three children. He continues to work in banking.

Thomas Daniel Colby (PH.D.)

Cologne, Germany
colby@mpiz-koeln.mpg.de

Tom continues in the proteomics group at the Max Planck Institute for Plant Breeding Research in Cologne. Gaby is busy with teaching and theater productions, and Muriel will be going into fourth grade in the fall.

Nathaniel Thomas Connally III (J.D.)

McLean, Virginia
NTConnally@HHLaw.com

Tom continues as a partner at Hogan & Hartson in its Northern Virginia office and served as co-chair of the Northern Virginia Regional Selection Committee this year.

Laura Rains Draper

Atlanta, Georgia
laura.draper@comcast.net

Laura, her husband Clare, and their three children, Margaret, Clare V, and Rains, stay busy in Atlanta with activities at North Avenue Presbyterian Church, Trinity and Westminster Schools, her garden club, and various civic programs. She also serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Todd Lewis Etter

Alexandria, Virginia
todde@fool.com

Todd continues to work for the Motley Fool. In addition to performing comedy, he recently started a side venture in creating custom puzzle/treasure hunts for schools and companies, and organizations. In the summers of 2008 and 2009, he created an event for the second-year Jefferson Scholars as part of the Institute for Leadership and Citizenship. His team also won the 2008 Washington Post Hunt, an event in downtown Washington, D.C. attended by over 5,000 people.

Byron Christopher Hulsey (PH.D.)

Huntsville, Alabama
bhulsey@randolphschool.net

Byron continues his work as head of school at Randolph, which will celebrate its 50th anniversary and open a new upper school on a separate campus this coming August. His son, Ben, will join the Randolph community as a kindergartner this fall as well.

Owen Joseph LaCour III (M.D.)

Metairie, Louisiana
jaylacour@cox.net

Jay continues in private practice in ophthalmology in New Orleans where he also works with the NOAIDS task force and the EENT Foundation providing medical and surgical care for the indigent. He serves on the board of the New Orleans Academy of Ophthalmology and again coached Cole's basketball, baseball, and soccer teams. Stacey believes that if Jay could get paid coaching eight-year-old basketball teams, he would change professions. Fortunately, two-year-old Connor is not involved in any team sports at this time.

Kimberly Tan Majure (J.D., LL.M. TAX)

Falls Church, Virginia
kmajure@milchev.com

Kim continues as a partner at Miller & Chevalier, practicing international tax planning and controversy. She served as a member of the Jefferson Scholars Selection Committee and the Piedmont Area Regional Selection Committee.

Daniel Dillon O'Neill (J.D.)

New York, New York
oneill@directionfunds.com

Dan continues as the president and chief investment officer for Direxion Funds, a division of Rafferty Asset Management LLC.

Nelse Thompson Schreck (J.D.)

Albuquerque, New Mexico
nrschreck@rodey.com

In 2009 Nelse will be moving to San Diego where she plans to marry William Miller and renew her practice in the law. She still volunteers her time teaching with the National Institute of Trial Advocacy. Within the American Bar Association's Real Property Section, she acts as the chair of the Committee on Real Estate Brokers and a member of the Standing Committees on Diversity and Communications.

Julious Perry Smith III (M.D.)

Richmond, Virginia
smithjulious@hotmail.com

Jody continues to practice with West End Orthopedic Clinic at St. Mary's Hospital in Richmond, Virginia. He does mostly sports medicine and is the team doctor for Hampden-Sydney College and the Richmond Renegades hockey team. He is currently on the medical executive committee at St. Mary's Hospital. He is on the board of directors of the Virginia Orthopedic Society and the St. Joseph's home/Little Sisters of the Poor. Jody served on the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

1991Jennifer Ann Amyx (PH.D.)

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
jamyx@sas.upenn.edu

Jennifer remains on the faculty in the Department of Political Science at the University of Pennsylvania. This past year, she also enjoyed new collaborations with the Wharton School of Business and participated in special forums where she drew on her research on Japan's financial crisis in the 1990s to talk about the current global financial and economic meltdown centering in the U.S. Although currently on medical leave, Jennifer plans to resume teaching in January. She remains active in her local church (City Church in West Philadelphia) and continues to enjoy greatly the company of her eight-year-old Rhodesian Ridgeback. Jennifer served on the Philadelphia Regional Selection Committee.

Susan Stilwell Bowen (M.D., M.B.A.)

Schönenberg, Switzerland
bowens98@alum.darden.edu

Susan and her husband have relocated to Zurich, Switzerland, as both are pursuing new opportunities. She joined Model N, the leader in Revenue Management, and is helping one of their International clients design business processes to support the new enterprise software. She continues to run her real estate services business remotely for as long as she can! She and her husband are looking forward to touring Europe with their dogs during their expat years in Switzerland.

Brad Ronnell Braxton (PH.D.)

New York City, New York
brb88@verizon.net

This year, Brad served as senior minister of The Riverside Church in New York City. He continues to lecture, write, and publish, and Lazetta is the founder and CEO of Financial Fountains, a financial planning firm. In their free time Brad and Lazetta delight in the new discoveries of Karis, who enjoys singing, dancing, reading, and drawing. Brad and his family plan to relocate to the Chicago area in August.

Patrick Joseph Brown (J.D.)

Ridgefield, Connecticut
patrick.brown1@gce.com

Pat continues to work for GE in Stamford, Connecticut. He served on the Westchester, New York/Fairfield Connecticut Regional Selection Committee.

Anderson Drew Caperton (M.A., J.D.)

Charlotte, North Carolina
anderson.caperton@cvt.com

Anderson is enjoying watching his son, Gaston, and daughter, Franca, grow up, and he also enjoys coaching baseball and basketball, golfing, and time on Lake Norman with the family. He continues to work with Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP as special counsel and served on the Charlotte Regional Selection Committee.

Samuel Erskine Farnham (M.B.A.)

Charlotte, North Carolina
sam.farnham@wachovia.com

Charlotte and the Farnhams appear to be weathering the financial meltdown OK. Sam remains active with the Jefferson Scholars Foundation, serving as chair of the Charlotte Regional Selection Committee and a member of the Jefferson Scholars Selection Committee. He continues to serve on the board at the Uptown Shelter, where he assumed the role of vice-chairman in June 2009.

Harley Shuford Garrison (M.B.A.)

Greensboro, North Carolina
hgarrison@starelectric.net

Harley remains as the vice president for administration at Starr Electric Company in Greensboro. He is a member of the Alumni Advisory Committee and the Piedmont Triad North Carolina Regional Selection Committee.

Daniel James Greiner II (J.D., PH.D.)

Belmont, Massachusetts
jgreiner@law.harvard.edu

Jim finished his second year as an assistant professor at Harvard Law School. He is currently working on four empirical projects that assess the effectiveness of different ways of providing legal services to indigent clients. He continues to teach ESL, but he has not yet gotten used to the Boston weather. Jim served on the Boston Regional Selection Committee.

Jennifer Brown Gwilliam

Evanston, Illinois
jgwilliam@comcast.net

Jennifer continues her involvement with Chiaravalle Montessori School, where her three children attend in grades 4, 3, and pre-K. She also serves on the board of the Chicago Foundation for Education, as corresponding secretary for the Garden Club of Evanston, as well as serving as a long standing member, and past chair, of the Chicago Regional Selection Committee. Currently, she is team parent and soccer/baseball/lacrosse/tennis/you-name-it-activity chauffeur extraordinaire! Family life is busy and happy.

Gretchen Geggis Hardin

Reserve, New Mexico
canyonfamily@gmail.com

Gretchen (Loba) continues as the co-director of the Anima Center and Sanctuary in New Mexico's Gila National Forest.

Graham Rudolph Laub (J.D.)

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
graylaub@gmail.com

Gray continues to practice corporate and securities law at Dilworth Paxson LLP in Philadelphia where he is the chair of the firm's securities department. Gray is chair of the securities regulation committee and vice chair of the mergers and acquisition committee of the Philadelphia Bar Association. Gray serves as co-chair of the Philadelphia Regional Selection Committee.

Travis Lynn Lewis (M.B.A.)

Frisco, Texas
ttl@renre.com

Travis continues as COO of RenRe Insurance company, based in Plano, Texas, and headquartered in Bermuda. When he's not traveling for work, he enjoys being with his wife and kids - Nathan who will be six this year, and Maddox, who will be three. Travis served on the National Advisory Board.

1992

IN MEMORIAM

Kenneth Decatur Heath

January 26, 1970

February 9, 2009

Chi Young Chung (M.D.)

Brea, California
chiychung@hotmail.com

Chi continues to serve as assistant chief of surgery at the Kaiser Riverside Medical Center and as a member of the leadership team at his church. He is busiest and most fulfilled as a father to Olivia and Nathan. Chi served on the Los Angeles Regional Selection Committee this year.

Benjamin Grinnan Ehlers (PH.D.)

Athens, Georgia
behlers@arches.uga.edu

In the summer of 2008 Ben spent three months in Valencia, Spain, teaching a course on the medieval era and conducting research on the history of Christian-Muslim relations in the Hispanic World. Following a sabbatical in the spring of 2009, he participated in the University of Georgia study abroad program in Oxford, where in addition to teaching a course on Elizabeth I and Philip II, he enjoyed exploring the churches, colleges, and parks in the city. He also served on the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee.

Justin Arthur Giroux (PH.D.)

Newport News, Virginia
Justino92470@cox.net

Justin continues to teach English and theatre arts in the International Baccalaureate program at Warwick High School in Newport News. He coaches his school's Odyssey of the Mind and academic teams, and he volunteers time to several organizations in his school (the speech and debate teams) and in his community (he is co-president of the Tidewater Forensic League). This summer he assisted in the revision of Virginia's Standards of Learning for English Composition.

Kimberly Dillon Grantham (PH.D.)

Athens, Georgia
kdgrantham@earthlink.net

Kimberly and her husband, Tarek, continue to enjoy raising their two sons in Athens, Georgia, balancing

JEFFERSON SCHOLAR ALUMNI SERVING ON BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

Sarah Walker Baker

U.Va.'s Young Alumni Council

Susan Kuhn Blank

Madison House

Molley Jesse Clarkson

U.Va. Atlanta Alumni Club

Elizabeth Eckstein Clifton

San Antonio Youth Centers

Paul Vincent DeMarco

Mercy Medicine Free Clinic
Eastern Carolina Community Foundation

Robert Wilson Downes

ArtsConnection

Lloyd Leonard Drury III

New Orleans Speech and Hearing Center
Parents' Club at his children's school

Hugh McCloskey Evans III

Catholic Charities of Maryland
Chesapeake Bay Foundation
LINC

Samuel Erskine Farnham

Uptown Shelter

Douglas McCarley Garrou

Commonwealth Autism Service

Jennifer Brown Gwilliam

Chicago Foundation for Education
Garden Club of Evanston

Richard Keith Harrison

Katy Economic Development Council

Timothy Joseph Ingrassia

Board of Directors for the Jefferson Scholars Foundation

Kenneth Roger Johnson Jr.

World Harvest Mission.

Sarah Elizabeth Joyner

American Heart Association
Tidewater Chapter
Virginia Chapter of the American College of Cardiology Council

Allison Julie Kean

Board of the Los Angeles American Heart Association

Glynn deVon Key

U.Va. Board of Visitors

Katherine Ellen Klem

President Obama's National Health Policy Advisory Committee

James Thornton Kirby

South Carolina Student Loan Corporation
SC Research Foundation
SC Office of Rural Health

Sarah Lyman Kravits

Parent Board at her child's school careers and family. This past summer was the first summer that the Terry College of Business hosted the Terry Business Academy for high-achieving rising junior and senior high school students. In the first year of the Academy, Kimberly served as the curriculum director.

Richard Keith Harrison
(M.A.)

Houston, Texas
KeithHarrisonNC@gmail.com

Founders Aviation was recently featured as the May 2009 cover story for the Katy/Fort Bend Business Journal, as an innovative, efficient solution to problems plaguing the corporate aviation market sector. Keith currently serves as a board member of the Katy Economic Development Council and very much enjoyed participating as a member of the Houston Regional Selection Committee.

James R. Kozloski (PH.D.)

New Fairfield, Connecticut

James continues to work as a research staff member at IBM T.J. Watson Laboratories in computational biology, modeling brain systems and creating technology at the interface between neuroscience and information technology.

Sarah Louise Leaman (M.A., M.ED.)

Brooklyn, New York
leamansarah@hotmail.com

Sarah teaches second grade at P.S. 321 in Brooklyn. This year she served on the School Leadership Team, which has been working on green initiatives such as planning a school garden. She is also the arts leader for her grade, working hard to develop arts curricula in conjunction with local cultural organizations. Sarah's son, Jake, is now a freshman at Stuyvesant High School, and she realizes time must be passing because he is taller than both his parents! When she is not birdwatching with her students in state parks or directing them in dramatic performances of arcane poetry, Sarah watches Jake play baseball.

Jean Katharine Martin-Weinstein (M.P.P.)

Washington, D.C.
martinj@executiveboard.com

Jean continues writing, editing, and directing strategic reports on leadership for the private, public, and non-profit sectors, as executive director of the Corporate Leadership Council. This year she expanded her research to include organizations in the education and social sectors, as well as additional work with corporations in India. She and Warren are enjoying Caleb (3) and Tess (1) in Washington, D.C., where Warren is directing the Bipartisan Policy Center's Advocacy Network. Jean continues to be active on the board of City Year, a non-profit organization focused on providing development opportunities to inner-city youth.

Parks Harris Morris Jr.
(M.B.A.)

Englewood, Colorado
harris.morris@harris.com

Last year's move to Denver has proven a great thing; the whole family simply loves Colorado. The kids have settled in beautifully and are having a ball with skiing and rock climbing as well as the usual slate of school and sports activities. Harris is enjoying his second year as general manager of the media and workflow business at Harris Corporation Broadcast and likes the challenge of managing in the rapidly-changing media and TV market. He is adding to a strong team and growing initiatives in new media and next-generation advertising and content. He's also finding time to get out and play a little - mostly with the kids, as well as just standing in a river waving a stick (some call this fly-fishing). He is also beginning to get active in the local Denver community and plans to be here for a while. Harris continues to serve on the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Christopher Shawn Ramsey (M.E.)

*Spring, Texas
hoos2005@sbcglobal.net*

Chris continues his work as a financial planner with the Outlook Financial Group, LLC. He was also the coach for his son Will's basketball and soccer teams and serves as the registrar for the neighborhood swim team.

Arthur Charles Roselle (M.S.)

*Charlotte, North Carolina
art.roselle@wachovia.com*

Art remains in Charlotte with his wife, Paige, and three children: Charles (10), David (8) and Faye (6). He continues in his role as partner with Wachovia Capital Partners. Art served on the Charlotte Regional Selection Committee.

Kevin Charles Stewart (M.S., PH.D.)

*Richmond, Virginia
kevin@StewartTech.com*

Kevin continues to work in Richmond as a programmer and served on the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

Audrey Karen Tolbert (M.D.)

Cookeville, Tennessee bkdockery@charter.net

Audrey continues as a physician with Internal Medicine Associates in Cookeville.

Thomas Minh Tu (M.D.)

*Louisville, Kentucky
ttu@bellsouth.net*

Tom continues to develop his clinical practice in Louisville, Kentucky. He is actively involved in a number of clinical research trials. Tom is a frequent domestic and international speaker on topics in interventional cardiology. His greatest professional accomplishment is the development of a nation-wide teaching conference for cardiologists-in-training.

William Bradford Wilcox (PH.D.)

*Charlottesville, Virginia
wbwilcox@virginia.edu*

Brad was named director of the National Marriage Project at U.Va. this year. He is currently researching the effects of motherhood on marital quality for women. The Wilcoxes are active members of St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church. Brad served on the Jefferson Scholars Selection Committee.

1993

Tonia J. Sanborn Anderson

*Germantown, Tennessee
tonia_anderson@yahoo.com*

Tonia and Scott had another great year in Memphis, with Tonia teaching twice as many classes this year and reaching the halfway point in her master's program in instruction and curriculum leadership. Although Tonia will continue to teach at St. George's next year, Scott will become the director of outreach for the Common Application and begin working

MORE BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

Owen Joseph LaCour III

New Orleans Academy of Ophthalmology

Graham Rudolph Laub

Philadelphia Bar Association

Jack Brady Lum

Points of Light Institute
Hands on Network

Jean Katharine Martin-Weinstein

City Year

Ben Humphreys McGee III

Mississippi Innocence Project

Erin Kathleen Monaghan

Gifts for the Homeless, Inc.

Logan Anderson Moncrief

McIntire School of Commerce
Young Alumni Council

John Marshall Page III

Board of his children's school

Blair Justin Fire Reich

Chewonki Foundation

Coolidge Elmo Rhodes Jr.

Board of Directors of the Texas
Young Lawyers Association

Mary Fader Saville

Clinical Practices Committee for the U.Va. Hospital

Nelse Thompson Schreck

American Bar Association's Real Property Section

Todd Mitchell Simkin

Jefferson Scholars Foundation
National Advisory Board

Julious Perry Smith III

Virginia Orthopedic Society
St. Joseph's Home/Little Sisters of the Poor

Richard Stone Starling

Charlotte Museum of History

George Edward Tyson II

The Children's Theatre Company
Junior Achievement of the Upper Midwest

Susan Stringfellow Walker

Real property section for Virginia
State Bar Association
Virginia Beach Heritage Bank

Anne Taufen Wessells

Seattle's Pocock Foundation

Elizabeth Semancik White

Foundation Board of the Georgia
Association of Women Lawyers

Niran Romesh Wijesooriya

Affordable housing non-profit in
Richmond, Virginia

Frank Camp Williams III

The Upstate Alliance
Communities in Schools
Christ Church Episcopal School
Alumni Association

Kirsten Andrews Woelper

Institute of Notre Dame

Di Wu

Fudan Fuzhong Overseas
Foundation

from home. Ben (7) had a wonderful first grade year, and Sean (4) will be heading to preschool in the fall after another great year in faculty daycare. The whole family continues to enjoy being involved in their church through the midweek LOGOS program, choir, and the children's education committee. Tonia and Scott are also finding themselves learning much more about sports as they seek to nurture Ben's athletic talents, which have already exceed his parents'. Tonia served on the Memphis Regional Selection Committee.

James Scott Ballenger (J.D.)

Washington, D.C.
scott_ballenger@comcast.net

Scott continues as a partner in the appellate group at Latham & Watkins. He is jealous that Catherine is home with one-and-a-half year old John this summer, but takes comfort in the fact that John spends all day asking for "Dada." Scott plans to spend as much time as possible out on his fishing boat.

Carla Wheaton Brady (M.D., M.S.H.S.)

Durham, North Carolina
carla.brady@duke.edu

Carla continues to try to keep up with her busy toddler son! She also remains a faculty member in the Division of Gastroenterology at Duke University Medical Center. She authored a manuscript on race and gender issues in liver transplantation, which was published in the Journal of the American Medical Association in November 2008. The findings from this article were also featured on the NBC Nightly News. Also, Carla has been serving as a site principal investigator for two multicenter hepatitis C clinical trials. Carla is a member of the Alumni Advisory Committee and served on the Jefferson Scholars Selection Committee.

Cornelius Lyn Bynum

(PH.D.)

West Lafayette, Indiana
cornelius_bynum@hotmail.com

Neil's article, "The Arrival of the New Crowd," was accepted for publication by the Journal of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era and will appear in the January 2011 issue.

Christa Marianne Compton (M.T., PH.D.)

Palo Alto, California
ccomp43@aol.com

Christa plans to enter the master's of divinity program at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary in the fall of 2009. She continues to enjoy her work as an interfaith volunteer with the Spiritual Care Department at Stanford Hospital and looks forward to pursuing ordination in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA).

Lloyd Leonard Drury III (J.D.)

New Orleans, Louisiana
llathree@gmail.com

Trey continues teaching at Loyola University New Orleans College of Law. This year he was promoted to associate professor and organized a symposium on "Predatory Lending and its Impact on the Consumer Credit Market." Trey also remains active in the New Orleans community. He served as treasurer of the board of directors of the New Orleans Speech and Hearing Center, vice-president of the parents' club of his children's school, and soccer coach to both Max (U-10) and Kate (U-6).

Jeffrey Allen Ebert (M.S.)

Half Moon Bay, California
jeebert@cisco.com

Jeff continues to work at Cisco Systems. He is also working on writing a technical book this year.

Marybeth White Edgecomb

Alpharetta, Georgia
marybeth@edgecombfamily.com

Well, every time the Edgecomb family says "no major changes this year" a major change happens. Marybeth unexpectedly stepped back in to take the helm at her former company after a reorganization. The company is now named Chemistry Communications, Inc. (website to come) and continues to specialize in internal corporate communications and employee relations. Herb is still traveling a lot, which made balancing work and homeschooling this spring challenging. In the fall Ian starts high school in Maine, Sandy starts middle school here, and Marybeth will homeschool Joshua (kindergarten) and Jordan (pre-K). The excitement never ends! If any alumni are ever in Atlanta, feel free to give Marybeth a ring and go to a Braves game.

Allison Julie Kean (M.D.)

Los Angeles, California
ajkean@gmail.com

Allison continues to see patients as part of the UCLA Heart Failure and Transplant program as well as participate in clinical research trials. She serves on the board of the Los Angeles American Heart Association and is the co-chair of the Los Angeles Regional Selection Committee. She is happy to report that she married Paul Dinsmore, an executive at Sony Pictures, in Santa Barbara this past May. They reside in the Brentwood area of Los Angeles.

Jason Ian Koontz (M.D., PH.D.)

Durham, North Carolina
koontz03@mc.duke.edu

Jason continues his training in cardiology at Duke University.

Catherine Elizabeth McCall (M.ED.)

Washington, D.C.
cathmccall@comcast.net

After taking on three part-time jobs and a graduate class last fall, Catherine enjoyed the more reasonable pace of working as a university supervisor for student teachers this spring. She is looking forward to continuing in that position when school starts up again, and in the meantime she's enjoying spending the summer with one-and-a-half year old John. Catherine was a member of the Washington, D.C./ Suburban Maryland Regional Selection Committee.

Richard Stone Starling (J.D.)

Charlotte, North Carolina
rstarling@rbh.com

Rick continues to practice corporate law at Robinson, Bradshaw & Hinson in Charlotte where he leads the firm's private equity fund formation and management practice group. In his spare time Rick plays keyboard in a local classic rock cover band called "The Bad Daddies." Rick also enjoys tennis, golf, home improvement, and playing with his kids, Robert and Jane. He serves on the board of trustees of the Charlotte Museum of History. Rick served on the Charlotte Regional Selection Committee.

John Harman Vick

Tempe, Arizona
johnvick@gmail.com

The year 2009 marks the 10th anniversary of the founding of John's band Hello Swindon, which continues to perform regularly in the Phoenix area. The band hopes to record again soon to mark this milestone, since it has been a number of years since their last recording Pioneer Ten [for more information about the band and/or recordings, go to www.myspace.com/helloswindonmusic or www.cdbaby.com] Anthony finished 2nd grade and his first Tempe Little League season, and Sadara is readying herself for 6th grade in the fall, along with the new challenges and opportunities that middle school will provide.

Lisa Rosenthal Young (M.D.)

Cincinnati, Ohio
Lisa.Young@cchmc.org

Lisa continues a combination of clinical practice and research at Cincinnati Children's Hospital

Medical Center. Lisa and her husband Matt have two children.

1994

Amber Beth Blaha (J.D.)

Arlington, Virginia
amberblaha@mac.com

Amber and Alex and are expecting a baby in late June, to join three-year-old Cecilia. Amber continues to work in the Environment and Natural Resources Division of the Department of Justice, handling litigation and policy matters. Her elusive free time is spent sewing, gardening, and biking. Amber served on the Northern Virginia Regional Selection Committee again this year.

Anne Hanahan Blessing (M.A.)

Charleston, South Carolina
anneandbo@yahoo.com

Anne is a professor of English at the College of Charleston and is finishing her dissertation: "Cross-racial writing: Mammy Figures in Contemporary Fiction." She has a 5-year-old son, Walter, and a 3-year-old daughter, Jane, and is married to Bo Blessing, a general surgeon in Charleston. She served as co-chair of the Lowcountry South Carolina/Georgia Regional Selection Committee.

Katherine Mary Bolger (J.D.)

New York, New York
kmbolger@hnlaw.com

Kate continues to practice first amendment and media law as a partner at Hogan & Hartson LLP in New York City.

Bernard Vaughan Fallon Jr.

Washington, D.C.
bvfallon@gmail.com

Bernie published his tenth study for Fortune 500 strategists, "Strategy Execution in Volatile Markets," as senior director of research and practice manager at the Corporate Executive Board. Authors of two business books published in the last year (Stall Points and Relevance) cited his analytical contributions to their work. Bernie is now researching corporate strategy as an independent consultant.

David Rutherford Fleet

Singapore
david.fleet@standardchartered.com

David, wife Maita, sons Carlos and Joaquin, and daughter Ysabel continue to live in Singapore where David works with Standard Chartered Bank.

Karen Elizabeth Heys (M.T.)

Accokeek, Maryland
kheys@earthlink.net

Karen continues to head a national initiative to increase high school environmental literacy. Outside of work she spends her time working on a community garden and cans to put as much away as possible for the winter.

John Chao-Chun Lin (M.D.)

San Antonio, Texas
linxjc@mac.com

At last report, John was continuing in his six-year commitment with the Air Force.

Sara Kalchbrenner Luckert (M.T.)

Longmeadow, Massachusetts
skluckert@hotmail.com

Sara spent this year implementing Critical Literacy, a reading course designed to foster critical thinking and awareness, at Agawam Junior High School in Agawam, Massachusetts. She continues to take graduate courses towards her M.A. license as well. In her "free" time, you can find her rooting for her lads as they play baseball and basketball.

Deborah Bohn McWilliams (M.D.)

Rochester, Minnesota
mcwilliamsdeborah@hotmail.com

Deb lives in Rochester, Minnesota, with her husband Rob (Col '92), five-year-old Caitlin and two-year-old Brennan. She continues on staff at the Mayo Clinic in pediatrics, caring for children and teaching medical students and residents. Her current special project is developing a Mayo Clinic RN Care Manager system for children with asthma. She continues to enjoy working with the Department of Natural Resources on native prairie restoration and the restoration of previously-cleared forestland.

Randy Todd Miller (J.D.)

Los Angeles, California
randall.miller@natplan.com

Randy was a regional vice president with Jackson National until March, when he transferred to a subsidiary called National Planning Corporation. He is now a vice president and strategic business consultant at NPC and lives in West Los Angeles with his wife, Julie, and dog, Paco.

Lowell S. Wells Nevill

Warrenton, Virginia
lowell.nevill@gmail.com

Wells is currently serving as a major in the Virginia Army National Guard and is assigned to the 29th Infantry Division Headquarters at Fort Belvoir.

He enjoys Cub Scouts with his son and serves as cubmaster and den leader for the pack. He was a member of the Piedmont Area Regional Selection Committee.

Rodney Andre Pressley

Yorktown, Virginia

Robert Fleming Puckett (M.B.A., L.L.B., L.L.M., M.A.)

Oxford, England
fleming.puckett@yahoo.com

After their wedding, Fleming and Emily relocated to Oxford, where Emily is working as a management consultant and Fleming is pursuing his doctorate. Fleming recently completed his official university upgrade process and will be conducting six months of fieldwork in South Africa during the 2009-2010 academic year. His dissertation title is "The Strange Case of the Landed Poor: A Decade of Continued Poverty, Community Divisions, and Frustrated Attempts by Outsiders to Mobilise San Bushman Communities to Establish Long-Term Livelihoods on Their New Lands in South Africa". In their spare time, Fleming and Emily are raising a new Italian Spinone puppy, Harry, who is enjoying the parks and pubs of Oxford.

Jennifer Sue Scappettone (Ph.D.)

Chicago, Illinois
jiscap@uchicago.edu

Jennifer spent 2008-2009 on leave from the University of Chicago, working in Venice and in New York City toward the completion of a critical manuscript called "This Amphibious City: Venice and the Digressive Invention of the Modern," with support from the Gladys Krieble Delmas Foundation as well as the exquisite bibliographical assistance of Jia Tolentino (JS '09). She gave talks and readings at Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania, St. John's University, Experimental Station in Chicago, The Prosodic Body Studio and Priska Juschka Fine Arts in New York City, as well as in Rome and Bologna. Her first book of poetry, From Dame Quickly, was published by Litmus Press in March; the same week, another book, Elders Series #5: Poetry, Landscape, Apocalypse, featuring graphic stills and prose by Jennifer and poetry by Lyn Hejinian and Etel Adnan, was issued by Belladonna Books. Jennifer spent a month at the Djerassi Resident Artists Program working toward her next book project, a cross-genre archaeology of the landfill and opera of pop-ups called Exit 43. An installation of her visual poetry was exhibited in Brussels and in Ghent this spring. She will be on tour with four Italian poets in late May following publication of Aufgabe #7, which she guest-edited, and will return to Italy for 40 days of summer. Jennifer's readings, a talk, and an interview are available for listening from PennSound's author archive (<http://writing.upenn.edu/pennsound/x/Scappettone.html>).

Betty Boyd Staples (M.D.)

Durham, North Carolina
betty.staples@duke.edu

In July 2008 Betty became the program director for the Duke Pediatric Residency Program. She is having a lot of fun teaching young pediatricians while continuing to care for young patients herself. She feels her time at U.Va. and the educational theories of Thomas Jefferson continue to serve as a model in her daily work. Betty tells her residents that they should never expect to be seniors in their education but should develop the skills to be lifelong learners of pediatrics.

Leslie Keith Yonce IV (J.D.)

Richmond, Virginia
lkyonce@msn.com

Les and Kathryn's biggest news this year was the birth of Charles Anderson (Charlie) Yonce on April 3, 2009. Mom, Dad, big sister Lilla, and Daisy the dog are all adjusting well to the new arrival. Les continues his legal work with Capital One and served on the U.Va. Class of 1994 Reunion Committee. He will end his term on the Jefferson Scholars Alumni Advisory Committee in October 2009 and reluctantly looks forward to identifying a successor. Kathryn was named to the governing board for Lilla's preschool at First Presbyterian Church.

1995

Zayde Gordon Antrim (PH.D.)

West Hartford, Connecticut
zantrim@yahoo.com

Zayde continues to teach Middle Eastern History at Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut. She won an American Council of Learned Societies Fellowship to support a sabbatical in 2009-2010, during which she will complete her book manuscript entitled Routes and Realms: The Power of Place in the Early Islamic World.

Susan Kuhn Blank (M.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
susankblank@yahoo.com

Susan will be completing her endocrinology fellowship in June and will be staying at U.Va. as part-time clinical faculty. She is looking forward to spending more time with her two-year-old twin daughters, Madeline and Alexandra. Susan serves on the Jefferson Scholar Alumni Advisory Committee and on the Madison House Board of Directors.

Christopher Adam Boals (M.D.)

Memphis, Tennessee
boals91@aol.com

Chris and Melissa continue to enjoy their children, Will and Samantha, now five and two years old. Chris continues to participate in resident education at the Methodist University Hospital Department of Radiology and is still a volunteer at the Church Health Center in Memphis.

Matthew Scott Branson (J.D.)

Alexandria, Virginia
teejhoo@yahoo.com

Matt and Nicole joined a presumably tiny demographic this spring when they wrote deposit checks for both pre-school and college -- such is life when you have two toddlers and a teenager. Matt continues to work at Latham & Watkins as an ethics staff attorney and serves his church as a trustee. He also organized a donation drive at his office for Turning the Page, a non-profit that provides programs for public elementary schools in Washington, DC.

James Kent Cameron (M.B.A.)

Louisville, Kentucky
jkcameron@aegonusa.com

Jim continues to work as a director in the structured finance group of AEGON USA Investment Management. He and Leigh reside in Louisville with sons James (3) and Wes (1). This past year, Jim served on the Kentucky Regional Selection Committee.

Orit Jacoby Carroll (M.ARCH.)

Brooklyn, New York
orit@oecarroll.com

Orit just ended another busy theatre season with the Broadway revival of the musical HAIR and is already deep into projects for the fall. Joel is almost 3 and continues to be a joy and a challenge! Last winter, Orit served on the New York City Regional Selection Committee.

Jason Foster Dickerson (M.P.A.)

Roseville, California
jasonfd247@gmail.com

Jason was chosen to lead the California Legislative Analyst's Office state budget forecasting process. He hoped to climb Mount Whitney during the summer of 2009.

Mark Christopher Dixon (M.B.A.)

San Francisco, California
markcdixon@yahoo.com

Mark continues as director of products at Sharpcast in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Michael Grier Eliasek (M.B.A.)

New York, New York
meliassek@mbazooa.hbs.edu

Grier and his wife Tristana celebrated the birth of their daughter, Remington McKendree, in March. Grier continues as president of Prospect Capital Corporation, a publicly traded private equity and mezzanine investment firm. Grier and Tristana reside on the Upper East Side of Manhattan and remain active with Virginia alumni activities. Grier has served for several years on the Long Island, New York Regional Selection Committee.

Michael Bridges Fredericks (M.S.)

Fairfax, Virginia
FredF@concur.com

Fred is now one of the senior directors of research and development at Concur. His teams are responsible for the Cliqbook on-line business travel booking tool and for Concur Mobile, a smartphone travel and expense application.

Kirsten Lynn Greene (M.D., M.A.)

San Francisco, California
kirstengreene@yahoo.com

Kirsten continues as an assistant professor of urology at the University of California, San Francisco.

Devin James-William Griffin (M.B.A.)

Washington, D.C.
djwgriffin@yahoo.com

Charles Robert Hermes (M.E., M.B.A.)

Houston, Texas
charles@practicaladventures.com

Charles is currently working as CEO of YourTeacher.com. He served on the Houston Regional Selection Committee.

Ben Humphreys McGee III (J.D.)

Oxford, Mississippi
hump73@hotmail.com

Humphreys continues to practice law in Oxford, Mississippi. He also serves as a member of the board of directors of the Mississippi Innocence Project.

Sharon Marie McGowan (J.D.)

Washington, D.C.
sharon_mcgowan@hotmail.com

Sharon continues to work as a staff attorney with the ACLU's Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Project, but is now based out of the ACLU's Washington Legislative Office and focuses on work in Mid-Atlantic states including Virginia. In fall of 2008 Sharon secured a landmark transgender civil rights decision in her employment discrimination case against the Library of Congress, Schroer v. Billington, which she brought to trial as first-chair. On the personal front, Sharon and Emily are thrilled to announce their engagement. Nuptials are planned for Spring 2010.

Richard Vint Rector (PH.D.)

Birmingham, Alabama
rvrector@aol.com

Richard is an adjunct faculty member at Birmingham Southern College where he teaches undergraduate courses and at the University of Alabama-Birmingham where he teaches graduate courses. He has a post doctorate position in child behavioral research. Richard served on the Birmingham Regional Selection Committee.

Seaborn McDonald Wade III (M.D.)

Richmond, Virginia
dwade@vacancer.com

Donny continues to practice oncology at the Virginia Cancer Institute in Richmond. He and Margaret are enjoying their new house. Mac is a rising 4th grader, and Liddy is a rising 2nd grader.

Anne Taufen Wessells (M.G.A., PH.D.)

Tacoma, Washington
ataufen@gmail.com

Anne, Cooper and Clara (3) survived their second cross-country move in as many years and are happily acclimating to Seattle. A junior faculty member at the University of Washington, Tacoma, Anne is adjusting to her new institution and grateful for the challenge and rewards of teaching. Despite selling her single scull in 2008, Anne has not been able to stay away from the boathouse. She recently joined the Access Rowing Committee of Seattle's Pocock Foundation, in support of a new novice rowing program for under-served urban youth.

Kirsten Andrews Woelper (J.D.)

Baltimore, Maryland
kwoelper@gejlaw.com

Kirsten continues to practice law in the areas of real estate development, finance, and commercial transactions as a partner with the law firm of Gallagher Evelius & Jones LLP in Baltimore. She is the chair of the Maryland Regional Selection Committee and serves on the board of directors of the Institute of Notre Dame, a Catholic independent secondary school for girls in Baltimore City.

1996

Molly Beth Chartier (M.D.)

Providence, Rhode Island
mbchartier@hotmail.com

Molly is finishing her dermatopathology fellowship at Roger Williams in Providence. She and her family are relocating to the Portsmouth, New Hampshire, area, where Molly will join Northeast Dermatology Associates group and will start practice in Portsmouth and Newburyport, Massachusetts, in the fall. In addition, baby #3 arrived in July. She and her family have a lot going on, but she is thrilled to be moving past training and on with her life!

Maryanne Quinn Hancock (JS '96), who is married to Brian Hancock (JS'97), spends some time at the beach with their sons, Will and Hugh.

Lara Shayne Collier (PH.D.)

Fitchburg, Wisconsin
lsc5e@alumni.virginia.edu

Lara remains busy teaching, performing research, and writing grants. She was recently awarded a Kimmel Scholar Award, which provides research support to promising young cancer researchers. Her biggest challenge was running the Madison half marathon Memorial Day weekend.

Jan deBeer (J.D.)

Lexington, Kentucky
jdebeer@btlaw.com

Jan is currently a member with the law firm of Frost Brown Todd LLC in Lexington, Kentucky. Over the last few years Jan has developed an active practice in the international trade compliance area. He has been married for eight years and is the proud father of two daughters, Idalia Elisabeth and Louisa Cecilia. Jan is an active member of the Kentucky Regional Selection Committee and is also the president of the U.Va. Club of Lexington.

Fiona Mary Doherty (J.D.)

New York, New York
fionamarydoherty@hotmail.com

Fiona and Chris now have two wonderful little girls: Maeve, who was born on September 23, 2008, joined her older sister, Sophia (3). After a fantastic six months maternity-leave, Fiona is now back at work as an assistant federal defender in the Southern District of New York.

Rebekah Leslie Gardner (M.D.)

Providence, Rhode Island
rebaleslie@yahoo.com

Rebekah is enjoying teaching medical students and residents at Brown Medical School. She and her husband both practice medicine at Rhode Island Hospital in Providence. A two-year-old son also keeps them busy.

Maryanne Quinn Hancock (J.D., M.A.)

Atlanta, Georgia
maryanne_hancock@mckinsey.com

Maryanne continues as a partner at McKinsey and Company. She, Bryan, and their two sons, Will and Hugh, live in Atlanta. Maryanne was a member of the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee.

Amy Anne Donatelli Lassig (M.D.)*Minneapolis, Minnesota
aadonlass@gmail.com*

Amy Anne continues to work as an assistant professor in the University of Minnesota's Department of Otolaryngology (head and neck surgery), specializing in head and neck cancer surgery and reconstruction. She and her husband Jeff welcomed a son, August, last summer and are loving life as new parents in the Twin Cities.

Deidre Robyn Lee (M.B.A.)Washington, D.C. deidre@colorsilverspring.com

This was a very hectic year for Deidre's Color Me Mine businesses. She enhanced their service and fundraising for local organizations serving women and children including Children's Hospital, the Metro Washington USO and the Children's Inn at NIH. In 2008, 10% of Color Me Mine's sales were donated in cash and in-kind services.

Margaret Mei Lee (M.B.A.)*Dublin, California
margaret.lee@oracle.com*

Margaret continues to be a busy working mom. In the past year, she also participated in a number of professional women's organizations, such as the Professional Business Women of California.

Marcus Wayne Moody (M.D.)*Little Rock, Arkansas
marcus.moody@gmail.com*

Marcus is a physician practicing rhinology and reconstructive facial plastic surgery in the Department of Otolaryngology/Head and Neck Surgery at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences. Marcus and his wife Katie reside in Little Rock with their two daughters, and they are actively involved in their church and community. Marcus makes regular medical mission trips to Honduras and is currently planning a return trip to Nepal.

Sara Elizabeth Neher (M.B.A.)*Charlottesville, Virginia
neher@darden.virginia.edu*

As director of admissions at the Darden School of Business, Sara traveled across the United States as well as to Europe, Canada, and Japan this past year. She continues to volunteer at the Boys and Girls Club. This fall, in addition to her work responsibilities, she will begin the Ph.D. in Management in Leadership and Organization Behavior program at the Darden School.

Kent Ronald Nilsson Jr. (M.D., M.A.)*Durham, North Carolina
kent.nilsson@duke.edu*

Kent started his cardiac electrophysiology fellowship at Duke in July. He continues to conduct research into the genetic basis of sudden cardiac death. He is looking forward to completing his training.

Timothy Raphael O'Hara II (M.B.A.)*Alexandria, Virginia
oharati@advisory.com*

Tim, Sarah, and Rory (3) welcomed Aven Elizabeth into their family in May. They remain active members of the Alexandria and Washington communities, including work with ServiceCorp and CityBridge Foundation.

John Flick Parrott Jr. (M.D.)*Greenville, South Carolina
jparrott@ucrad.com*

John became a partner in his radiology practice and enjoyed serving on the Central and Upstate South Carolina Regional Selection Committee this year.

Christopher H. Pierce Salguero (M.A.)Syracuse, New York pierce@jhmi.edu

Pierce has been living with his family in Taipei, Taiwan, as a Fulbright IIE Fellow. He is currently finishing his doctoral dissertation on Chinese Buddhist medicine. Pierce returned to the U.S. in August to begin a teaching position at Le Moyne College in Syracuse, New York.

Todd Mitchell Simkin (M.B.A.)*Wynnewood, Pennsylvania
simkin@sig.com*

Todd continues to work at SIG, LLP, a diversified global financial services firm. In addition, Todd serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee, the Philadelphia Regional Selection Committee, and the National Advisory Board.

James Blair Smethurst*Orlando, Florida
jsmethurst@senteca.com*

Jay's quest to transform the meetings industry into a hotbed of productivity and innovation remains on track, if at a somewhat slower pace than anticipated. It appears that meetings must actually be held (not canceled) for them to be revolutionary. So Jay has been making do with his usual stream of unusual clients and projects, continuing to stump his poor parents when people ask them what their son does for a living. At home in Orlando, Jay and Kristen continue to admire their handiwork as Emme sings and laughs her way into the hearts of everyone who meets her.

Clay Elwood Thomson (M.B.A.)*Charlottesville, Virginia
cthomson@mba2002.hbs.edu*

Clay moved to Charlottesville in September 2008. He works at Investure, LLC, an asset management firm that manages the investment portfolios of six college endowments and four not-for-profit foundations. Investure manages 100% of its clients' assets and makes investments across all asset classes. Clay was married in December 2008, and he and his wife, Emmy, are thoroughly enjoying life in Charlottesville. He served on the Charlottesville Regional Selection Committee.

Gretchen Steidle Wallace (M.B.A.)*Canaan, New Hampshire
gwallace@globalgrassroots.org*

Gretchen continues to lead Global Grassroots' work in catalyzing the ideas of grassroots change agents working for women's rights post-conflict. She is currently conducting research on the intersection of personal and societal transformation, including the use of alternative healing techniques and Eastern contemplative practices to advance social justice.

Maurice Darnell Watkins (M.B.A.)*New York, New York
maurice_watkins@yahoo.com*

Maurice is in the initial stages of raising the first private equity fund under the the Millbank Roy umbrella. He continues to be active with the New York Council of Urban Professionals and plans to join a board focused on the needs of the Harlem community. He served as a member of the New York City Regional Selection Committee.

1997Margaret Henderson Basu (M.D.)Houston, Texas
blackwidow2002@yahoo.com*

Meg served as co-chair for the Houston Regional Selection Committee this past year and loved getting to know this bunch of nominees. She continues to enjoy serving on the Alumni Advisory Committee, especially the excuse to visit Charlottesville in the spring. She still loves her private practice specializing in reproductive psychiatry. When Meg is not seeing patients, she is running carpool, taking Mia and Caroline to swimming and gymnastics or being impressed by the bountiful produce available in Houston farmers' markets.

Gretchen Wallace (JS '96) greets refugees in Rwanda through her work with her organization Global Grassroots.

Kimberly Baker Dulaney (M.T.S., M.D.)

*Rocky Mount, Virginia
kadulaney@aol.com*

Kim and Brad added a third child to their brood this year: Isaac Henry joined Zora (6) and Jesse (3). Kim is still loving her job as a small-town family practice physician, which is much less hectic since she went part time. On the days she is not doctoring, she gardens, volunteers in the church and community, and homeschools her six-year-old. A highlight of the year was a Christmas fundraising project for the Nothing But Nets campaign, which focuses on malaria prevention in Africa. Her husband, Brad, continues as a United Methodist minister.

Suhrid Subhash Gajendragadkar (M.A., J.D.)

*New York, New York
Suhrid_Gajendragadkar@mckinsey.com*

Suhrid and Shilpa remain very happy in New York, though their parents remind them often that U.Va. Lawn rooms have more space than their current apartment. Suhrid is an engagement manager at McKinsey, where he helps clients in the financial and professional services industries with strategy and organization issues. Shilpa continues to lead the consumer insights division at Victoria's Secret. Most importantly, they are looking forward to the great changes in their life this fall, as they are expecting their first child around Thanksgiving. Suhrid was the co-chair of the New York City Regional Selection Committee and serves on the Undergraduate Advisory Committee.

Bryan Andrew Hancock (J.D.)

*Atlanta, Georgia
bryan_hancock@mckinsey.com*

Bryan and Maryanne are partners at McKinsey and Company in Atlanta, and they are both involved in McKinsey's Social Sector Office. Over the past year, Bryan led McKinsey's research on the Economic Impact of the Achievement Gap in America's Schools, and he remains involved in efforts to address the achievement gap, in addition to his other client work. Bryan served on the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee.

Laura Elizabeth Johnston (PH.D., M.DIV.)

*Arlington, Massachusetts
johnstla@bc.edu*

Laurie defended her Ph.D. dissertation at Boston College in September of 2008 and continues in her position as an assistant professor of religious studies at Emmanuel College in Boston. She has learned to check the Red Sox schedule before attempting to drive to work because Emmanuel is down the street from Fenway Park. Laurie is also mom to Daniel (4) and Greta (2).

Sarah Elizabeth Joyner (M.P.H., M.D.)

*Virginia Beach, Virginia
sej@hotmail.com*

Sarah enjoys working as a cardiologist in her hometown of Virginia Beach and in Norfolk. She was elected to fellowship in the American College of Cardiology this year. She was excited to serve on the Tidewater Regional Selection Committee. Sarah now serves as board member of the American Heart Association Tidewater Chapter and on the Virginia Chapter of the American College of Cardiology Council. She wishes everyone well.

Ian Kyunghoon Kim (M.B.A.)

*San Francisco, California
ian.kim@mac.com*

Ian's work at the Ella Baker Center for Human Rights continues to grow in exciting ways! "Green Jobs" has become a prominent national issue, and the Obama Administration presents many exciting new opportunities to continue pushing for an equitable green economy in this country. See ellabakercenter.org and greenforall.org for more information on his efforts.

Jason Craig Kirkham (J.D.)

*Atlanta, Georgia
jason.kirkham@sablaw.com*

Jason continues as an attorney at Sutherland Asbill & Brennan LLP.

Thomas Walker Lamond

Washington, D.C. walkerlamond@mac.com

Walker and D. A. Pennebaker's film about Bob Dylan 65 Revisited enjoyed a theatrical run in New York and is now available on DVD. He continues to work in non-fiction TV, this past year writing and producing another true-crime documentary series for the Discovery Channel called "The Real NCIS." In addition, Walker's first book, a collection of fatherly advice for boys, will be published by St. Martin's Press this fall. Rules for My Unborn Son will be available in bookstores in November 2009. Walker lives in Washington, DC with his wife Colleen and their son Arthur.

Luciana Fonseca Lopez (M.A.)

*São Paulo, Brazil
lucianalopez@hotmail.com*

As of this writing, Luciana is still the pop music critic for the Oregonian... for three more days. By the time you read this, she will probably be in São Paulo, Brazil, for her new job as an economics reporter for Reuters. She has been featured in some literary journals and anthologies and also volunteers with homeless and at-risk children. Luciana served on the Portland Regional Selection Committee.

Torri Scott Martin (M.A.)

Louisville, Kentucky
torelm@hotmail.com

This past year Torri served on the Kentucky Regional Selection Committee and volunteered with Brandeis Elementary School. Torri's plans for the summer include furthering her family's transition to sustainable living, including expanding their compost and rainbarrels for the new vegetable garden. This fall, Torri will serve on the Brandeis PTA Board and will see her youngest off to preschool!

Sara Thomas McDowell (R.N.)

Mountain View, California
sarthomasmcdowell@gmail.com

Sara will be moving to California in the upcoming year.

Melissa Erica Murray (J.D.)

Oakland, California
mmurray@law.berkeley.edu

After a nine-month maternity leave and a semester of research leave, Melissa (happily) returned to teaching. She spent a lot of time writing about and commenting on the California same-sex marriage debate. She was a fellow at the Doreen B. Townsend Center for the Humanities at Berkeley this year, where she researched the interaction between criminal law and family law and the historic use of marriage as a defense to particular crimes. It's been really interesting and illuminating! Personally, Josh and Melissa have been delighted to watch their daughter grow into a little girl full of energy and good humor. Life is full, but sweet.

Julie Wilson Quillin (M.T.)

Mechanicsville, Virginia
jaquillin@vcu.edu

Julie's home has gotten a lot busier with the addition of her third child Rosemary Patricia in November 2008 to join Brian (7) and Laura (5). Julie spends most of her time at home with the children, volunteering at their schools and at church. She works part time as the coordinator of a Health Resources and Service Administration grant creating a parent video and clinician training module about keeping current in research treatments for children with neurodevelopmental disabilities. Julie teaches Sunday School and serves on the board of the PTA at her local school and of a local moms club.

Coolidge Elmo Rhodes Jr. (J.D.)

Houston, Texas
ce.rhodes@bakerhughes.com

This has been a year of wonderful and exciting changes in C.E.'s life. In May 2009, as a result of his company's reorganization, C.E. was promoted to U.S. Operations & Compliance Counsel for Baker Hughes Incorporated. In his current role, C.E. is responsible for the company's day-to-day legal operations in the U.S. Effective June 1, 2009, C.E. became chair of the board of directors of the Texas Young Lawyers Association ("TYLA"). TYLA continues many of its great service projects designed to educate the public about the legal system and the laws affecting them and to assist its members (more than 24,000) in their law practice. In addition, C.E. was named one of the Top Young Lawyers in Texas as published in the Texas Monthly (April 2009). This year, C.E., and fellow Jefferson Scholar classmate, Meg Basu, served as co-chairs of the Houston Regional Jefferson Scholars' Selection Committee. Finally, C.E. and Daj were united in marriage on a beautiful evening in Houston on May 16, 2009. They spent their honeymoon in Madrid, Marrakech, Paris, and Amsterdam.

Kevin Gafford Ritz (J.D., M.S.F.S.)

Germantown, Tennessee
kevinritz@alumni.virginia.edu

Kevin continues his work as an assistant United States attorney, prosecuting federal drug, carjacking, and firearm crimes. He is also serving as an adjunct professor at the University of Memphis Law School, and he finished his third marathon in December 2008. In 2009 Kevin again chaired a team for the Memphis in May World Championship Barbecue Contest called "Born in the Que S. A.," and he had an incredible trip to Washington for the inauguration in January. He continues to serve on the Memphis Regional Selection Committee.

Mary Fader Saville

Ruckersville, Virginia
marysaville1@cs.com

Mary and her family have had another exciting and full year. Her third child, Jack, underwent a fifth major surgery at U.Va. Children's Hospital and is recovering well at home with improved heart function and an upgraded pacemaker. She continues to organize blood drives for Virginia Blood Services, a non-profit agency which collects for local hospitals. Also this past winter, Mary joined the Clinical Practices Committee for the U.Va. Hospital; this group will review and vote on policies related to the care of pediatric patients and implement a Patient and Family Centered Care model. Mary continues to teach high school math and science part-time, and she and her husband Dave are expecting their fourth child, a boy, in late August. They recently completed a move from Greene County down to Charlottesville and are thrilled to be closer to all the fun there.

Gregory William Seward (J.D.)

Alexandria, Virginia
gregoryseward@capitalone.com

Greg continues as an assistant general counsel for Capital One and had an eventful year supporting the company through several important funding transactions. He admits that perhaps his timing was not impeccable in joining a bank less than a year before everyone thought the economic sky was starting to fall! But the experience has been great on-the-job education. William Thomas Seward was born in July 2008 and is already walking and chasing his two big sisters. Anika starts kindergarten in the fall, which will be a big step for the whole family. They also put an addition on the house to make a little more room, which was stressful but not too eventful in the end. Rugby took a backseat in Greg's life for two reasons—a new baby in the house, and a torn ACL that came in December 2008. The knee is healing from surgery in March, but Greg now admits his days as a weekend warrior are limited at best.

Jessica Nehrling Simmons (M.D.)

Crozet, Virginia
jsnz@virginia.edu

Jessica continues to work as a general pediatrician at Augusta Pediatrics, a rural U.Va. practice in the Shenandoah Valley. She coordinates the practice's childhood literacy program, Reach Out and Read, directs a developmental screening program for the clinic, and participates in a mentorship program for high school students interested in primary care medicine. Jessica served as a Commonwealth Reader again this year. She and Clyde celebrated the birth of their third child, Henry Anderson Simmons, in May. Jessica, Clyde, Sam, Willa, and Henry live in an old farmhouse in Crozet.

Elizabeth Semancik White (J.D.)

Atlanta, Georgia
ej55@hotmail.com

Elizabeth is enjoying her daughter, Fiona, who arrived in October 2008. She is currently being a full-time mom and has added expert diaper changing and renowned tummy tickler to her resume. She remains active in the community, volunteering with the Junior League of Atlanta, serving on the foundation board of the Georgia

Association of Women Lawyers, playing French horn in the Callanwolde Concert Band, and serving on the Women's Ministry Team of Clairmont Presbyterian Church. She also continues her work as co-chair of the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee. Elizabeth and Brian celebrated their baby moon in Provence and Italy last spring.

1998

Elizabeth Cooper Beauvais (M.A.L.D.)

Alexandria, Virginia
elizabethbeauvais@hotmail.com

Elizabeth works part time as a self-employed consultant, helping corporations and NGOs in the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) field. During the other "half" of her time, she enjoys spending time with her toddlers, Henry Beauvais Abney and Charlotte Strong Abney.

Theodore Glenn Blake (M.B.A.)

New York, New York
Ted@tedblake.com

Ted continues to work as a vice president on the convertibles trading desk at Deutsche Bank. He and his fiancée, Jacqueline St. Pierre, had a baby girl, Vivian Rose, in November 2008. They were married on August 15 in Ipswich, Massachusetts.

Rachel Patricia Carriere (M.B.A.)

Mercer Island, Washington
rcarriere@alumni.virginia.edu

Rachel works for Starbucks Coffee Company as a director in the supply chain organization. Outside of work she enjoys skiing, hiking, and playing the violin on her church worship team.

Tennille Jo Neuharth Checkovich (J.D.)

Mechanicsville, Virginia
t_neuharth@hotmail.com

Tennille continues to work as an associate in the Richmond office of McGuireWoods LLP, where she practices in the areas of business and securities litigation, environmental litigation, and white collar criminal defense. She also continues to be involved in numerous pro bono efforts, including representation of juvenile offenders in post-sentencing review hearings. Tennille, her husband, Alex, and their daughter Cora are eagerly anticipating the birth of a new baby boy in October.

Micheal Huntley Garriott Jr.

New York, New York
huntleygarriott@gs.com

Huntley and Emily welcomed their first child, daughter Taylor Elizabeth Garriott, on June 5, 2008. They live in New York City where Huntley is a managing director in the Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs. Huntley enjoys spending his free time fishing and relaxing at the beach with his family.

Matthew Thomas Harrison (M.S., PH.D.)

Providence, Rhode Island
morattico@gmail.com

Matt has returned to Brown University as an assistant professor of applied mathematics. He and Marianne stay busy chasing their two young children. Matt served on the Pittsburgh/Western Pennsylvania Regional Selection Committee.

Shaharyar Muazzam Khan (PH.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
skhan@genciabiotech.com

Shaharyar continues as the chief scientific officer at Gencia Corporation and is active in the foundation named in honor of his brother, Capt. Humayun Khan. He also served on the Charlottesville Regional Selection Committee and the Jefferson Scholars Selection Committee.

Alvina Hoi Yee Lo (J.D.)

New York, New York
alvina00@yahoo.com

Alvina and Calvin welcomed their first child, Alexander Ka Ming Lo, in August 2009. Alvina continues to practice law at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy, specializing in estate planning.

Sundi Erica Lofty (M.T., M.F.A.)

Brooklyn, New York
sundilofty@gmail.com

Sundi is a freelance television writer/producer. She has written and produced for various clients including Filtered Water Productions, Dark Matter Entertainment, Ascension Media Group, and principal client TV One, a lifestyle and entertainment network for African American adults. Her work includes numerous on-air promos and interstitials as well as one-hour television specials such as the NAACP Image Award winning show, "In Conversation: The Michelle Obama Interview," hosted by political correspondent Roland Martin. Other television specials include "Real Estate Realities: When the Boom Goes Bust," hosted by Washington Post financial columnist Michelle Singletary, "Living Single: The Reunion Show", and "TV One On One: Fifth Anniversary Show." Check out her reel at www.sundilofty.com.

Robert Jason Lojek (M.B.A., M.S.)

Mountain View, California
rlojek@gmail.com

In August 2008 Rob and Liz had a daughter, Sydney. Rob continues in his role at Google.

Jeffrey David Manns (D.PHIL., J.D.)

Arlington, Virginia
jeffreymanns@yahoo.com

Jeffrey is an associate professor of securities and banking law at the George Washington University Law School in Washington, DC.

Corey Williams McLellan (M.DIV.)

Houston, Texas
coreymclellan@gmail.com

Pamela and Corey welcomed their second son, Ezra James Ebenezer, in January. Corey continues to work as a consultant to energy industry companies and as a volunteer in community-building agencies and ministries. He enjoys his continued involvement with the Houston Regional Selection Committee.

Stephanie Diane Nixon (M.ED.)

Salem, Oregon
snixon@willamette.edu

Stephanie serves as the associate director for residence life at Willamette University, located in Salem, Oregon. Beyond her role with residence life, Stephanie serves as an advisor to a variety of student organizations on campus. She also volunteers with Willamette Academy, a non-profit associated with the university, which seeks to promote access to college for middle and high school students from historically underrepresented groups. Stephanie supports the college application process for the program's juniors and seniors and also has begun implementing a leadership and co-curricular skill development program for students at the Academy. Stephanie interned with the Social Justice Training Institute in summer 2009, and she continues to facilitate workshops and consult on developing social justice competencies at other institutions and with community groups.

Tara Jenise Pate (J.D.)

Falls Church, Virginia
tarajpate@cox.net

Tara works as a trademark attorney at the United States Patent and Trademark Office. In her spare time, Tara enjoys traveling and spending time with her family.

Brian Matthew Payne

Washington, D.C.
brian.m.payne@accenture.com

Brian continues his career in management consulting with Accenture, Ltd. in Reston, Virginia. He has recently focused on managing teams to build out and support the corporate IT platform for a new nuclear energy company. In his spare time Brian enjoys traveling and supporting the performing arts in the Washington area.

Sandy Jo Robertson (M.D.)

Crozet, Virginia
sjrobertson@gmail.com

Sandy recently moved to the Crozet area and is very happy to be back. She will be getting married in October.

Sajeena Geevarghese Thomas (M.D.)

St. Louis Park, Minnesota
sajeena@msn.com

Ann Meade Besenfelder Trahan (M.ED., M.S.W.)

Brooklyn, New York
annmeade@aol.com

Ann Meade completed her master's degree in social work at NYU this spring. She and her family spent the summer at their farm in Quebec, tending the garden and enjoying a much-deserved break from the city. In the fall, Ann Meade will return to Park Slope, Brooklyn, to continue working as an outpatient psychotherapist at the local mental health clinic where she completed her practicum. Roch-Etienne and Annabelle are growing and thriving; they continue to amaze and exhaust their parents on a daily basis!

Heather Suzanne Trout (D.V.M.)

Remington, Virginia
heathertrout123@hotmail.com

Heather graduated from Tufts Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine this year and is excited to begin work at the Rappahannock Equine Veterinary Clinic. The clinic offers state of the art diagnostic and therapeutic services for horses in central Virginia with an emphasis in sports medicine. Heather and her spouse, Andrea, continue to enjoy married life in Remington, Virginia. Andrea is a professional horse trainer and competitor in dressage.

Per Daniel Tyréus (PH.D.)

Landenberg, Pennsylvania
tyreus@synclab.com

Dan and Christie welcomed their first child Mats Henry Tyréus on August 15, 2008. He is almost walking now so some of their home architectural work has moved from renovation to baby proofing. Dan continues to work as a technology consultant through his company Synclab Consulting, Inc. In late 2008 he secured a long-term contract with a publicly traded company, a first for him and ostensibly a step in the right direction. Dan hired his first full time employee last summer, but his employee subsequently moved out of state, so right now Dan is enjoying having the office all to himself.

Martina Blythe Waters (D.V.M.)

Atlantic Beach, Florida
blythewaters@yahoo.com

Blythe was pleased to serve on the inaugural Jacksonville Regional Selection Committee and has enjoyed meeting fellow U.Va. alumni during her time as the president of the U.Va. Club of Jacksonville. Due to her father's declining health, she made a change to emergency medicine this year and is loving the challenge of her new job. While the hours are not forever, they have allowed her to spend a great deal of time with her family, and she considers them well worth it. Blythe and Dave spent three and a half weeks travelling across Japan this spring, and the cherry blossoms are absolutely breathtaking! Right now she is enjoying soaking up some sunshine and using her days off to catch up on surfing!

Katharine Lopez Weymouth (M.D.)

Wilmington, Delaware
kwl4u@hotmail.com

Kate, Timo, and older brother Jack welcomed Margaret "Margo" Eveland Weymouth on May 2, 2009. They continue to live in Delaware where they are expanding their little farmhouse to meet the needs of their growing family. Kate works part-time running her own private practice as a psychiatrist. She serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee and was a member of the Delaware Regional Selection Committee.

Christopher Bussa Wood (J.D.)

Houston, Texas
cabwood@gmail.com

Chris now works at ConocoPhillips as corporate counsel after having worked for over six years in the Houston office of Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld. When away from work, he enjoys playing basketball and serving with various charitable organizations in the Houston area. Chris served as a member of the Houston Regional Selection Committee.

1999

Matthew Lincoln Adams (J.D.)

Taunton, Massachusetts
mlagc@hotmail.com

Matt and Amanda (JS'02) are living in Taunton, a small town south of Boston from which he can get to Cambridge and she can get to Plymouth. After living in Cambridge, they are delighted to be able to park within 500 feet of their home. FOR FREE. Matt works at Harmonix, a video game development company based in Cambridge, where he is the operations manager. His team handles a great deal of the planning for testing all of the games Harmonix has in development and also arrange for external testers at other locations. Harmonix specializes in music-based games, and they are working on a Beatles game, which, in Matt's opinion, is very fun.

Radhiya Danielle Bailey (M.B.A.)

New York, New York
rdb8b@hotmail.com

At last report, Danielle was working for Starcut U.S.A.

Christopher Francis Batten (M.PHIL.)

Berkeley, California
cbatten@mit.edu

Chris is currently a visiting student at the University of California, Berkeley where he has been finishing his doctoral work on energy-efficient computer architecture. He will be graduating this fall with a Ph.D. in electrical engineering and computer science from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Jamieson MacDonald Bourque (M.D.)

Crozet, Virginia
jamiesonz@gmail.com

Jamie is almost finished with his second year of a National Institutes of Health advanced cardiovascular imaging research training program and has one year remaining in his U.Va. cardiology fellowship. He served on the Commonwealth Regional Selection Committee and as a Commonwealth reader for the third year. He recently finished his third season as a violist with the Waynesboro Symphony Orchestra. His son Reilly just turned three, and he and his wife Kristine are expecting a little girl in September!

Mary Alice Tyson Browning

Madison, Mississippi
maryalicetyson@hotmail.com

Mary Alice and her husband, Steve, welcomed their second child, Steven Phillip Browning, Jr., on August 14, 2008. He weighed 9 pounds, 1 ounce and was 21 inches long. Phillip and daughter Virginia (3) keep Mary Alice busy as a stay-at-home mom. Mary Alice continues to be active in the political arena, her church, and several philanthropic and community organizations.

Lindy Belle Cox (M.T., M.ED.)

Athens, Georgia
lindybelle77@yahoo.com

Lindy continues to teach ninth grade and AP English at Clarke Central High School in Athens, Georgia. She is engaged to be married to Morgan Crace in Atlanta.

Daniel William Cunnane (PH.D.)

Arlington, Virginia
dan.cunnane@gmail.com

At last report, Dan was living in Arlington, Virginia, and working as a political analyst.

Sarah Curtis-Fawley

Portland, Oregon
scurtisfawley@yahoo.com

Sarah and her husband Chris relocated to Portland, Oregon. They started their own business, Pacific Pie Company, which specializes in Australian savory pies and other Aussie treats. Pacific Pie Company sources all of its meat and vegetables from local, organic farms: www.pacificpieco.com

Krystal Ann England (M.S.R.E.D., M.C.P.)

Basalt, Colorado
krystalengland@yahoo.com

Krystal continues to work in Aspen, Colorado, for Centurion Partners, a real estate development firm.

Weston Ashley Fox (M.B.A.)

Chapel Hill, North Carolina
Weston.Fox@Quintiles.com

Weston currently works as an associate director of Global Business Operations for Quintiles Transnational, a pharmaceutical services company. He and his wife, Dana, continue to live in Chapel Hill and recently had their first child, Taylor Suzanne Fox. Weston serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee. In his spare time he enjoys traveling, playing golf, and spending time with friends.

Jeremiah Duane Gibson (J.D., M.A.)

Arlington, Virginia
duane.gibson@gmail.com

Duane works as the information resources coordinator for cite-checking/legal editing at Latham & Watkins LLP in Washington, D.C. He moved to Arlington in November 2007 and has adopted the D.C. metro area as his new home. He plays in the Capital Alumni League softball league with the U.Va. alumni team and enjoys area concerts and theater as well as sampling the offerings of D.C.'s numerous excellent restaurants.

Shannon Joy Harris

Los Angeles, California
uvashannon@yahoo.com

Shannon teaches modern dance to K-12th graders through "everybody dance!," a not-for-profit foundation that provides dance classes to low-income, minority children. She also performs with PTERO Dance Theatre, Pennington Dance Group, and other Los Angeles dance companies. When not in the studio, she spends as much time as possible on her latest passions: river guiding and backpacking.

Kari Ann Heffner

Hampton, Virginia
kheffner@ix.netcom.com

Kari continues her work as a manager of the MIS group at the Thomas Jefferson National Accelerator Facility. She served on the Lower Peninsula Regional Selection Committee.

Harold Edward Johnson (J.D.)

Richmond, Virginia
hjohnson@williamsmullen.com

Hal lives in Richmond, Virginia, with his wife, Carson, and son, Edward. He is a lawyer in the litigation group at Williams Mullen. Hal served on the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

Chad Austin Komocki

Wickliffe, Ohio
ckomocki@hotmail.com

Chad is teaching Spanish and jazz band at Hawken School in Cleveland, Ohio. This summer he took a group of 12 students to Nicaragua with the Seeds of Learning Program to help build classrooms for schools. In addition, he spent July in Costa Rica, taking immersion courses in Spanish. Chad plays drums for the MOJO big band on Monday nights on the west side of Cleveland and is working with some of the top local talent.

William Martín-Gill (M.B.A.)

San Francisco, California
wmartingill@mba2004.hbs.edu

Will continues working for eBay, Inc. in San Jose, California, now as director of internet marketing. He managed to squeeze out two weeks to head down to Antarctica to kayak around whales, camp on the ice, and strip down to a bathing suit for a polar plunge into the ocean and swim to an iceberg. Note to self: never do that again! Next up: swimming from Alcatraz to San Francisco in the Escape from Alcatraz Triathlon. Will served on the San Francisco Bay Area Regional Selection Committee.

Amanda Celeste Morrow-Jensen (M.S.)

Amherst, Massachusetts
acmj2006@mac.com

Amanda teaches counterterrorism and intelligence analysis at Henley-Putnam University, where she also started a Ph.D. in strategic security. Her real loves, however, are her three blogs and her website design company, all of which put her less serious interests to productive use and allow her to stay home with Stuart, who turned two in June. Nate graduated with his M.B.A. from the University of Southern California in May and now does corporate strategy for Raytheon. They recently moved from Los Angeles to Amherst, New Hampshire. Amanda was a member of the Los Angeles Regional Selection Committee.

Maria Katherine Pulzetti (J.D.)

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
maria.pulzetti@gmail.com

Maria married Abby Horn in her Massachusetts hometown in October 2008. They live in Philadelphia, where Maria continues as an attorney representing prisoners on death row. Maria is a member of the Philadelphia Regional Selection Committee.

Kerri Akaya Smith (M.D.)

Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts
KSmith13@partners.org

Kerri continues as a research fellow in pulmonary and critical care medicine with the Harvard combined program.

Anna Brewer Stilz (PH.D.)

Princeton, New Jersey
astilz@googlemail.com

Annie enjoyed her first year at Princeton. Her first book, Liberal Loyalty, was published this summer with Princeton University Press, which is both exciting and scary at the same time. Annie and her partner, Hillel Soifer, will marry next summer.

She served on the Northern New Jersey Regional Selection Committee.

Niran Romesh Wijesooriya (M.D.)

*Richmond, Virginia
rwijesooriya@yahoo.com*

Romesh just completed his first year as an assistant professor of general pediatrics at The VCU Children's Medical Center in Richmond. He loves his job. His two-year-old son, Chanan, celebrated his birthday by going to Vietnam to see his grandmother. Lawson and Romesh were excited to recently discover that Chanan will have a sibling (unknown gender) some time in October 2009. Community building and development in the inner city of Richmond continues to be a central passion for both Lawson and Romesh. Romesh is currently vice president of an affordable housing non profit in the city of Richmond. Life remains rich as they continue to learn about what it means to be a "good neighbor" in their little corner of the world.

2000

Richard Kent Bennett Jr. (M.B.A.)

*Boston, Massachusetts
kent.bennett@gmail.com*

Kent has now finished a full year working with Bessemer Venture Partners in Boston. He has been splitting time between healthcare and media/mobile/telecom investing - all in early stage companies. Now that his wife Kate has also graduated from Harvard Business School and will start with Bain & Company in Boston in the fall, they are excited to finally move out of the business school dorms and into a brownstone in the south end. Kent served on the Boston Regional Selection Committee.

Seuli Bose Brill (M.D.)

*Durham, North Carolina
seuli@yahoo.com*

Seuli continues in her fourth and final year of her combined internal medicine/pediatrics residency at the University of North Carolina, where she serves as chief resident. She volunteers regularly at a free health clinic and spends her free time with her husband Christian and their one-year-old daughter, Asha.

Michelle Lynn Cavalieri (J.D.)

Morgantown, West Virginia shelleycavalieri@yahoo.com

Shelley recently finished her clerkship with the Honorable Thelton E. Henderson of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California in San Francisco. She and Andrew relocated this summer to Morgantown, West Virginia, where Shelley has been appointed as a visiting assistant professor at the West Virginia University College of Law.

Molley Jesse Clarkson (J.D.)

*Decatur, Georgia
molleyclarkson@yahoo.com*

Molley continues to work as an associate at Sutherland Asbill & Brennan in Atlanta. She is a member of the Junior League of Atlanta, co-chairing its volunteer program at Wesley Woods Retirement Center, and serves on the board of the U.Va. Atlanta Alumni Club. Molley served on the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee.

Elizabeth Eckstein Clifton (J.D.)

*San Antonio, Texas
elizabeth.clifton@gmail.com*

Elizabeth continued as in-house counsel for NuStar Energy L.P., doing corporate governance and securities work, and being mom to Henry (1½). Elizabeth also serves on the board of San Antonio Youth Centers. In July, Elizabeth and Travis welcomed their second baby, and Elizabeth made the transition from working to stay-at-home mom.

Rebecca Hogan Dorrian (M.B.A.)

*New York, New York
rebecca.hogan@morganstanley.com*

Becca is currently an executive director within fixed income at Morgan Stanley where she has worked since graduation. Becca will graduate from Columbia Business School in September 2009, and she is looking forward to continuing her role in business upon graduation. She recently married James Dorrian, a Manhattan native and entrepreneur, in October 2008 in Sea Island, Georgia. They reside on the Upper East Side in New York City.

Eric Michael Dunham (PH.D.)

*Brookline, Massachusetts
edunham@fas.harvard.edu*

Eric and Ann are pleased to announce the arrival of Andrew Dunham, a healthy baby boy, on March 31, 2009. They moved to the San Francisco Bay Area this summer, where Eric will be starting as an assistant professor in geophysics at Stanford. Eric served on the Boston Regional Selection Committee.

Lindsay Durtan Friesen (M.D.)

*Charlottesville, Virginia
lindsaydfriesen@gmail.com*

Lindsay is currently working at U.Va. Medical Center as a hospitalist in the division of General Internal Medicine, Geriatrics, and Palliative Care. She and Kurt welcomed their daughter, Jane Marin, on May 21, 2009.

Ranjit Kumar Goudar (M.D.)

*Durham, North Carolina
rkq2@duke.edu*

Ranjit and his wife Lakshmi celebrated the birth of their son Vikram in January. They are planning to return to Virginia Beach next summer, where Ranjit will practice hematology and oncology while teaching at Eastern Virginia Medical School, and Lakshmi will start her endocrinology fellowship.

James Meredith Haley V (M.T.)

*San Francisco, California
teachuchem@yahoo.com*

Jim begins his fifth year as a chemistry teacher at San Francisco University High School this fall. This past year he traveled to Greece, Spain, Puerto Rico, and Egypt. He again served as co-director of the TASIS Summer Program in Lugano, Switzerland.

Sarah Liff Henderson

*New York, New York
sarah.henderson1@gmail.com*

After a summer away, Sarah returned to Morgan Stanley in September 2008. She is currently a vice president within the firm's merchant banking division.

Elizabeth Malone Hoffman (D.V.M.)

*Saint Marys, Georgia
elizabeth.m.hoffman@us.army.mil*

Liz works for the U.S. Navy Marine Mammal Program, currently serving as the veterinarian for a branch of the program in coastal Georgia. She also works part time for a local companion animal practice and continues to participate in exciting clinical research. She is happy to be back in a small town in the South!

Alex Braeden Jackson (J.D.)

*Los Angeles, California
operadorcinco@hotmail.com*

At last report, Alex had relocated to Los Angeles, California.

REGIONAL ALUMNI EVENTS

Upcoming events for 2009-2010

- Boston, Massachusetts - September 2009
- Atlanta, Georgia - October 2009
- New York City, New York - November 2009
- Charlottesville, Virginia - April 2010
- San Francisco, California - May 2010
- Washington, D.C. - June 2010

Peter Decklin Leary (J.D.)

Arlington, Virginia
peter_leary@hotmail.com

Peter, Bridget and Fiona continue to enjoy their time in Northern Virginia. Peter is now in his second year as a trial attorney for the Justice Department and has been spending a lot of time defending the interests of the U.S. Intelligence Community. Peter and Bridget both served as members of the Northern Virginia Regional Selection Committee.

Stephanie Lynne Merhar (M.D.)

Cincinnati, Ohio
stephaniemerhar@hotmail.com

Stephanie is enjoying her first year as a neonatology fellow at Cincinnati Children's Hospital and is also pursuing a master's degree in clinical research. She just purchased a house and is learning about the joys of homeownership (raccoons living under the porch, etc.).

Andrea Meah Plummer (CPT, U.S. AIR FORCE, M.D.)

Las Vegas, Nevada
andreaaplummer@yahoo.com

Andrea completed her residency training and is now stationed at Nellis Air Force Base in Las Vegas, Nevada, where she is working as a pediatrician in the hospital, clinic, and nursery. She enjoys the desert climate and the excitement of Las Vegas, especially since she frequently has visitors from out-of-town. She continues to volunteer as a judge and emcee with the Miss America program and can often be found enjoying a ballet class in her free time.

Catherine Davenport Pollock (M.D.)

Laytonville, Maryland
catherinedpollock@yahoo.com

Cat is finally Dr. Pollock; she graduated from the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio School of Medicine this May! While she will miss her life on the Texas/Mexico border, after 8 years in Texas, she is excited to return to live closer to her family. She will begin a residency in physical medicine and rehabilitation at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, following an intern year in internal medicine at Union Memorial Hospital, also in Baltimore. This year, Cat spent seven months of her fourth year of medical school on the road, rotating at hospitals on the West Coast and traveling to Malaysia and Thailand--a life-changing trip. She continues her work fundraising for the Family Crisis Center in Harlingen and remains politically active, working for national health care reform.

Blair Justin Fire Reich (M.A.)

Arlington, Massachusetts
justinreich@yahoo.com

Justin continues his doctoral studies at the Harvard Graduate School of Education, researching the impact of technology and globalization on the future of learning. He continues his work as co-director of EdTechTeacher.org and taught a series of professional development workshops for teachers at Boston University this summer. He is on the board of advisors of the Chewonki Foundation, an environmental education foundation on the coast of Maine.

Kerry Cavanaugh Rice

Baltimore, Maryland
kerry_cav@yahoo.com

Kerry and Randolph are enjoying experiencing all of the "firsts" with their son Rex, including his first trip to Charlottesville! Kerry continues to work as a reporter for WBAL-TV in Baltimore, where she has earned various honors, including an Emmy award. Kerry also represents the station as a guest speaker for a number of charitable organizations and schools.

Ruth Ann Vleugels (M.D.)

Boston, Massachusetts
rvleugels@partners.org

Ruth Ann has joined the faculty at Harvard Dermatology, Brigham and Women's Hospital and Children's Hospital Boston. She served on the Boston Regional Selection Committee this year.

Heather Perry Walcott (J.D.)

New Hope, Pennsylvania
heather_walcott@hotmail.com

Heather and her family welcomed their second child and first daughter, Alden Caroline Walcott, on April 7, 2009. Alden joins big brother Peyton, now three years old. She served on the Philadelphia Regional Selection Committee and also enjoyed another year as a member of the Alumni Advisory Committee. Heather is an active member of the Junior League of Greater Princeton, New Jersey and is currently volunteering with a science enrichment program for at-risk children in Trenton, New Jersey.

2001

Sarah Walker Baker (J.D.)

Raleigh, North Carolina
sarahwalkerbaker@gmail.com

On August 30, 2008, Sarah and Jason (Col'00) welcomed their first-born son, Davis Guy Baker. Sarah, Jason, and Davis live in Raleigh, where Sarah works as a litigation associate with the Smith Anderson law firm. At home, Sarah specializes in Itsy Bitsy Spider and baking, and at work, commercial and appellate litigation. When not changing diapers or writing briefs, she continues to serve as a member of the Duke Law Future Forum, Virginia's Young Alumni Council, and the Junior League of Raleigh.

Corey Alexander Benjamin

Richmond, Virginia
corey.a.benjamin@gmail.com

Corey continues to work as an associate in the investment banking group of BB&T Capital Markets in Richmond. He is currently pursuing his MBA at The Fuqua School of Business at Duke University via the school's Weekend Executive MBA ("WEMBA") program and expects to graduate in November of 2010. Most importantly, Corey and Annie welcomed their first child and daughter, Caroline Moore, on August 30, 2008. Luci the dog is adjusting well to her relegated status. Corey served on the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

Jason Le Moine Bernd (M.B.A.)

Charlotte, North Carolina
jlb5v@yahoo.com

Jason is excited to announce his marriage to Tiffany Brown of Akron, Ohio. Tiffany teaches third grade in Charlotte, and the couple wed on July 25 in Charlotte. Jason continues to enjoy working at Novant Health and serving on the Charlotte Regional Selection Committee with fellow classmate Ming Qi.

Joseph Alexander Bilby

Lexington, Kentucky
joe.bilby@gmail.com

Joe continues to work his way through law school.

Lindy Ann Blevins (M.B.A.)

Dallas, Texas
lindyblevins@hotmail.com

Lindy is enjoying her return to the South and the work at Bain & Company in Dallas. She is an active member of the Junior League and served on the Dallas Regional Selection Committee.

Katherine Brady Dirks

(M.PHIL., J.D.)
Cambridge, Massachusetts
dirks@alumni.virginia.edu

Katherine and her husband Davesch live in Boston, where Katherine is finishing her clerkship for the Honorable Douglas P. Woodlock of the District of Massachusetts. After her clerkship, she will join the litigation department of WilmerHale.

Rachel Elizabeth Greene

(M.PHIL.)
Dorset, England
rachel@greene.net

On the eve of the feast of St. Peter, Rachel will be ordained a priest in the Church of England. She continues to serve about 4000 souls in a rural Dorset market town and its neighboring villages. In between celebrating baptisms, weddings and funerals and organising festivals, fetes and fundraisers, she is dotting the 'i's and crossing the 't's on her doctoral thesis, looking for a publisher, planting a veggie garden and exploring the Jurassic coastline with her husband.

Charles Edward Hock III

Washington, D.C.
charles.hock@wachovia.com

Ed is working as the associate director at The Advisory Board Company.

Stephanie Maria Hsu (M.B.A.)

Mid-Levels, Hong Kong
Stephanie.Hsu.wg08@wharton.upenn.edu

Stephanie is an associate director with GE Equity Asia Pacific. She continues to volunteer with HK Union. She and her husband reside in Hong Kong.

Vinay Jain (M.PHIL., M.A., J.D.)

Washington, D.C.
vinay4u@hotmail.com

Vinay graduated from New York University Law School in May and plans to work in Washington, D.C. after taking the bar exam. He served on the New York City Regional Selection Committee.

Allison Snider Jesudian

(M.B.A.)
New York, New York
asnider@mba2006.hbs.edu

Allison lives in New York City and works as a manager for Bain & Company. The job has remained interesting, especially given the current economic conditions affecting her two industries of focus: retail and financial services. In her time away from work, Allison has been traveling as much as possible, most recently to Trinidad for Carnival festivities.

Adam Halladay Lackey (M.D.)

Denver, Colorado
adam.lackey@gmail.com

Adam continues his surgery residency at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center.

Jennifer Blomberg Miller

(M.B.A.)
Huntington Beach, California
jenblomberg@gmail.com

Jen is a vice president for Greif & Co., a middle market investment bank in Los Angeles. She is enjoying married life and currently serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee and the Los Angeles Regional Selection Committee. She is also a member of the alumni/parent network of the Taft School.

Katherine Costa Monahan

(J.D.)
New York, New York
kmonkat@gmail.com

Katherine is an associate at the law firm of White & Case in New York City doing complex commercial litigation involving securities and bankruptcy, as well as pro bono immigration work.

Catalina Ocampo (M.A.)

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
catalinaocampo@gmail.com

After giving birth to her first child last August and spending most of the academic year learning how to be a mom, Catalina is now back at work on her dissertation in comparative literature, which she hopes to finish this summer. Amid nursery rhymes and dirty diapers, she continues to write, translate and tutor for the Greater Pittsburgh Literacy Council. Care of the sourdough starter has been passed on to her husband.

Andrew Stephen Oldham

(M.PHIL., J.D.)
Arlington, Virginia
andyo@post.harvard.edu

In July 2009 Andy completed his clerkship with Justice Samuel A. Alito, Jr. at the Supreme Court of the United States. Over the summer, he traveled with his wife, visited the beaches of Normandy for the 65th anniversary of D-Day with his dad, and golfed with friends. The American Inns of Court and the Temple Bar Foundation offered Andy a scholarship to live in London and work with English barristers and judges for a month in the fall. After that, Andy plans to begin working for a law firm in Washington, D.C.

Kate Elizabeth Pomper

(M.P.P., J.D.)
Chicago, Illinois
kep4y@alumni.virginia.edu

Kate is beginning the second year of her two-year Polikoff-Gautreaux Fellowship with Business and Professional People for the Public Interest (BPI), a public interest law and policy center in Chicago. As staff counsel at BPI, Kate advocates for compassionate, just, and effective revitalization of Chicago's public housing communities. She otherwise has been busy mentoring an eighth grader, enjoying all that Chicago has to offer, and playing on a U.Va. alumni kickball team.

Ming Qi (M.D.)

Charlotte, North Carolina
mingervacation@yahoo.com

Ming and her husband Iain Ross welcomed their first child Drake Jin-Long Ross Ballantyne on December 4, 2008. Ming is enjoying motherhood and her first year post-residency in a community emergency medicine practice in the Charlotte region, working at a hospital seeing approximately 100,000 emergency department visits a year. Ming planned a two-week vacation with her husband and son in June to visit extended family in China. She served as a member of the Charlotte Regional Selection Committee.

Steven Moffat Shepard (J.D.)

Great Falls, Virginia
sms236@gmail.com

This summer Steven finished his clerkship with the Honorable Anthony M. Kennedy and married his fiancée, Patricia Stringel. He will report for basic training in the Navy JAG Corps in mid-August and looks forward to beginning active-duty service later this fall.

Nicole O'Brien Snyder (J.D.)

Shreveport, Louisiana
nobsnyder@gmail.com

Nicole and her husband have recently moved to Shreveport, Louisiana, where she is working as an assistant United States attorney for the Western District of Louisiana. They are enjoying home ownership and being back in the South.

Kevin Philipp Whelan (J.D.)

New York, New York
kpwhelelan@gmail.com

Kevin continues in New York City. The big news of the year is his marriage to Kiraz Bulut in the fall of 2008. Following their marriage, they returned to New York, where Kevin has been clerking for Judge Robert Sack of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. He also served on the New York City Regional Selection Committee.

Cicely Ann Williams

New Haven, Connecticut
cicely.williams@yale.edu

Cicely, not being one to fear commitment, continues to pursue an MD/PhD at Yale University. This past year she served as a teaching fellow for the Physiological Systems course and as a coordinator for the Interdepartmental Neuroscience Program Student/Faculty lunch series. At Yale Medical School, she is a member of the admissions committee, and she served on the Westchester, New York/Fairfield, Connecticut Regional Selection Committee. During the summer Cicely was a student co-director for BioSTEP, a summer research program at Yale for minority and underprivileged undergraduate students from across the country. In what little spare time that she has, Cicely enjoys traveling to anywhere that her passport is valid.

2002Amanda Griffin Adams (M.T.)

Taunton, Massachusetts
aadam@risingtide.org

Amanda and her husband Matt (J.S.'99) reside in Taunton, Massachusetts, where she teaches English and media literacy at Rising Tide Charter Public School.

Kathryn Kraaij Berryman (M.D.)

San Antonio, Texas
Kathryn.Berryman@gmail.com

Kathryn is starting her year as chief resident. Her children are "eating and growing," and Kathryn is also training for her first triathlon this summer.

Lauren Rooker Cardwell (M.F.A.)

Nashville, Tennessee
laurencardwell@gmail.com

Last summer Lauren toured Asia (virtually, via East Nashville Hope Exchange) with 40 of her favorite elementary school students. Together, they studied reading, writing, geography, French, yoga, art, and the finer points of water balloon fighting. She recently started BirthCare—a cooperative offering doula and childbirth education services. She continues to work as a full-time mother, writer, and church volunteer, and was a finalist in Inkwell's annual Poetry Contest. Lauren served on the Nashville Regional Selection Committee.

Esther I-Ping Huang Chang (M.D.)

Baltimore, Maryland
eihchang@gmail.com

Esther finished her second of three years of ophthalmology residency. She remains happily married to Dave, who has joined her in Baltimore as an internal medicine resident. They are expecting their first child in August of 2009.

Nathan Andrew Cook (J.D.)

Wilmington, Delaware
ncook1@gmail.com

Nathan continues as a senior associate at Abrams & Laster LLP in Wilmington, Delaware, specializing in Delaware law aspects of corporate transactions and litigation. He was a member of the Designated Schools Selection Committee.

Lisa Lear deBessonet

Brooklyn, New York
lear.debessonet@gmail.com

This year Lear developed and directed a new production, Quixote, which premiered in Philadelphia in May.

Isaac Matthew Gradman (J.D.)

San Francisco, California
isaac.gradman@gmail.com

Isaac completed his two-year clerkship in the southern district of Florida and then took a few weeks to travel through Turkey and Bulgaria. Isaac is now practicing law in San Francisco and has gained experience helping clients navigate the subprime mortgage crisis. He launched a blog on the legal fallout from the crisis in August 2008, entitled "The Subprime Shakeout," which can be found at www.subprimeshakeout.blogspot.com. Isaac recently argued and won a pro bono immigration appeal before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. He keeps active snowboarding, skiing and playing basketball, poker and guitar.

Sarah Hobeika Hall (J.D.)

Washington, D.C.
smhs@alumni.virginia.edu

Sarah is an attorney at Covington & Burling in Washington D.C., specializing in white collar investigations and insurance coverage litigation. Sarah really enjoyed meeting prospective Jefferson Scholars while serving on the Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland Regional Selection Committee.

Thomas Bryan Weatherly Hall (M.A., J.D.)

Washington, D.C.
thall@alumni.virginia.edu

Thomas continues to work as an associate at Latham & Watkins LLP in Washington DC, specializing in white collar litigation. He also has an active pro bono practice in the area of special education. This year, Thomas served on the Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland Regional Selection Committee.

Nicholas Kahtan Jabbour (J.D.)

Bethesda, Maryland
jabbournick@hotmail.com

Nick is an associate at Mayer Brown LLP in Washington, D.C., where he continues to enjoy his litigation work.

Yarri Busingye Kamara (M.A.)

Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso
yarrika@hotmail.com

Yarri married Luca Fusi in Kenya and Italy last August, but is still surprised when people call her Madame Fusi. The couple is happily entering their fourth year in Burkina Faso, having adapted so well to the climate that temperatures under 80°F make them shiver. After working on a rural development project, Yarri has returned to the international development consultancy sector. In her travels across Africa, she is happy to note that t-shirts of Barack Obama now greatly outstrip in popularity t-shirts of Osama bin Laden and Saddam Hussein.

Lauren Jones Kenny

North Palm Beach, Florida
lauren.j.kenny@gmail.com

Lauren was married in September 2008 to J. Kevin Kenny, Jr. (Duke '89) and relocated to New York City. She consults to start-up companies, specializing in corporate policy creation and benefits management.

Jerry Mermod Lewis IV

Los Angeles, California
jlewis@caa.com

Amidst a global economic crisis, the masses still sought escape from their troubles in concert halls, where hardship and recession thankfully dissipated in the rock and roll haze...if only for an hour or two. Jbeau still has a job! Bands to watch in 2009-2010: Florence & the Machine, Band of Skulls. Jbeau again served on the Los Angeles Regional Selection Committee.

Jessica Leigh Lewis (J.D.)

Bloomfield, New Jersey
jlewis@pegasus.rutgers.edu

George Emmett Lynskey III (M.D.)

New York, New York
geb@georgetown.edu

Having made it through a second year of residency, Emmett and his wife Bethany have settled into life in New York City. Emmett is enjoying radiology, his wife ophthalmology. They are more than willing to speak with any Scholars interested in medicine.

Mary Elizabeth Manning-Wylie (Ph.D.)

Levittown, Pennsylvania
lmz@princeton.edu

Lisa and Will Wylie were married July 12, 2008, in Santa Barbara, California, and then moved cross-country to Levittown, Pennsylvania. At Princeton, Lisa is involved with a postdoctoral teaching fellow program to improve science classes at universities, and she is also busy studying the mechanics of tissue development in zebrafish embryos, as well as other exciting physics stuff.

David Cole Metcalf (M.A., J.D.)

Atlanta, Georgia
dmetcalf@gmail.com

After David's graduation from law school in May, he and Betsy moved to Atlanta, where David is clerking for Judge Jack Camp. David serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Joleen Roslyn Okun (J.D., M.P.P.)

Alexandria, Virginia
joleenokun@gmail.com

Joleen continues to work as an associate in the litigation services department of Schnader, Harrison, Segal & Lewis's Washington, D.C., office. She is concentrating her practice in labor and employment law, with a healthy dose of doing what she is told given her spot on the totem pole. Joleen also serves as a pro bono attorney for the Mid-Atlantic Innocence Project and Legal Services of Northern Virginia. She recently ran her first marathon and is looking forward to tackling Boston next year!

Kerry Leigh O'Neill (J.D.)

Lexington, Kentucky
kerryleighoneill@hotmail.com

In May Kerry graduated from the University of Kentucky College of Law, and she continues to work for the law firm of Morgan & Pottinger in Lexington with a view toward specializing in the area of equine law. Kerry wrote an article called "Thoroughbreds and the Law," for the New York Times last year. In addition, she writes a blog about the legal issues surrounding horse racing and is also helping the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission draft new regulations governing safety and drug regulation in racing. In her spare time Kerry continues to ride and show her horse, London Calling ("Arlo") and to compete in road races. Next year she will be working for Honorable Thomas D. Wingate, Chief Circuit Judge, Franklin County, Kentucky.

Ashesh Nipun Parikh

New York, New York
ashesh.n.parikh@gmail.com

Over the past year, Ashesh has applied his financial skills to the growing social capital markets. In particular, he has worked to launch an alternative healthcare financial services company. This company grew from his firm's "Healthcare Uncovered" initiative, which sought to address the cash market of healthcare that traditional insurance does not cover. Ashesh has led the company's financial structuring, including helping to secure over $1 million in start-up capital from the Rockefeller Foundation. On a personal note, he and his wife Mona celebrated their first anniversary this May. He plans to enter The Wharton School of Business in August.

Katherine Kilbane Porter (M.A.)

San Francisco, California
kilbane@hotmail.com

Kate's music career continues. She embarked on her first national tour this summer, which included a stop in Nashville to visit fellow Jefferson Scholar alumna Lauren Rooker Cardwell (JS'02).

Richard Conrad Prather (M.T.)

Nashville, Tennessee
chrprather@aol.com

Katie and Chad finally (and sadly) left Charlottesville after 10 years. They moved to Nashville in July 2008. They are both teaching in high-need public schools and will continue in the same capacity next year. Katie and Chad bought their first home in East Nashville, and Chad is happy to say that he is learning to do manly things around the house. He served as a member of the Nashville Regional Selection Committee.

Andrew Baird Rogers (J.D.)

Arlington, Virginia
andrewrogers@paulhastings.com

Andrew is an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP where he is a member of the labor and employment group.

He volunteered at Agawam in Raymond, Maine, in August and looks forward to participating on the Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland Regional Selection Committee again this winter.

Sarah Ann Rude (M.A.)

State College, Pennsylvania
sarahrude@alumni.virginia.edu

Sarah earned her master's degree in English from Pennsylvania State University this May, and she is continuing to work toward a Ph.D. in African American Literature and Rhetoric at Penn State as a University Graduate Fellow. In addition to studying and optimistically submitting articles to academic journals, Sarah teaches writing courses and researches for two of the department's distinguished professors. She was elected president of the English Graduate Organization for the 2009-2010 school year and is excited to continue to lead the African American Language and Literature Graduate Group. She and her poetry were featured as part of the M.A./Ph.D. Reading Series, and she facilitates a weekly creative writing workshop for local nursing home residents. Sarah continues to play music professionally as the principal violist of the Nittany Valley Symphony and as a contract musician for the Pennsylvania Centre Orchestra and the Altoona Symphony. She also practices yoga at a local studio, organizes a graduate student running group, and studies hip-hop dance through the Central Pennsylvania Dance Workshop.

Brian Charles Smith (J.D.)

Washington, D.C.
brian4tex@gmail.com

Brian was recently promoted to senior associate at Wilmer, Cutler, Pickering, Hale & Dorr. Brian participated as a member this year's Jefferson Scholars Selection Committee. He and Kristin are expecting their first child in November.

Jonathan Robert Snyder (M.D.)

Cincinnati, Ohio
JonathanRSnyder@gmail.com

Jon and his wife, Jessica, welcomed their second daughter, Emery Margaret, in early June. Their first child, Lucy, recently turned two. Jon began his third year (out of five) of general surgery residency in July. He served on the Cincinnati Regional Selection Committee.

Hanna Victoria Tieu

Atherton, California
hannatieu@yahoo.com

Hanna is currently a student at Stanford's Graduate School of Business. She has been active as part of the leadership team for Boys & Girls Club and Chal-leage4Charity, a volunteer organization at Stanford, and as co-president of the Women in Management organization at the business school.

Lawson McNeil Wijesooriya

Richmond, Virginia
ljm8d@alumni.virginia.edu

Lawson has spent this past year wearing many hats: wife, mother, executive director, coaching supervisor, and community builder. She now chases around a walking, talking little boy who turned 2 in June of 2009, while she and Romesh await their second child due in October. Lawson continues to lead Blue Sky Fund (a non-profit that provides transformational experiences for urban youth through outdoor education). She uses most of her extracurricular time investing in her neighborhood in the inner city of Richmond, Virginia. Lawson served on the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

2003

Elena Levonovna Airapetian (M.B.A.)

Charlotte, North Carolina
elena.airapetian@wachovia.com

Elena was married to Kevin Sexton in a destination wedding on Kiawah Island, South Carolina on August 1, 2008. Shelley Webb (JS '03) was maid of honor in the wedding party. Kevin and Elena met five years ago when they were working in the mergers and acquisitions and investment banking groups respectively at Wachovia Securities. The couple plans to continue living in Charlotte, where Elena is currently working in merger integration for Wachovia and Wells Fargo. Elena served on the Charlotte Regional Selection Committee.

Cynthia Ayers Barker

Charlottesville, Virginia
ninabarker@virginia.edu

In addition to her role in the development office as the director of alumni relations, Nina now serves the Jefferson Scholars Foundation as the director of the undergraduate scholarship program. She is excited to be working closely with the undergraduate Jefferson Scholars and enjoying the challenges that come along with the new position. Still enjoying life in Charlottesville, she continues to volunteer regularly for the Make-a-Wish Foundation and plays in a local women's soccer league.

Duncan Christopher Brook

Shanghai, China
duncan.brook@gmail.com

Duncan spent the last year living in Chengdu and Shanghai, where he was the director of Kaplan

China's Elite U.S. Admissions Program. He returns to the U.S. this fall to join the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at Duke University.

Thomas Mitchell Deal

Washington, D.C.
tmd3y@yahoo.com

Thomas continues to reside in Washington, D.C. and clerked for an administrative judge with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission this past summer. He plans to receive his J.D. from The George Washington University in May 2010. Thomas is entering his fifth term as president of the Virginia Glee Club Alumni & Friends Association and was recently elected as a director of the Washington Men's Camerata. He continues to study tenor solo voice with renowned opera singer Angela Powell. He is the proud parent of two felines, Jean-Luc and Robert, who will turn two in August.

Raynelle LaTia Deans (M.S.)

Washington, D.C.
raynelle@alumni.virginia.edu

Raynelle continues to grow her management and IT consulting firm, Abex Systems. Beyond adding to her company's capabilities and employee base, Raynelle also has established a second company, RDeans Realty to pursue her property management and real estate investing hobby. In her spare time, she continues to play in the Loudoun County Women's Basketball League, volunteer as a tutor in the Washington D.C. public charter school system, and seek grants and assistance to expand her career services non-profit. She served as a member of the Piedmont Regional Selection Committee.

Sara Hume Gahan (M.A.)

Chattanooga, Tennessee
sarahume@gmail.com

Sara continues teaching eighth and tenth grade English at Girls Preparatory School in Chattanooga. She also coaches cross country and track and is the director of GPS's middle school summer camp. She and Clay and their new puppy Camden love living on McCallie's campus and being dorm parents!

Joseph Randall Gay (M.S., J.D.)

Carrollton, Virginia
joseph.r.gay@gmail.com

Joe graduated from Harvard Law School this spring. After taking the bar exam, he will spend the next year working at the Institute for Justice in Washington, D.C. and then return to Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett in New York.

Esther Carol Haley (J.D.)

Alexandria, Virginia
ech4v@alumni.virginia.edu

Esther is happily easing into becoming a practicing attorney and is enjoying both corporate work and pro bono litigation at Hogan & Hartson in Washington, D.C.

Sarah Chilton Jobe (M.Div.)

Durham, North Carolina
scj4@duke.edu

Sarah continues to live at Rutba House, a Christian house of hospitality in Durham with her husband Dan, two-year-old daughter Naomi, and six-month-old daughter Fay. She continues to teach theology and spiritual development courses in a local women's prison and is slowly but steadily working on a book on pregnancy and Christian discipleship.

Timothy Andrew Johnson (J.D.)

Arlington, Virginia
timothyjohnson23@gmail.com

Tim is a trial attorney for the Civil Division of the Department of Justice. His recent work has focused on legal issues arising from the government's detention policies at Guantanamo Bay.

Arian Shadi Kourosh (M.D.)

New Orleans, Louisiana
shadi@alumni.virginia.edu

Shadi graduated from medical school at University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas this past year. She is currently in her internship at Tulane Medical Center in New Orleans and will return to Dallas next year for her dermatology residency at UT Southwestern Medical Center. Shadi served on the Fort Worth Regional Selection Committee.

Philip Thomas Lee

Stamford, Connecticut
philip.t.lee@gmail.com

Phil is currently working in the financial modeling team at Capital IQ. He resides in Stamford, Connecticut.

Maura Mary Martin (J.D.)

Arlington, Virginia
mauramartin@gmail.com

Maura continues to work in the Washington, D.C. office of Sidley Austin LLP as an associate in the food and drug group. In April, she joined the Editorial Advisory Board of the Food and Drug Law Journal. She assisted the Northern Virginia Regional Selection Committee this year. She is engaged to be married on May 1, 2010.

Cason Armstrong Moore (J.D.)

*New York, New York
casonmoore@gmail.com*

Cason and his wife Meghan (Col'04) live in Manhattan where Cason works as an associate at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP. He served as a member of the Long Island Regional Selection Committee.

Jennifer Kathryn Murrill (M.E.)

*Fairfax, Virginia
jennymurrill@yahoo.com*

Jenny continues to work as a section manager at Northrop Grumman TASC in Northern Virginia. She is the president of the Northrop Grumman IS Sector Women's Resource Group. Jenny recently graduated from the 2008 American Council of Technology and Industry Advisory Council Voyagers Leadership Development program. She also co-chaired the Northern Virginia Regional Selection Committee.

and friends as he plots out next steps in the fields of autoimmunity or health policy.

Niko Douglas Schutte (M.T.)

*Chapel Hill, North Carolina
niko@alumni.virginia.edu*

Niko will be working in the administration of Forest View Elementary School in Durham for the upcoming school year to complete a master's degree in school administration through UNC. He continues to spend time eating, playing with his dogs, and farming during summers. Niko hopes to learn the fine art of bike maintenance, how to play the guitar, and will be brushing up on his Spanish. He is recently engaged to Sally Wood (JS '05) and remains a happy resident of Chapel Hill.

Mitchell Samuel Seipt (M.T.)

Centerville, Virginia mitchseipt@gmail.com

Mitch continues trying to shape the minds of America's youth, slowly convincing future genera-

Regional Selection Committee and the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Benjamin Braxton Skipper

*Centerville, Tennessee
misterskipper@gmail.com*

Skip and Jennifer have finished their final year at Escuela Americana in El Salvador and are returning to Nashville. Skipper Photography will be in full form by September and Skip began graduate classes over the summer. David Jackson is now two and looked forward to the arrival of his little brother in June 2009.

Christopher Jackson Smith (M.S., J.D.)

Washington, D.C. cjsmith@stanfordalumni.org

Chris moved from Los Angeles to Washington, D.C. in October 2008 and is enjoying being back on the East Coast and closer to Charlottesville. After spending a month in South America on vacation, Chris joined Members of the class of 2004 spend time together in Charlottesville during their reunion.

Lauren Sue Purnell (M.B.A.)

*Charlottesville, Virginia
lpurnell@gmail.com*

Lauren will be returning to Charlottesville this fall to pursue a Ph.D. at Darden in business ethics. She is excited to be back on the east coast and looks forward to many Charlottesville visitors.

Ameet Vilas Sarpatwari

(M.PHIL.)
*Cambridge, England
hobbessjefferson@comcast.net*

Ameet will be wrapping up his dissertation while continuing epidemiological work at The Royal London Hospital over the upcoming year. He looks forward to frequent visits to the States to see family and friends as he plots out next steps in the fields of autoimmunity or health policy.

tions of Jefferson's genius. Mitch and Clark have spent the last few months vigorously fixing up their house in preparation for the big event - the birth of their first child this July!

Adele Bruce Shartzter (M.P.H.)

*Arlington, Virginia
adeleshartzter@gmail.com*

Adele is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in health services research in the Department of Health Policy and Management at Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. She plans to continue her involvement in the DC community through her church, the Junior League, and the U.Va. Club of Washington. Adele served on the Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland the issues and appeals practice at Jones Day in Washington, D.C., where he works primarily on appellate litigation.

Robert Kirk Walker III

*New York, New York
rkwalker3@yahoo.com*

Rob continues to live in New York City and work for CNNMoney.com.

Shelley Johnson Webb (J.D.)

*Chevy Chase, Maryland
shelleyjwebb@gmail.com*

Shelley is a third year associate at Williams & Connolly in Washington, D.C., where she continues to enjoy her work, especially on antitrust and patent litigation. Outside of work, Shelley enjoys gourmet cooking with Gregg, herb and flower gardening, and traveling, including trips to California, Florida, New York, and North and South Carolina (for Elena Airapetian's wedding in August 2008).

Michal Ellen Yarborough (M.S., J.D.)

Chapel Hill, North Carolina
michal@alumni.virginia.edu

Michal recently graduated from law school at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She plans to clerk with the North Carolina Business Court before joining the firm of Carruthers & Roth in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Jasmine Hyejung Yoon (J.D.)

Washington, D.C.
jasminehyejoon@gmail.com

In August 2009 Jasmine started her new job as law clerk to the Honorable James C. Cacheris of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. She continues to work as a class manager for the U.Va. Law School giving campaign and co-chaired the Washington DC/Suburban Maryland Regional Selection Committee.

2004

Allison Chamberlain Abramson (M.S.)

Atlanta, Georgia
ATChamberlain@hotmail.com

Allison is the senior research project coordinator of the Emory Preparedness and Emergency Response Research Center in Atlanta. Her research relates to improving the ways in which public health systems prepare for and respond to disasters like hurricanes, flu pandemics, and terrorism events. Allison is married to Adam Abramson, a fellow 'Hoo (Col' 04). She is enjoying her time in Atlanta, playing on a U.Va. alumni volleyball team and serving as a panelist for the Atlanta-area information session held each January for prospective Jefferson Scholars.

John McMullen Bailey

Alexandria, Virginia
bailey.john.m@gmail.com

John is a consultant in the government investigations and white collar criminal defense practice at King & Spalding LLP.

Richard Lee Barnes II (M.S.)

McLean, Virginia
richard.barnes@gmail.com

Richard continues to keep America's bits safe for democracy by participating in a variety of internet organizations, including the Internet Engineering Task Force, Réseaux IP Européens, and the Middle East Network Operators' Group. Outside of the office Richard serves on a committee devoted to the UN Millennium Development Goals and leads a summer program for middle-school students through the Colin L. Powell Leadership Club at MacFarland Middle School in Washington, D.C. He served on the Northern Virginia Regional Selection Committee.

Elizabeth Morin Bishop

New York, New York
ebishop@alumni.virginia.edu

Elizabeth has moved into her third year at Laura Davidson Public Relations, a public relations agency specializing in the luxury travel industry. She works on several accounts, including the tourism board of Scotland, Concorde Hotels & Resorts, the private island of Mustique in the Caribbean, and Tempo, a new hotel set to open in Miami in the fall. Elizabeth travels extensively for work, but in her spare time volunteers with both the New York Junior League and Cabrini Alzheimer's Care Program.

David Timothy Buckley (M.A.)

Washington, D.C.
davidtbuckley@gmail.com

In 2009 Dave completed his coursework as a doctoral candidate in the government department at Georgetown University. He continues to serve as a research assistant at the Berkley Center for Religion and World Affairs at Georgetown, and where he recently completed a project on religion and ethnic conflict. Dave continues to live on campus at Georgetown with his wife, Jessica Belue Buckley (JS '04), who holds down a real job while Dave spends time with his books.

Jessica Belue Buckley (M.ED.)

Washington, D.C.
jbb@alumni.virginia.edu

Jess and her better half, Dave (JS '04), remain on the Hilltop at Georgetown. Jess is a hall director, working and living in McCarthy Hall. When not playing pranks on students, she helps with sustainability initiatives on campus. She keeps up the running, attempts to learn guitar, and takes frequent trips to see her nephews and new niece. Jess served on the Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland Regional Selection Committee.

Courtney Claire Byrd (J.D.)

Bethesda, Maryland
courtneycbyrd@gmail.com

Courtney graduated from law school at Georgetown University in 2009. She began work at the law firm of O'Melveny & Myers in Washington, D.C. this fall. She served on the Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland Regional Selection Committee. Courtney also continued working on the committees for galas to benefit So Others Might Eat and the Children's National Medical Center and volunteering as a tutor at the Higher Achievement Program in Washington.

Ruaraidh Iain Campbell

New York, New York
campbell@blackstone.com

Ruaraidh continues to work as an associate in the Risk Management group for Blackstone Alternative Asset Management. He has earned the right to use the Chartered Financial Analyst designation. Ruaraidh was a member of the Westchester, New York/Fairfield, Connecticut Regional Selection Committee.

Kelly Grace Chewning (M.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
chewning@alumni.virginia.edu

Kelly started an internal medicine residency at the University of Virginia in June 2009.

Matthew Raleigh Dodson

Willits, California
mrdodson@gmail.com

At last report, Matt was living in Northern California studying permaculture and sustainable biointensive agriculture, working on staff in the Mendocino College Agriculture Department and also working on a private farm.

Greg Andrew Dolinsky (J.D.)

Brooklyn, New York
gredol@gmail.com

Greg is working as an associate in the Manhattan office of Schulte, Roth & Zabel LLP. He served on the New York City Regional Selection Committee.

Sean Kevin Driscoll

Queens, New York
skevdris@verizon.net

Sean lives in New York City and continues to work as a police officer with the New York City Police Department. Recently, he left uniformed patrol in Manhattan's 9th Precinct to work in the NYPD's Counterterrorism Bureau. And yes, Sean reports that every day at the office really is just like an episode of "24."

Heidi Marie Guenin

Portland, Oregon
heidi.guenin@gmail.com

Heidi is working on two master's degrees, one in public health and one in urban and regional planning, with the intention of planning for health equity in the Portland area. She's still biking, knitting, brewing, and playing video games. She also has an extra couch if you find yourself in Portland!

Meghan Tara Hession

Needham, Massachusetts
meghanhession@yahoo.com

Meg finished her third year of medical school at Columbia. She will be taking a year off between third and fourth year to conduct research for a year at Tufts-Boston University Medical center in dermatology.

Vicky Ayano Jones (M.D.)

New York, New York
VickyAyano@gmail.com

Vicky graduated from medical school and began her residency in internal medicine at New York University Medical Center.

Oliver Grant Longwell

Washington, D.C.
oglongwell@gmail.com

2009 has been the fastest year on record for Oliver, who loves working on Capitol Hill for his Congressman from Long Island and living in D.C.

Simon Cochukattil Mathews

Baltimore, Maryland
simonmathews@gmail.com

Simon is in his fourth year of medical school at Johns Hopkins.

Elizabeth Watts Metcalf

Atlanta, Georgia
betsymetcalf@gmail.com

Betsy finished another year at Episcopal, teaching, running the ninth grade girls dorm and coaching. David (JS '02) graduated from Georgetown Law School and studied for the bar this summer. In August, they moved to Atlanta, where David will be clerking for a judge for a year. Betsy is planning to tutor for the year and to start some coursework, perhaps towards a master's in counseling or a master's in education. Betsy serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee and was a member of the Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland Regional Selection Committee.

Bsrat Mezghebe (M.A.)

Washington, D.C.
bsratm@yahoo.com

Bsrat is a staff consultant at AECOM International Development.

Carey Joseph Mignerey (J.D.)

Atlanta, Georgia
mignerey@email.virginia.edu

After successfully completing law school, Carey had the misfortune of leaving the University for good this spring. He spent the summer studying for the bar exam in Charlottesville. In September, he will return to McKinsey & Company in the Atlanta office as an associate. He continues to be active as a national volunteer in the Boy Scouts of America. Carey served as a reader for the Commonwealth Regional Selection Committee in 2009.

Logan Anderson Moncrief

Houston, Texas
Logan.Moncrief@EnergyAdvisers.com

Logan lives in Houston and is working for an energy-focused hedge fund. He continues to be involved with the McIntire School of Commerce, which allows him the opportunity to travel back to Charlottesville a few times a year as a member of the Young Alumni Council. Logan also served as a member of the Houston Regional Selection Committee.

Yvonne Marie Mowery

Durham, North Carolina
ymm3@duke.edu

Yvonne is a fifth year student in the M.D./Ph.D. program at Duke University. She is currently investigating a new treatment for chronic lymphocytic leukemia in the Department of Pathology. Upon graduating from the Duke Medical Scientist Training Program, she plans to enter a residency program in radiation oncology.

Norbert Mburu Ng'ethe (J.D., M.B.A.)

New York, New York
ngethe24@gmail.com

Norbert is enjoying his first year as an associate at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP in New York. By the end of the year, he will have obtained experience in mergers & acquisitions, financial institutions and general litigation. Norbert was a member of the New York City Regional Selection Committee.

Anna Marie Palumbo

Astoria, New York
anna.palumbo@gmail.com

Anna is studying music therapy at New York University.

Virginia Natalie Quist

New York, New York
montequisto@gmail.com

Virgy continues to work as a Far East equities trader at the hedge fund D.E. Shaw & Co., the firm she joined in August of 2005.

Guru Basava Raj

McLean, Virginia
guru@alumni.virginia.edu

Following the failure of renowned pundits and experts the world over in predicting events that have shaped the last year — Bill Clinton picked the wrong horse in the race for president, Jim Cramer's money went mad on Bear Stearns, physicist Walter Wagner's black hole from the Large Hadron Collider hasn't destroyed the universe (yet), and the American people picked Kris Allen over Adam Lambert (really?) — Guru has spent the last few months furiously trying to build a model to predict, well, everything. Working from the basement of his home in Northern Virginia, Guru's model predicts that 2009 will be a huge success for him if he can build a profitable auto company whose low emissions cars run on organic foods exported from human-rights respecting developing countries. If he succeeds in his endeavor, he's hoping to fulfill a lifelong dream of appearing on Oprah. Guru served on the Northern Virginia Regional Selection Committee.

Elizabeth Anne Rigby (M.S.)

Seaford, Delaware
elizabethrigby@gmail.com

Beth finished up her master's degree in wildlife science at Texas Tech in December. She is now working on Seney National Wildlife Refuge on the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, performing bird and vegetation surveys as an independent contractor to the U.S. Geological Survey. In her spare time, she is involved in wildland fire fighting and prescribed fire activities on the refuge and is looking forward to exploring the wild areas of Michigan.

Suellen Woodcock Robinson

London, England
sue.robison@accenture.com

Sue and her husband Marc still reside in London. She is working globally as a consultant for Accenture's Business Strategy practice and has recently spent time working abroad in Mumbai, India, and Johannesburg, South Africa. Plans for the next year include more travel for business and pleasure and involvement in the launch of the new Jefferson Scholars Foundation region in the United Kingdom.

John Rocco Macmillan Rodney (M.D.)

Fort Worth, Texas
roccorodney@gmail.com

After completing his internship in New York City, John moved to Fort Worth. He is enrolled in a rural family medicine program where he delivers babies, performs c-sections and endoscopy and practices pediatrics and emergency medicine.

Shan Wu (Ph.D.)

Cambridge, Massachusetts
shanwu@mit.edu

Shan finished her Ph.D. in biological engineering this year at MIT. She plans to work in China for a short period of time after graduation before returning to the States to start a job in science policy. She stays involved with U.Va. alumni events through the U.Va. Club of Boston and serving on the Boston Regional Selection Committee.

2005

Spencer Riley Allen

Aspen, Colorado
vsallen@gmail.com

Spencer spent the winter working as an Aspen Highlands ski patroller in Colorado. After spending the off-season on a month-long raft trip down the Grand Canyon, Spencer will return to Aspen to spend the summer working as a white-water rafting guide. Law school is still in his future.

Stephen Nash Ander (M.P.P.)

Washington, D.C.
stephen.ander@gmail.com

After two years of study, Steve has graduated from the Harvard Kennedy School with a master's in public policy, concentrating in business-government relations. Steve's post-graduation plans include moving back to the Washington, D.C.-metro area to work as a special advisor to the director of the

Emily Anne Bagby

Boston, Massachusetts
ebagby@mbaz010.hbs.edu

After returning to Boston following a six month stay in Amsterdam, Emily took a leave of absence from Bain & Company to pursue an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School. She completed the first year and spent her summer with Lord & Taylor in New York City working in their marketing strategy department. In August she celebrated her marriage to Charles Miller (Col'05) with help from fellow Scholar and bridesmaid Jennifer Silvers (JS'05). Emily plans to return to Bain & Company's Boston office following her graduation from Harvard in May 2010.

Edward Oscar Benson

Cambridge, Massachusetts
edward.benson@gmail.com

Ted completed his first year as a Ph.D. student at the M.I.T. Computer Science and Artificial Intelligence Laboratory. This winter he taught an introductory iPhone development course and subsequently created an award-winning personal finance application with some of his students. Over the summer, Ted and a colleague spent their academic off-time launching a business to provide mobile application solutions for event management.

gymnastics and discovered the flying trapeze, but has promised Chris not to run off with the circus anytime soon.

James Vincent Courtland Jr.

New York, New York
jcourtland@ftw.com

Jimmy continues working as a portfolio analyst in New York for Fischer, Francis, Trees & Watts, a specialist manager of international fixed income portfolios for institutional clients. He is also working toward part III of a chartered financial analyst (CFA) certification. This past spring he made a new personal record in the New York Half Marathon and hopes to set an even lower time when he runs again in August.

Rachel Mojisola Dada

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
rmdada@gmail.com

Rachel finished her third year at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. She also continues to work for Kaplan Test Prep and Admissions. Rachel served on the Philadelphia Regional Selection Committee again this year.

Bryce Wesley Galen

New York, New York
bryce.galen@gmail.com

Bryce left Boston last fall when the Fidelity Real Estate Growth Fund shut down. He is trying to take advantage of the current recession with entrepreneurial pursuits in New York City.

Jack Clark Herndon III

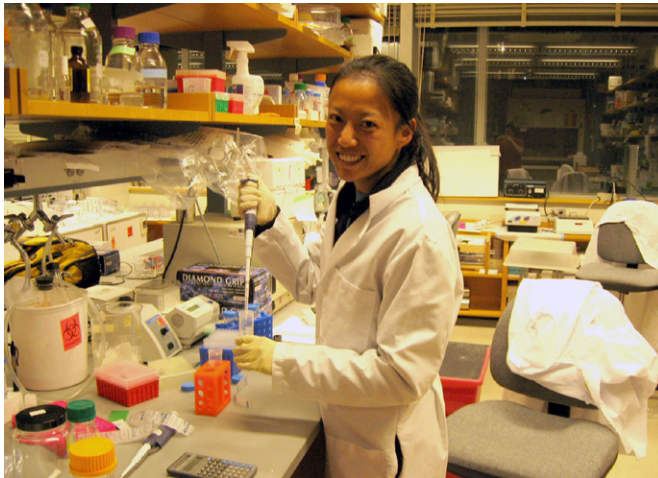

Charlottesville, Virginia
clark.herndon@gmail.com

Clark just finished his third year with Bain & Company in Atlanta, and he and Becca moved to Charlottesville over the summer so that he can begin pursuing his M.B.A. at Darden in the fall. He is very excited to be a recipient of one of the Darden Jefferson Fellowships, and they are both very much looking forward to two years in Charlottesville. Clark was a member of the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee.

Amber Turner Inofuentes

Charlottesville, Virginia
turner.an@gmail.com

Amber continues to pursue her medical training as a fourth year student at the University of Virginia School of Medicine where she was recently inducted into Alpha Omega Alpha. Off grounds this past year, Amber enjoyed serving on the Southwest Virginia Regional Selection Committee and continuing to volunteer at the Charlottesville-Albemarle Rescue Squad.

Shan Wu (JS '04) works in her lab at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

United States Secret Service. His business for graduate school admissions, www.graduatetestscores.com, is still chugging along, so remember to sign up! Steve served on the Boston Regional Selection Committee.

Margaret Samra Colby (M.P.P.)

Arlington, Virginia
maggie.colby@gmail.com

Maggie continues to enjoy working for Mathematica Policy Research, Inc. as a health research analyst and teaching graduate statistics at Georgetown University. Outside of the office she has returned to

Mark Robert Jensen

Rochester, New York
mark_jensen@urmc.rochester.edu

Mark continues to study medicine at the University of Rochester. He loves spending time with his wife Sandy and continues to tutor kids downtown.

Zane Joaquin Silas Johnson

Lynchburg, Virginia
johnson.zane@gmail.com

Zane has returned to the United States from Japan. He continues to pursue independent film-making and is currently promoting his feature film The Olden Days Are Now. He resides in New York City.

Aaron Miles Kurman (M.A.)

Rockville, Maryland
aaronmileskurman@gmail.com

In his first year at Stanford Law School, Aaron participated in the Volunteer Attorney Program and served as a member editor of the Stanford Journal of International Law and a board member of the International Law Society. Aaron interned with the International Crisis Group in Jerusalem during the summer of 2009.

Patrick Daniel Lane

Milford, Connecticut
PatrickDaniellane@gmail.com

Having spent a year teaching English in Shanghai and traveling in Asia, Patrick will return home this fall to enter the graduate program in political science at Yale University.

Joseph Daniel Lemire

New York, New York
joseph.d.lemire@gmail.com

Joe is in his third year as a reporter for Sports Illustrated, increasingly focusing his writing on Major League Baseball and college basketball. Trips to the first weekend of the NCAA tournament, spring training in Florida, and the World Series highlighted his year. The world's slowest-healing broken foot was the lowlight. Joe serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Frances Mei-yuan Liu

Brooklyn, New York
liufr@gmail.com

Frances continues working at the New York Immigration Coalition, where she is coordinating the New York field campaign to win just and humane immigration reform. She loves living and hanging out in Brooklyn.

Charles Benjamin Lovell

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
cbenlovel@gmail.com

Ben is living in Philadelphia where he works for Vino Volo (a rapidly expanding chain of airport wine bars) as a general manager. In May 2008 he opened the company's sixth store, located in the Philadelphia International Airport. In December 2008 he opened a second location in the same airport, which he runs in conjunction with the first. He is the company's youngest general manager and the only one to run two independently operating locations.

Lauren James Maggio (J.D.)

Alexandria, Virginia
ljmsx@email.virginia.edu

After graduating from U.Va. Law School and taking the Virginia bar, Lauren moved with her fiancé to Alexandria, Virginia, and began her legal career as an associate with the D.C. law firm Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP. She and Jerry could not be happier in work and life and wish everyone the best!

Lee Whitworth Martin (M.T.)

Smyrna, Georgia
LeeWMartin@gmail.com

Lee and his wife Lauren are enjoying their fourth year in Atlanta. Lee teaches fifth grade and coaches cross-country at Whitefield Academy, a private Christian school. Lauren works in marketing for Atlantic Capital Bank. They recently purchased their first home, located just outside the city in Smyrna. Lee served on the Atlanta Regional Selection Committee.

Erin McDermott Nance (M.D.)

New York, New York
Erin_mcdermott@brown.edu

Erin had a very busy and momentous spring. She married Justin Nance (Comm '05) and graduated from Brown Medical School. She will be a first year orthopaedic surgery resident at Lenox Hill hospital in New York City.

Raleigh Wallace Nuckols

New York, New York
raleigh@farcap.com

Raleigh continues to live in New York City and is working in the real estate group of Farallon Capital Management, a San Francisco-based hedge fund.

Kimberly Eseoosa Osagie (M.S.T.)

New York, New York
Kim.Osagie@gmail.com

Kim's 30 students are the top-performers in her 600-student public middle school building, with 95% meeting or exceeding state standards. After a thrilling, unpredictable year, she took the summer off and vacationed in the Caribbean. In the fall she returned to the education realm, this time as a founding high school teacher at Democracy Prep Charter School. She still has her eye on an additional graduate degree and is garnering the work experience to color a doctoral dissertation with perspective.

Mythili Gadahad Rao (M.A.)

New York, New York
mythiligr@gmail.com

Mythili continues to work at CNN's New York bureau. She also reviews books for Publishers Weekly, The New York Observer, The Boston Review, and other publications.

Ruth Escudero Selby (M.A.)

Tahoe City, California
ruthselby@gmail.com

Still living in the Lake Tahoe area, Ruth plans to work in the kitchen of a soup and salad cafe that focuses on local produce and ingredients. She has applied to the Culinary Institute of America in Napa Valley, and hopes to begin in January of 2010. In the meantime, she experiments in her own kitchen and writes for her food blog, Ruthie Writes, at www.ruthinfood.blogspot.com.

Jennifer Ashley Silvers

New York, New York
jennifersilvers@gmail.com

Jen finished her second year as a Ph.D. student in the psychology department at Columbia University.

Nicholas James Staubach

Cincinnati, Ohio
nickstaubach@gmail.com

Nick recently married his fiancé and fellow Wahoo Karen Liu (Arch '05) in May of 2009. This fall they will be moving from New York City to Palo Alto, California, where Nick will begin pursuing an M.B.A. at the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

Kristin Beahm Steen

Dallas, Texas
kristen-steen@hotmail.com

Kristin married Jay Steen (Com '03) on March 8, 2008. In the summer of 2008 the couple relocated to Dallas, Texas.

Meghan Elizabeth Sullivan (M.PHIL.)

New Brunswick, New Jersey
sullivan.meghan@gmail.com

Meghan continues to work on her philosophy Ph.D. at Rutgers University. She just finished her first year of full-time dissertation work; her project is on the A-theory of time. She taught a philosophy of religion course this summer, and in her free time she co-organizes a reading group for metaphysics and religion. She continues to serve as head graduate fellow of Bunting-Cobb, a Rutgers dorm for women working in science and math.

Jeffrey Michael Tebbs

New Haven, Connecticut
jtebbs@gmail.com

Jeff is now two-thirds of the way toward his J.D. at Yale Law School, where he serves as the editor-in-chief of the Yale Journal of Health Policy, Law, and Ethics. Jeff will split his 2L summer between the firm of Bingham McCutchen LLP and the Tax Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. He now readily admits that he is rapidly becoming a tax law geek.

Sally Dowd Wood

Chapel Hill, North Carolina
sallydwood@gmail.com

Sally continues in medical school at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill and volunteers at UNC's student-led free medical and dental clinics.

Caroline Courtney Woods

(M.F.A., M.A.)
Hackensin, Delaware
caroline.c.woods@gmail.com

Caroline earned her Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing from Boston University in 2008 and her Master of Arts in Teaching from BU in 2009.

Christopher Thomas Zirpoli

(M.PHIL.)
Westminster, Maryland
czirpoli@gmail.com

Chris is a third-year student at the University of Virginia School of Law, where he serves on the editorial board of the Virginia Law Review. He spent summer 2009 at Latham & Watkins LLP in Washington, DC and Miles & Stockbridge P.C. in Baltimore.

2006

Jennifer Leigh Allen

Berkeley, California
JCLAllen@gmail.com

Jenni completed her first of six years in a doctoral program in history at the University of California-Berkeley. She enjoyed a summer abroad, with time spent in Berlin for intensive German training and in Cologne for research on an art installation project called the Stolpersteine ("Stumbling Blocks"); she is immensely grateful to Berkeley's Center for German and European Studies for funding her project. Regretfully, days spent outside of the stacks are few and far between, but in those precious moments, Jenni has enjoyed continuing her practice of Bikram yoga and beginning to learn Ashtanga as well as exploring the exciting nooks and crannies of San Francisco. In the coming year, she will serve as the treasurer of Berkeley's History Graduate Student Association.

Taylor Morrison Bowman

Boston, Massachusetts
taylor.bowman@bain.com

Taylor is currently living in downtown Boston, working as a senior associate consultant for Bain & Company. He recently returned from a six-month transfer to Bain's Sydney office, enjoying the opportunity to live on the beach with three other friends from Boston. In his free time he likes to ski, sail, and hike, and he continues to enjoy cooking.

Victoria Lauren Chiou

Chesterfield, Virginia
vchiou@gmail.com

Victoria had an awesome third year of medical school, and is currently exploring interests in internal medicine and hematology/oncology. She sends a shout-out to Dr. Romesh Wijesooriya (JS '99) for dedicated teaching on the newborn nursery service! Victoria was a member of the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

Ramsey Joseph Daher

Charlottesville, Virginia
rjd4x@virginia.edu

Ramsey is currently in his fourth year at the University of Virginia School of Medicine, and is considering a career in internal medicine. He is also recently engaged. He lives at 46 East Range, so feel free to knock and stop on by!

Jessica Christine Fowler

Durham, North Carolina
jesscfowler@gmail.com

Jessica continues in medical school at Duke University.

Bethany Kieran Garrison

Brighton, Massachusetts
garrisbe@bc.edu

Bethany finished her third year in the theology Ph.D. program at Boston College. She was a teaching assistant for a course called The Person and Social Responsibility (PULSE) which is a service learning theology/philosophy course for undergraduates. In February, she passed her comprehensive exams, and her dissertation proposal was approved recently. Her dissertation is an attempt to analyze eating disorders from the perspective of Thomistic moral psychology. Perhaps her most exciting news is that she was married June 6 in Boston to Scott Haile, a Ph.D. candidate in Bible at Boston College. They are looking forward to the challenging adventure of figuring out how to be both newlyweds and graduate students.

Margaret Sears Grundy

San Francisco, California
margaretrundy@gmail.com

Margaret is spending six months volunteering in Uganda to help devise a strategic plan for The Ugandan American Partnership Organization. UAPO has several projects across Uganda, including an orphanage in Kampala, water wells around the country, a community center in northern Uganda, and a microfinance craft project with widows in rural villages. She is having a fantastic time and will return to her job at Bain & Company in San Francisco when the six month period is complete.

Catherine Jean Hauptfuhrer

Bronxville, New York
catherine.hauptfuhrer@gmail.com

2008 was an interesting year to be in finance... and in particular, to work for Lehman Brothers. Catherine began her year working in prime services sales in Singapore for Lehman. After surviving more than ten rounds of culls, Catherine is now working for Nomura, who bought Lehman's Asia employees, in Capital Introductions. In this function, she covers Asian sovereign wealth funds, endowments, pensions, family offices, and fund of funds, connecting them with Nomura's hedge fund clients. Her coverage spans India through Japan, including Australia.

Charles Lindsay Hopkins Hull

Berkeley, California
Chat.Hull@gmail.com

Chat finished his first year of graduate school in astronomy at University of California, Berkeley. Over the summer he will engage research in radio astronomy using data from the Allen Telescope Array in Hat Creek, California.

Karina Anna Janicka

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
karinajanicka@gmail.com

At last report, Karina was serving in the Peace Corps.

Samuel Nathan Jonas

New York, New York
sam.jonas@gmail.com

Sam completed the two year post-baccalaureate pre-med program at Columbia University. He is working as a research assistant in the cardiology department at the Columbia University Medical Center during the next year while applying to medical schools. Sam hopes to begin medical school in September 2010.

Laura Rose Juliano

Charlottesville, Virginia
lrjuliano@gmail.com

Laura will soon be starting her fourth year as a consultant with the Boston Consulting Group. This fall Laura will marry fellow Jefferson Scholar James Nelson (JS '06) in Cleveland, Ohio. After spending the past year back in Charlottesville, they will move to Houston, Texas, for a year, where she will transfer to the local BCG office.

Christina Margaret Kelleher

Washington, D.C.
kelleher.christina@gmail.com

Christina stepped into a new position with the International Institute for Sustained Dialogue (IISD) this fall. After two years as a program director with IISD's Campus Network, Christina transitioned into a leadership role in strategic planning for the Institute. She remains actively involved in supporting Sustained Dialogue at U.Va. and other universities, while continuing to explore Washington, D.C. and to enjoy connecting with fellow Wahooos in the area.

James Lawrence Kennedy

Brooklyn, New York
jameskennedy@gmail.com

James continues as an English teacher and cross country coach at Regis High School in Manhattan. This fall he will begin a master's degree in English.

Emily Laura Kutzer-Rice

Atlanta, Georgia
ekutzer@princeton.edu

In the fall Emily will enter her fourth year of a doctoral program in classics and ancient history at Princeton University. Last year, she completed coursework and papers, and in the fall she will complete her final qualifying exam and begin work on her dissertation. She will also teach Latin in the department. In December of 2008 Emily was engaged to Jonathan Master, a fellow Princeton classicist who is now an assistant professor at Emory University. They married in July. Emily and Jon will split the upcoming academic year between Atlanta and Princeton.

Eugenio Carlos Labadie Ibáñez (J.D.)

Harvey, Louisiana
eugenio.labadie@gmail.com

Eugenio graduated cum laude from Harvard Law School and spent the summer studying for the New York bar.

James David Nelson (J.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
jamesdavidnelson@gmail.com

In May, James graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law. At graduation, he was honored with the Robert E. Goldsten Award for Distinction in the Classroom and the Roger and Madeleine Traynor Prize for outstanding written work. This fall James will move to Houston, Texas, where he will clerk for Judge Jerry Smith on the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. Although James is leaving Charlottesville, he is taking his favorite part with him by marrying his Jefferson Scholar classmate, Laura Juliano (JS '06).

Matthew Brian Nicholson (J.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
mattuva456@gmail.com

Matt recently graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law and became engaged to Allison Barra (Law '09). For the next year he will be clerking for the Honorable J. Harvie Wilkinson of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

Ioana Niculcea

Falls Church, Virginia
ioananiculcea@gmail.com

Ioana continues to reside in Northern Virginia, working as a research assistant for the International Monetary Fund. Together with several fellow Romanian students in the States, she has recently set up a non-profit organization, Study College USA, that assists international high-school students applying to North American universities.

Amanda Dawn Pallais

Cambridge, Massachusetts
apallais@mit.edu

Mandy is entering her fourth year of the economics Ph.D. program at M.I.T. This year, she traveled to France to research the extent of and solutions to employment discrimination against disadvantaged youth. Mandy also enjoyed serving on the Boston Regional Selection Committee.

Johanna Cristine Peet (M.S.)

Washington, D.C.
jcpeet@gmail.com

Johanna lives in Washington, D.C., where she is a research assistant for the Center on the United States and Europe at the Brookings Institution.

Suzanne Eliza Pinckney

Portland, Oregon
suzannepinckney@gmail.com

Suzanne has enjoyed settling into her new home in Portland. Not long after touching down in Portland this winter, she set off to India for another great year directing the International Yoga Festival in Rishikesh. Since returning home Suzanne has co-founded a small scale farming project she calls community 'enabled' agriculture. She has worked hard forming policy and structure as well as community. They have plants in the ground and cannot wait to see their sprouts breaking through. She has chickens in the backyard, rides her bike everywhere, and is designing a yoga teacher training program for her teacher to add to the mix. Suzanne can't say enough good things about Portland and would love to host any visitors and show them why!

David Hyden Reid

Washington, D.C.
davidhreid@gmail.com

David continues to enjoy his work as deputy finance director at the Democratic Governors Association (DGA) in Washington, D.C. In this roll, he is responsible for corporate and labor fund-raising and donor management. The DGA broke all previous fund-raising records in 2008, bringing in over $23 million. David looks forward to another aggressive fund-raising year leading into the 2010 election cycle. While he is generally busy with work related events and travel, David does find time to enjoy D.C., read, cook, explore the city, and get together with friends.

Lauren Kelley Ross

Charlottesville, Virginia
lauren.k.ross@gmail.com

Lauren joined the Jefferson Scholars Foundation as the foundation program analyst in the fall. She enjoyed traveling extensively for work and exploring different cities across the country. Lauren will remain in Charlottesville and continue with the Foundation next year.

Benjamin Ryan Sachs (J.D.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
bsachs@virginia.edu

Having graduated from U.Va. School of Law, Benjamin is starting work as an associate at Sidley Austin LLP in Washington, D.C., in the fall of 2009. He has also been accepted as a clerk for the Honorable T.S. Ellis, III, at the Federal District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia in Alexandria, to begin in the fall of 2010. In his time at law school, Benjamin was published in the Virginia Law Review, and he hopes no one discovers that there is a typo in Part IV. Benjamin serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Farzad Sedaghat

Baltimore, Maryland
farzad@jhmi.edu

Farzad continues his study of medicine at Johns Hopkins University. He served on the Maryland Regional Selection Committee.

Alexander William Stolar

Arlington, Virginia
alex.stolar@gmail.com

In the past year, Alex began taking classes in pursuit of a master's degree at Georgetown University. He continues to enjoy living in the Washington, DC area and taking weekend trips to such locales as Santa Monica, California, and suburban Connecticut.

Yogesh Surendranath

Cambridge, Massachusetts
yogeshs@mit.edu

Yogi is currently a Ph.D. candidate in inorganic chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. His research involves the development and study of water oxidation catalysts for artificial photosynthesis. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking in the White Mountains of New Hampshire.

David Scott Szakonyi

Palos Heights, Illinois
davidszakonyi@gmail.com

This fall David will enter the doctorate program in political science at Columbia University in New York City.

Nathan Edward Vassar

Boulder, Colorado
nathan.vassar@gmail.com

Nathan is beginning his second year of law school this fall. During his first year, Nathan enjoyed his time at the University of Colorado, learning the law, serving as class president, and finding time to partake in the Colorado ski culture. Over the summer, Nathan clerked for Judge Neil Gorsuch of the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals in Denver.

Christopher Zachary Vickers (M.A.)

Evanston, Illinois
czvickers@gmail.com

Chris remains in the Ph.D. program in economics at Northwestern University. He served on the Chicago Regional Selection Committee in January.

Di Wu (M.S.)

New York, New York
diwu06@gmail.com

Di had a busy year at Lazard, focusing on mergers and acquisitions in the financial institutions sector. In his spare time, he serves on the executive committee of Fudan Fuzhong Overseas Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting educational development at his high school.

2007Adam-Jason Michael Aronstein

Mount Vernon, New York
aj.aronstein@gmail.com

A-J will attend the University of Chicago during the 2009-2010 academic year. He will be studying in the interdisciplinary master's program in the humanities.

Edward Ross Baird (M.PHIL.)

Atlanta, Georgia
rossbaird@gmail.com

After finishing a graduate degree in Oxford, Ross is in Atlanta working for First Light, an early-stage investment wing of Gray Ghost Ventures, a social enterprise firm. Ross will be scouting for and developing new start-up social businesses in the U.S. and internationally and is excited to be back in the country.

Ava Vedanta Baker

New Haven, Connecticut
baker.ava@gmail.com

Ava is enjoying her time, professors, and classmates at Yale Law School. She continued her legal learning experience this summer in Washington, D.C. and Frankfurt, Germany. Ava looks forward to returning to Yale in the fall for her final year of law school.

Caroline Leigh Batchelor

Charlotte, North Carolina
clb9vb@virginia.edu

Caroline is currently a rising third year law student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is an articles editor for the law review and a member of Women in Law. In the spring of her second year she received a merit scholarship from UNC. This summer she was a summer associate at Cravath, Swaine & Moore in New York City, where she worked in the litigation and tax departments. In the fall she will extern with the Honorable Judge Earl Britt, a federal judge in the Eastern District of North Carolina. She plans to graduate in May of 2010.

Richard Kenan Lauchlin Bethune

New York, New York
richard.bethune@gmail.com

Richard finished his second year as a debt capital markets analyst with Citigroup in New York.

Isabelle Allyn Brantley

New York, New York
iab9v@virginia.edu

At last report, Isabelle was working as an analyst in the strategic planning group for the city of New York's affordable housing agency.

Katie Richarts Bray

Charlottesville, Virginia
krbzg@virginia.edu

Katie has completed her coursework and is preparing to take her oral examinations in the Department of English at the University of Virginia, where she is pursuing a Ph.D., focusing on 19th and 20th century American literature. She has been enjoying teaching.

Veronica Dublin Brooks

Halifax, Virginia
veronicadublinbrooks@gmail.com

Veronica finished her career as a secondary science teacher in rural Louisiana with Teach for America. She will begin a new path as a George Washington University graduate student pursuing her master's degree in public policy in fall 2009. When she is not plotting about how to reform America's education system, she enjoys catching up with old friends and learning how to burn up in the kitchen instead of burning it down. Veronica is a member of the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Jing Chen

New York, New York
jjulie.chen@gmail.com

Since September 2007 Julie has been working for Oliver Wyman Financial Services as a consultant in New York City. Her job enables her to travel and work with a diverse set of clients. She spends her free time with friends and family and enjoys exploring the city. Julie served on the Westchester, New York/Fairfield, Connecticut Regional Selection Committee.

Stephanie Kay Douppnik

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
stephaniedouppnik@gmail.com

Stephanie is in her third year of medical school at Drexel University. She continues to volunteer at Drexel's student-run free clinics and teach MCAT prep classes.

Christine Marie Elliott

Fairfax, Virginia
christine.m.elliott@gmail.com

Since returning to Virginia after volunteering at two orphanages in Africa for a year, Christy has enjoyed concurrent internships with Bread for the World, a hunger advocacy organization, and in the Office of International Justice and Peace at the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. She is also grateful to be on the committee which awards grants to groups addressing systemic roots of poverty in Northern Virginia through the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. God alone knows what Christy will be up to this time next year.

Eliza Dalton Evans

Austin, Texas
eevans@ahfh.org

Eliza is spending the second half of 2009 in Thailand! After working one year for Austin Habitat for Humanity, she left her position to join Habitat International in Chiang Mai, Thailand. She is spending six months setting up and working on the Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter Work Project, an event in November during which volunteers will build 82 homes in one week! After returning to the U.S., Eliza hopes to enjoy herself in Austin before heading out on a Bike and Build cross country trip in the summer, followed by graduate school in fall of 2010.

Steven David Gilday

West Chester, Ohio
sdgilday@gmail.com

Steve was accepted into the M.D./Ph.D. dual degree program at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. He will begin his training to become a physician and scientist in the fall.

Daniel Harrison Hecht

San Francisco, California
dan.h.hecht@gmail.com

Dan approaches his two-year mark with Bain & Company, where he is working tirelessly to resuscitate the global economy, one client at a time. Dan served on the San Francisco Bay Area Regional Selection Committee.

David Kelly Hibbett

Nashville, Tennessee
dhibbett@gmail.com

Davey is sacrificing his independence in favor of a contractual union with the lovely Kristin Davis Wamp, whose beauty and grace surpasseth all beneath that of the LORD. He has completed construction of the teahouse in which his father will retire and is finishing the separate bathroom (for pictures, please visit him in Nashville). He still sings tenor in the choir at church and enjoys cooking.

Maha Kausar (M.A.)

Brooklyn, New York
maha@nyu.edu

Maha completed her master's degree at New York University in Near Eastern Studies with a concentration in business at the Leonard N Stern School of Business at NYU. As part of her interdisciplinary program she studied issues ranging from the modern political economy of the Middle East with specific attention to the economy of oil to classical and modern Islamic law. Her thesis focused specifically on the modern teaching of ethics and piety to Muslim women through the cumulative ethical literature of the Islamic tradition. Maha will now return to Pakistan after six years of study in the United States to work there.

Alexander John Lesnick

Arlington, Virginia
alex.lesnick@gmail.com

Allison Marie Murphy (M.A.)

Boston, Massachusetts
allisonmmurphy@gmail.com

After finishing her master's degree in English from U.Va. in the spring of 2008, Allison moved to Boston to start as an associate consultant with The Bridgespan Group, a non-profit consulting company. Since joining Bridgespan, she has worked with a variety of organizations in youth development and education, besides working on several foundation strategies.

Meghan Leigh O'Leary (M.ED.)

Charlotte, North Carolina
meghanoleary@gmail.com

Meghan currently lives and works in Charlotte, North Carolina. She works in production at ESPN primarily on college sports and NCAA Championships. She enjoys the extensive travel and variety of experiences the job entails. Meghan will continue working with ESPN but is preparing to go to law school in fall 2010.

Audra Lee Peek

Cambridge, Massachusetts
audrapeek@gmail.com

Audra is currently the director of development at Excel Academy Charter School in East Boston. In addition to her development duties, she enjoys serving as a homeroom teacher and Student Ambassadors program advisor. Audra continues to volunteer with the Big Sister Association of Greater Boston, having celebrated her one year anniversary with her ten-year-old "little sister", Adonia, in January.

Amanda Gabriela Penabad

Chevy Chase, Maryland
amanda.penabad@gmail.com

Amanda looks forward to starting law school at the University of Chicago in the fall.

James Adam Kenneth Reinhard

Savannah, Georgia
adam.reinhard@gmail.com

Adam is entering the second year of his M.F.A. program on a Presidential Fellowship in the painting department at the Savannah College of Art and Design in Savannah, Georgia. Adam was a member of the Lowcountry South Carolina/Georgia Regional Selection Committee.

Amir AbdulFatah Shahien (M.S.)

Marrero, Louisiana
amirshahien@gmail.com

Amir graduated in May 2009 from Tulane University School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine. He earned a master's degree in epidemiology and was inducted into the Delta Omega Honorary Society of Public Health. He will continue to conduct research at Louisiana State University and Tulane Health Science Centers and volunteer in the city of New Orleans while applying to medical schools to start in fall of 2010.

Andrew Elwes Siegel

New York, New York
andrew.e.siegel@gmail.com

Andrew is beginning work at BC Partners, a private investment firm in New York, after two years with Merrill Lynch. He is trying to remember how to take standardized tests, all the while making frequent trips back to Charlottesville.

Mark Sullivan Silvers

Danville, Virginia
mss8c@virginia.edu

Mark is a tank platoon commander at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Elizabeth Victoria Stork

Locust Valley, New York
stork.elizabeth@gmail.com

Liz will be enrolling at Harvard Law School in the fall of 2010. She has deferred her enrollment for a year to pursue her study of Spanish in South America; she will be working as an English teacher in Chile for the English Opens Doors Program, followed by travel and volunteer work in neighboring countries. Liz served on the Long Island Regional Selection Committee.

Jequeatta Detrice Upton (M.P.H.)

Lombard, Illinois
upton@gmail.com

Upon completing her master's degree in public health from U.Va in December 2008, Jequeatta was selected as the 2009-2010 John Lassiter Administrative Fellow at Advocate Health Care, based in Oak Brook, Illinois. Advocate Health Care is the largest fully integrated not-for-profit health care delivery system in metropolitan Chicago and is recognized as one of the top 10 systems in the country. As the Lassiter Fellow, Jequeatta will participate as a member of Advocate's senior management team. Throughout the system's 12 hospitals, 16 health centers, two medical groups, and its home health network, Jequeatta will focus on strategic, operational and governance issues, as well as on key performance enhancement projects. So far, she has really enjoyed her relocation to the city of Chicago!

Abigail Shaw Yandell

Atlanta, Georgia
abbyyandell@gmail.com

Abby finished her first year at Emory Medical School, where she helped start a night clinic at the Good Samaritan Health Center, served as a leader for the Tar Wars anti-smoking campaign, and was involved with the Christian Medical and Dental Association.

Daniel Taylor Young

Chatham, Virginia
danielyoung@gmail.com

Daniel recently received a Zuckerman Fellowship from Harvard University to complete a J.D./M.P.P. between Yale Law School and the Harvard Kennedy School. Daniel will be moving to Cambridge in the fall and will graduate with both degrees in 2012. Eager to pursue a career in public service, Daniel worked on Capitol Hill during the summer.

2008

Matthew James Allman

Tallahassee, Florida
mjac6@virginia.edu

Matthew finished his first year of law school at Florida State University. He was invited to join the FSU Law Review as well as the Journal of Land Use and Environmental Law. He worked as a law clerk in Tallahassee over the summer before resuming classes in the fall.

May Iola Alston

New York, New York
mayalston@gmail.com

May will begin teaching at a K-12 girls' school, the Brearley School, in Manhattan in September; though she is still waiting for her grade assignment, she knows it will be in the kindergarten through fourth grade range! She continues to live in New York, and last year worked part-time as an assistant in an ENT/Plastic Surgery Practice and as a nanny for several families.

Allen Brantley Bennett

Tuscaloosa, Alabama
josh.bennett@law.ua.edu

Josh is currently pursuing a J.D. at the University of Alabama School of Law, where he is a rising second year student. This summer he worked for the law firms of Starnes & Atchison, LLP, and Maynard, Cooper, & Gale, P.C., in Birmingham, Alabama.

Stephen Karl Blunden

Arlington, Virginia
kblunden@gmail.com

Karl works at Applied Predictive Technologies, a consulting and software development company in Washington, D.C. He enjoys playing golf and tennis on the weekends. Karl returns to Charlottesville regularly to visit his sister, Megan, and to attend meetings of U.Va.'s Young Alumni Council.

Patrick Joseph Cronin

New York, New York
patrick.cronin@blackstone.com

After graduating, Pat moved to New York City to begin working in financial services. He has enjoyed his time in the city and is looking forward to further exploring his new surroundings. Pat serves on the Alumni Advisory Committee.

Lydia Morgan Cuffman

Clinton, Tennessee
puddleap@hotmail.com

Lydia is at UNC-Chapel Hill working towards a master's degree in history and is excited to start teaching this coming semester.

Dean Adrian de la Peña

Arlington, Virginia
thedeanofova@gmail.com

After graduating, Dean moved to Arlington, where he works as a business consultant at Applied Predictive Technologies. When not sneaking down to Charlottesville, he spends his time playing jazz and ferreting out all sorts of intriguing happenings in DC.

Megan Elizabeth Dunning

Fairfax, Virginia
megan.dunning@gmail.com

Megan recently returned to Northern Virginia after spending eight months working at Primeros Pasos Medical Clinic in Quetzaltenango, Guatemala. She began medical school at Georgetown University in August.

Jennifer Meghan Hayes

Moneta, Virginia
hayes-hunter@verizon.net

At last report, Jennifer was working in Pittsburgh and applying to law school.

Katherine Ellen Klem

Cambridge, Massachusetts
katherine.klem@gmail.com

Katherine cannot believe a year has passed since she graduated! She feels privileged to help empower people touched by cancer, equipping them to influence public policy that better prevents and treats this awful disease. She is the grassroots advocacy coordinator in New Hampshire for the American Cancer Society. Katherine also worked for Obama's election, knocking on doors in New Hampshire and serving on his campaign's National Health Policy Advisory Committee. And, in a strangely wonderful turn of luck, she managed onto Wheel of Fortune as a contestant last October! She was thrilled to win a bit - and, of course, to meet Vanna. Katherine was a member of the Boston Regional Selection Committee.

Abbie Lynne Klinghoffer (M.P.P.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
abbie.klinghoffer@gmail.com

Abbie received a master's degree in public policy from U.Va. in May and will be moving to Washington, D.C. in August to begin work with Deloitte Consulting's federal government practice. She is looking forward to a relaxing summer of reading, hiking, and traveling throughout the country.

Joshua Seth Levy

New York, New York
jsl458@nyu.edu

Josh is a rising second year law student at New York University. He worked at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York this summer while also working as a research assistant to a law professor.

Cory Taylor Line

Clayton, Georgia
ctlyg@virginia.edu

Cory is enrolled in the Diplôme de Cuisine at Le Cordon Bleu Paris with a future stage at Stella Maris, a One Michelin Star restaurant in Paris. He will begin the Diplôme de Pâtisserie in the fall to complete Le Grand Diplôme.

Xiaomei Rosemary Liu

New York, New York
x.rosemary.liu@gmail.com

At last report, Rosemary was working for Merrill Lynch in New York City.

Benjamin Anthony McVane

Marshall, Virginia
ben.mcvane@gmail.com

After spending six months teaching music at a rural high school in Guatemala with the Charlottesville-based Ixtatan Foundation, Ben taught middle school and high school students in Warrenton, Virginia. He will begin medical school at the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons in the fall.

John Terrence Mongan Jr.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
jtmongan@gmail.com

John continues to enjoy his work as a business analyst for McKinsey & Co. He loves living in Philadelphia, and plans to apply to business schools in the next two years.

Brian Patrick O'Neill

Atlanta, Georgia
bpo@virginia.edu

Brian has been working since August 2008 with McKinsey & Company in Atlanta as a consultant. He's enjoyed the transition from college and plans to continue working with McKinsey in the upcoming year.

Babita Panigrahi

Virginia Beach, Virginia
babita.panigrahi@yale.edu

Babita is a rising second year at the Yale School of Medicine. This year she was part of the HAVEN Free Clinic and the Youth Science Enrichment Program of New Haven. She spent the summer doing clinical research with two endocrine surgeons at the Yale School of Medicine.

Christeve Aubrey Sanders

New York, New York
aubreysanders@gmail.com

Aubrey joined Lord, Abbett & Co., LLC as an investments associate in the summer of 2008 and has focused on global equity research. She is currently a candidate for the CFA Level I exam, and she will remain in New York City in the coming year.

Ravi Rahul Sarpatwari

Charlottesville, Virginia
hobbess@virginia.edu

Ravi will remain in Charlottesville and continue to work for VMDO Architects next year. He also continues to serve as an active member of the Seminole Trail Volunteer Fire Department and was recently promoted to the rank of captain.

Kathryn Serra

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
kathryn.serra@gmail.com

Kathryn finished her first year as a business analyst at McKinsey and Company in Philadelphia. She is moving to Washington, DC next year and will continue her career at McKinsey. She enjoys running and any excuse to get back to Charlottesville.

Kevin James Simowitz

Charlottesville, Virginia
kevinsimowitz@gmail.com

Kevin works with the Virginia Organizing Project as a community organizer.

Connor Steadman Sullivan

Boston, Massachusetts
connor.sullivan@gmail.com

Connor joined McKinsey & Company as a business analyst in Boston this past September and is just starting to figure out what it is a consultant really does. He's fallen very much in love with Boston, despite its icy climate, and enjoys exploring the city with new friends and old friends from the University. He was recently admitted to Yale Law School, which he still doesn't fully believe. He will spend next year with McKinsey in Boston, after which he will move to New Haven to pursue a law degree.

Sarah Maureen Tweedt

Toano, Virginia
tweedt@sprintmail.com

Sarah works at the U.Va. Center for Cell Signaling.

Michelle Eileen Unterbrink

New York, New York
meu9x@virginia.edu

At last report, Michelle was living in New York City.

James Anthony Villarrubia

(M.P.P.)

Charlottesville, Virginia
james.villarrubia@gmail.com

James graduated in May as a member of the inaugural class of the Batten School of Leadership and Public Policy. He recently received the Presidential Management Fellowship, a two year fellowship within the federal government. James accepted a final position with the Department of Defense's Business Transformation Agency in Arlington, Virginia.

Samantha Katherine Weisner

New York, New York
katie.weisner@bain.com

Katie joined Bain New York in September 2008 as an associate consultant. Outside of work, she is heavily involved with Inspire Inc, a nonprofit, volunteer consulting agency, and has worked for the past six months with The Fresh Air Fund, a NYC program that allows inner city children to spend their summers outside of the city. In her free time, she enjoys traveling, reading, music, and getting back to Charlottesville as much as possible! Next year she will remain in New York with Bain & Company.

Xian Zhao

Charlottesville, Virginia
sammaz21@gmail.com

After graduation, Sam stayed in Charlottesville to accompany the Heritage Theatre Festival's production of "The Light in the Piazza." He started medical school at U.Va. in August and survived his first year. This summer, Sam was in Lesotho helping to educate local healthcare providers on how to care for patients with AIDS. Sam served on the Richmond Regional Selection Committee.

ALUMNI NEWS

Index

- Allison Chamberlain Abramson 2004 29
 Matthew Lincoln Adams 1999 20
 Amanda Griffin Adams 2002 25
 Elena Levonovna Airapetian 2003 27
 Spencer Riley Allen 2005 31
 Jennifer Leigh Allen 2006 33
 Matthew James Allman 2008 37
 May Iola Alston 2008 37
 Jennifer Ann Amyx 1991 8
 Stephen Nash Ander 2005 31
 Tonia J. Sanborn Anderson 1993 11
 Zayde Gordon Antrim 1995 14
 Adam-Jason Michael Aronstein 2007 35
 Emily Anne Bagby 2005 31
 Radhiya Danielle Bailey 1999 20
 John McMullen Bailey 2004 29
 Edward Ross Baird 2007 35
 Sarah Walker Baker 2001 23
 Ava Vedanta Baker 2007 35
 James Scott Ballenger 1993 12
 Cynthia Ayers Barker 2003 27
 Richard Lee Barnes II 2004 29
 Margaret Henderson Basu 1997 16
 Caroline Leigh Batchelor 2007 35
 Christopher Francis Batten 1999 20
 Elizabeth Cooper Beauvais 1998 19
 Corey Alexander Benjamin 2001 23
 Richard Kent Bennett Jr. 2000 22
 Allen Brantley Bennett 2008 37
 Edward Oscar Benson 2005 31
 Jason Le Moine Bernd 2001 23
 Kathryn Kraaij Berryman 2002 25
 Richard Kenan Lauchlin Bethune 2007 35
 Joseph Alexander Bilby 2001 24
 Elizabeth Morin Bishop 2004 29
 Joseph Michael Bizup 1988 5
 Amber Beth Blaha 1994 13
 Theodore Glenn Blake 1998 19
 Susan Kuhn Blank 1995 14
 Anne Hanahan Blessing 1994 13
 Lindy Ann Blevins 2001 24
 Stephen Karl Blunden 2008 37
 Christopher Adam Boals 1995 14
 Katherine Mary Bolger 1994 13
 Jamieson MacDonald Bourque 1999 20
 Susan Stilwell Bowen 1991 8
 Taylor Morrison Bowman 2006 33
 Lindsey Paige Bowser 2006 1
 Carla Wheaton Brady 1993 12
 Matthew Scott Branson 1995 14
 Isabelle Allyn Brantley 2007 35
 Brad Ronnell Braxton 1991 9
 Katie Richarts Bray 2007 35
 Seuii Bose Brill 2000 22
 Edward Stanley Brinkley 1987 4
 Duncan Christopher Brook 2003 37
 Veronica Dublin Brooks 2007 35
 Patrick Joseph Brown 1991 9
 Mary Alice Tyson Browning 1999 21
 Stuart Mitchell Brumfield 1988 5
 David Timothy Buckley 2004 29
 Jessica Belue Buckley 2004 29
 Julia Frances Burch 1985 3
 Stephen Stambaugh Burchett 1989 7
 Cornelius Lyn Bynum 1993 12
 Courtney Claire Byrd 2004 29
 James Kent Cameron 1995 14
 Ruairaidh Iain Campbell 2004 29
 Anderson Drew Caperton 1991 9
 Luis David Cardenas 1988 5
 Lauren Rooker Cardwell 2002 25
 Rachel Patricia Carriere 1998 19
 Orit Jacoby Carroll 1995 14
 Michelle Lynn Cavalieri 2000 22
 Esther I-Ping Chang 2002 25
 Molly Beth Chartier 1996 15
 Tennille Jo Neuharth Checkovich 1998 19
 Jing Chen 2007 35
 Kelly Grace Chewning 2004 29
 Victoria Lauren Chiou 2006 33
 Chi Young Chung 1992 9
 Molley Jesse Clarkson 2000 22
 Elizabeth Eckstein Clifton 2000 22
 Michael Christopher Cloud 1990 8
 John Carr Coates IV 1986 4
 Thomas Daniel Colby 1990 8
 Margaret Samra Colby 2005 31
 Lara Shayne Collier 1996 15
 Christa Marianne Compton 1993 12
 Nathaniel Thomas Connally III 1990 8
 Nathan Andrew Cook 2002 25
 James Vincent Courtland Jr. 2005 31
 Lindy Belle Cox 1999 21
 Patrick Joseph Cronin 2008 37
 Lydia Morgan Cuffman 2008 37
 Daniel William Cunnane 1999 21
 Sarah Curtis-Fawley 1999 21
 Rachel Mojisola Dada 2005 31
 Ramsey Joseph Daher 2006 33
 Dean Adrian de la Peña 2008 37
 Thomas Mitchell Deal 2003 27
 Raynelle LaTia Deans 2003 27
 Jan deBeer 1996 15
 Margaret Ann Debelius 1988 5
 Lisa Lear deBessonnet 2002 25
 Paul Vincent DeMarco 1985 3
 Jason Foster Dickerson 1995 14
 Katherine Brady Dirks 2001 24
 Mark Christopher Dixon 1995 14
 Matthew Raleigh Dodson 2004 29
 Fiona Mary Doherty 1996 15
 Greg Andrew Dolinsky 2004 29
 Rebecca Hogan Dorrian 2000 22
 Stephanie Kay Douppnik 2007 35
 Robert Wilson Downes 1985 3
 Laura Rains Draper 1990 8
 Sean Kevin Driscoll 2004 29
 Lloyd Leonard Drury III 1993 12
 Adam Wilson Duggins 2008 2
 Kimberly Baker Dulaney 1997 17
 Eric Michael Dunham 2000 22
 Megan Elizabeth Dunning 2008 37
 Laura Wagner Eastwood 1989 7
 Jeffrey Allen Ebert 1993 12
 Marybeth White Edgcomb 1993 12
 Eileen Filliben Edmunds 1988 5
 Benjamin Grinnan Ehlers 1992 9
 Michael Grier Eliasek 1995 14
 Christine Marie Elliott 2007 35
 Eric Andrew Engels 1987 4
 Krystal Ann England 1999 21
 Kathleen A. Hubbard Erwin 1987 4
 Anna Bond Estes 2008 2
 Todd Lewis Etter 1990 8
 Hugh McCloskey Evans III 1988 6
 Eliza Dalton Evans 2007 36
 Bernard Vaughan Fallon Jr. 1994 13
 James Sebrell Farmer Jr. 1987 5

- Samuel Erskine Farnham 1991 9
 David Rutherford Fleet 1994 13
 Jessica Christine Fowler 2006 33
 Weston Ashley Fox 1999 21
 Michael Bridges Fredericks 1995 14
 Mary Susan Fretts 1987 5
 Lindsay Durtan Friesen 2000 22
 Sara Hume Gahan 2003 27
 Suhrid Subhash Gajendragadkar 1997 17
 Bryce Wesley Galen 2005 31
 Rebekah Leslie Gardner 1996 15
 Daniel Marvin Garrett 1986 4
 Micheal Huntley Garriott Jr. 1998 19
 Harley Shuford Garrison 1991 9
 Bethany Kieran Garrison 2006 33
 Douglas McCarley Garrou 1988 6
 Joseph Randall Gay 2003 27
 Jeremiah Duane Gibson 1999 21
 Steven David Gilday 2007 36
 Debra Shapiro Gill 1989 7
 Justin Arthur Giroux 1992 9
 Malgorzata Wieslawa Glinska 2005 1
 Ranjit Kumar Goudar 2000 22
 Isaac Matthew Gradman 2002 25
 Stephen Ross Grand 1986 4
 Kimberly Dillon Grantham 1992 9
 Kirsten Lynn Greene 1995 14
 Rachel Elizabeth Greene 2001 24
 Alison Mylander Gregory 1987 5
 Daniel James Greiner II 1991 9
 Devin James-William Griffin 1995 14
 Margaret Sears Grundy 2006 33
 Heidi Marie Guenin 2004 29
 Jennifer Brown Gwilliam 1991 9
 Esther Carol Haley 2003 27
 James Meredith Haley V 2000 22
 Sarah Hobeika Hall 2002 25
 Thomas Bryan Weatherly Hall 2002 25
 Virginia Hilton Hallock 1985 3
 Maryanne Quinn Hancock 1996 15
 Bryan Andrew Hancock 1997 17
 Gretchen Geggis Hardin 1991 9
 Karen Michele Hardwick 1985 3
 Joseph Benson Harlan Jr. 1989 7
 Shannon Joy Harris 1999 21
 Matthew Thomas Harrison 1998 19
 Richard Keith Harrison 1992 10
 Stephen Glynn Harrison 1987 5
 Catherine Jean Hauptfuhrer 2006 33
 Jennifer Meghan Hayes 2008 37
 Daniel Harrison Hecht 200 367
 Kari Ann Heffner 1999 21
 Sarah Liff Henderson 2000 22
 Charles Robert Hermes 1995 14
 Jack Clark Herndon III 2005 31
 Meghan Tara Hession 2004 30
 Karen Elizabeth Heys 1994 13
 David Kelly Hibbett 2007 36
 Charles Edward Hock III 2001 24
 Elizabeth Malone Hoffman 2000 22
 Tracey Christine Hopper Esq. 1988 6
 Stephanie Maria Hsu 2001 24
 Charles Lindsay Hopkins Hull 2006 33
 Byron Christopher Hulsey 1990 8
 Timothy Joseph Ingrassia 1986 4
 Amber Turner Inofuentes 2005 31
 Matthew Lawrence Iwicki 1987 5
 Nicholas Kahtan Jabbour 2002 25
 Alex Braeden Jackson 2000 22
 Vinay Jain 2001 24
 Karina Anna Janicka 2006 33
 Mark Robert Jensen 2005 32
 Allison Snider Jesudian 2001 24
 Sarah Chilton Jobe 2003 27
 Kenneth Roger Johnson Jr. 1988 6
 Harold Edward Johnson Esq. 1999 21
 Timothy Andrew Johnson 2003 27
 Zane Joaquin Silas Johnson 2005 32
 Laura Elizabeth Johnston 1997 17
 Samuel Nathan Jonas 2006 33
 Vicky Ayano Jones 2004 30
 Sarah Elizabeth Joyner 1997 17
 Laura Rose Juliano 2006 34
 Yarli Busingye Kamara 2002 25
 Maha Kausar 2007 36
 Allison Julie Kean 1993 12
 Elise Charbonnet Keegan 1989 7
 Frederick Joseph Keith 1985 3
 Christina Margaret Kelleher 2006 34
 James Lawrence Kennedy 2006 34
 Lauren Jones Kenny 2002 25
 Glynn deVon Key 1986 4
 Shaharyar Muazzam Khan 1998 19
 Ian Kyunghoon Kim 1997 17
 James Thornton Kirby 1987 5
 Jason Craig Kirkham 1997 17
 Katherine Ellen Klem 2008 37
 Abbie Lynne Klinghoffer 2008 37
 Chad Austin Komocki 1999 21
 Jason Ian Koontz 1993 12
 Arian Shadi Kourosh 2003 27
 James R. Kozloski 1992 10
 Sarah Lyman Kravits 1988 6
 Aaron Miles Kurman 2005 32
 Emily Laura Kutzer-Rice 2006 34
 Eugenio Carlos Labadie Ibañez 2006 34
 Adam Halladay Lackey 2001 24
 Owen Joseph LaCour III 1990 8
 Stewart Joseph Lagarde Jr. 1988 6
 Thomas Walker Lamond 1997 17
 Patrick Daniel Lane 2005 32
 Amy Anne Donatelli Lassig 1996 16
 Graham Rudolph Laub 1991 9
 Sarah Louise Leaman 1992 10
 Peter Decklin Leary 2000 23
 Deidre Robyn Lee 1996 16
 Margaret Mei Lee 1996 16
 Philip Thomas Lee 2003 27
 Katherine Dodds LeJeune 1988 6
 Joseph Daniel Lemire 2005 32
 Alexander John Lesnick 2007 36
 Joshua Seth Levy 2008 37
 Jerry Mermod Lewis IV 2002 25
 Jessica Leigh Lewis 2002 26
 Travis Lynn Lewis 1991 9
 John Chao-Chun Lin 1994 13
 Mary L. Lindsay-Barber 1986 4
 Christopher Eugene Lindsey 1988 6
 Cory Taylor Line 2008 37
 Frances Mei-yuan Liu 2005 32
 Xiaomei Rosemary Liu 2008 38
 Alvina Hoi Yee Lo 1998 19
 Sundi Erica Lofty 1998 19
 Robert Jason Lojek 1998 19
 Oliver Grant Longwell 2004 30
 Luciana Fonseca Lopez 1997 17
 Deanna Leicht Loughnane 1989 7
 Adam Scott Lovelady 2008 2
 Charles Benjamin Lovell 2005 32
 Sara Kalchbrenner Luckert 1994 13
 Jack Brady Lum 1989 7
 George Emmett Lynskey III 2002 26
 Lauren James Maggio 2005 32
 Kimberly Tan Majure 1990 8
 Mary Elizabeth Manning-Wylie 2002 26
 Jeffrey David Manns 1998 19
 John Anthony Martin 1985 3
 Torri Scott Martin 1997 18
 Maura Mary Martin 2003 27
 Lee Whitworth Martin 2005 32

- Jaime Amanda Martinez 2005 1
 William Martin-Gill 1999 21
 Jean Katharine Martin-Weinstein 1992 10
 Simon Cochukattil Mathews 2004 30
 Catherine Elizabeth McCall 1993 12
 Eric Ryan McDermott 2008 2
 Sara Thomas McDowell 1997 18
 Ben Humphreys McGee III 1995 14
 Sharon Marie McGowan 1995 15
 Maurie Dee McInnis 1988 6
 Corey Williams McLellan 1998 19
 Benjamin Anthony McVane 2008 38
 Deborah Bohn McWilliams 1994 13
 Stephanie Lynne Merhar 2000 23
 David Cole Metcalf 2002 26
 Elizabeth Watts Metcalf 2004 30
 Bsrat Mezghebe 2004 30
 Carey Joseph Mignerey 2004 30
 Randy Todd Miller 1994 13
 Jennifer Blomberg Miller 2001 34
 Holly Gilmore Moettel 1985 3
 Erin Kathleen Monaghan 1989 7
 Katherine Costa Monahan 2001 24
 Logan Anderson Moncrief 2004 30
 John Terrence Mongan Jr. 2008 38
 Marcus Wayne Moody 1996 16
 Cason Armstrong Moore 2003 28
 Parks Harris Morris Jr. 1992 10
 Amanda Celeste Morrow-Jensen 1999 21
 Yvonne Marie Mowery 2004 30
 Allison Marie Murphy 2007 1
 Brian Phillips Murphy 2007 6
 Melissa Erica Murray 1997 18
 Jennifer Kathryn Murrill 2003 28
 Marion Parker Myers 1989 7
 Erin McDermott Nance 2005 32
 Sara Elizabeth Neher 1996 16
 James David Nelson 2006 34
 Lowell S. Wells Nevill 1994 13
 Norbert Mburu Ng'ethe 2004 30
 Matthew Brian Nicholson 2006 34
 Cynthia Lisa Nicoletti 2007 1
 Ioana Niculcea 2006 34
 Kent Ronald Nilsson Jr. 1996 16
 Stephanie Diane Nixon 1998 19
 Raleigh Wallace Nuckols 2005 32
 Catalina Ocampo 2001 24
 Timothy Raphael O'Hara II 1996 16
 Joleen Roslyn Okun 2002 26
 Andrew Stephen Oldham 2001 24
 Meghan Leigh O'Leary 2007 36
 Brian Patrick O'Neill 2008 38
 Daniel Dillon O'Neill 1990 8
 Kerry Leigh O'Neill 2002 26
 Kimberly Eeosa Osage 2005 32
 Michael Kennedy Osborn 1985 3
 John Marshall Page III 1985 3
 Amanda Dawn Pallais 2006 34
 Anna Marie Palumbo 2004 30
 Babita Panigrahi 2008 38
 Ashesh Nipun Parikh 2002 26
 John Flick Parrott Jr. 1996 16
 Tara Jenise Pate 1998 19
 Aniruddh Dhiren Patel 1987 5
 Matthew Christopher Pawlowicz 2008 2
 Brian Matthew Payne 1998 20
 Audra Lee Peek 2007 36
 Johanna Cristine Peet 2006 34
 Amanda Gabriela Penabad 2007 36
 John Redding Perry 1989 7
 Suzanne Eliza Pinckney 2006 34
 Andrea Meah Plummer 2000 23
 William Roberson Pogue III 1986 4
 Catherine Davenport Pollock 2000 23
 Kate Elizabeth Pomper 2001 24
 Katherine Kilbane Porter 2002 26
 Richard Conrad Prather 2002 26
 Rodney Andre Pressley 1994 13
 Robert Fleming Puckett 1994 13
 Maria Katherine Pulzetti 1999 21
 Lauren Sue Purnell 2003 28
 Ming Qi 2001 24
 Julie Wilson Quillin 1997 18
 Virginia Natalie Quist 2004 30
 Guru Basava Raj 2004 30
 Christopher Shawn Ramsey 1992 11
 Mythili Gadahad Rao 2005 32
 Richard Vint Rector 1995 15
 Blair Justin Fire Reich 2000 23
 David Hyden Reid 2006 34
 James Adam Kenneth Reinhard 2007 36
 Coolidge Elmo Rhodes Jr. 1997 18
 Kerry Cavanaugh Rice 2000 23
 Elizabeth Anne Rigby 2004 30
 Kevin Gafford Ritz 1997 18
 Elizabeth Roark 1989 7
 Allison Susanne Robbins 2007 1
 Brian Russell Roberts 2008 1
 Scott A. Robertson 1989 7
 Sandy Jo Robertson 1998 20
 Suellen Woodcock Robinson 2004 30
 John Rocco Macmillan Rodney 2004 30
 Andrew Baird Rogers 2002 26
 Arthur Charles Roselle 1992 11
 Karen Elizabeth Mayer Ross 1988 6
 Lauren Kelley Ross 2006 34
 Sarah Ann Rude 2002 26
 Christopher Roy Rutledge 1987 5
 Benjamin Ryan Sachs 2006 34
 Christopher Pierce Salguero 1996 16
 Amy Jo Sampson 1985 3
 Christeve Aubrey Sanders 2008 38
 Arneet Vilas Sarpatwari 2003 28
 Ravi Rahul Sarpatwari 2008 38
 Mary Fader Saville 1997 18
 Brent Vernon Savoie 2007 1
 Jennifer Scappettone 1994 13
 Nelse Thompson Schreck 1990 8
 Thomas Franklin Schuler 1985 3
 Niko Douglas Schutte 2003 28
 Farzad Sedaghat 2006 35
 Mitchell Samuel Seipt 2003 28
 Ruth Escudero Selby 2005 32
 Kathryn Serra 2008 38
 Gregory William Seward Esq. 1997 18
 Amir AbdulFatah Shahien 2007 36
 Adele Bruce Shartzter 2003 28
 Steven Moffat Shepard 2001 24
 Barbara Lynn Shubinski 1989 7
 Jill Elizabeth Siegel 1987 5
 Andrew Elwes Siegel 2007 36
 Jennifer Ashley Silvers 2005 32
 Mark Sullivan Silvers 2007 36
 Todd Mitchell Simkin 1996 16
 Jessica Nehrling Simmons 1997 18
 Kevin James Simowitz 2008 38
 Benjamin Braxton Skipper 2003 28
 James Blair Smethurst 1996 16
 Julious Perry Smith III 1990 8
 Kerri Akaya Smith 1999 21
 Brian Charles Smith 2002 26
 Christopher Jackson Smith 2003 28
 Nicole O'Brien Snyder 2001 24
 Jonathan Robert Snyder 2002 26
 Michael J. Spitalney 1989 7
 Betty Boyd Staples 1994 14
 Richard Stone Starling 1993 12
 Nicholas James Staubach 2005 32
 Kristin Beahm Steen 2005 32
 Kevin Charles Stewart 1992 11

- Anna Brewer Stiliz 1999 21
Alexander William Stolar 2006 35
Elizabeth Victoria Stork 2007 36
Meghan Elizabeth Sullivan 2005 32
Connor Steadman Sullivan 2008 38
Yogesh Surendranath 2006 35
Peter Vinding Swendsen 2006 1
David Scott Szakonyi 2006 35
Jeffrey Michael Tebbs 2005 33
Sajeena Geevarghese Thomas 1998 20
Todné Yvette Thomas 2008 2
Clay Elwood Thomson 1996 16
Hanna Victoria Tieu 2002 26
Audrey Karen Tolbert 1992 11
Ann Meade Besenfelder Trahan 1998 20
Peter Michael Traub 2008 2
Heather Suzanne Trout 1998 20
Thomas Minh Tu 1992 11
Sarah Maureen Tweedt 2008 38
Per Daniel Tyreus 1998 20
George Edward Tyson II 1988 6
Michelle Eileen Unterbrink 2008 38
Jequeatta Detrice Upton 2007 36
Jennifer C. Van Horn 2007 36
Nathan Edward Vassar 2006 35
John Harman Vick 1993 12
Christopher Zachary Vickers 2006 35
James Anthony Villarrubia 2008 38
John David Villasenor 1985 4
Ruth Ann Vleugels 2000 23
Seaborn McDonald Wade III 1995 15
Heather Perry Walcott 2000 23
Susan Stringfellow Walker 1986 4
Robert Kirk Walker III 2003 28
Gretchen Steidle Wallace 1996 16
Martina Blythe Waters 1998 20
Maurice Darnell Watkins 1996 16
Shelley Johnson Webb 2003 28
Samantha Katherine Weisner 2008 38
Anne Taufen Wessells 1995 15
Katharine Lopez Weymouth 1998 20
Dana Michelle Wheelles 2006 1
Kevin Philipp Whelan 2001 25
Elizabeth Semancik White 1997 18
Niran Romesh Wijesooriya 1999 22
Lawson McNeil Wijesooriya 2002 27
William Bradford Wilcox 1992 11
Frank Camp Williams III 1986 4
Cicely Ann Williams 2001 25
Taylor Charles Windham 1989 7
Andrew Daryl Witmer 2005 1
Kirsten Andrews Woelper Esq. 1995 15
Christopher Bussa Wood 1998 20
Sally Dowd Wood 2005 33
Caroline Courtney Woods 2005 33
Charlotte Shaffer Woody 1986 4
Shan Wu 2004 30
Di Wu 2006 35
Abigail Shaw Yandell 2007 37
Michal Ellen Yarborough 2003 29
Leslie Keith Yonce IV 1994 14
Jasmine Hyejung Yoon 2003 29
Lisa Rosenthal Young 1993 12
Daniel Taylor Young 2007 37
Mitchell Eliot Zamoff Esq. 1989 8
Xian Zhao 2008 38
Christopher Thomas Zirpoli 2005 33