Jefferson Scholars Foundation

National Fellowship Alumni Updates
December 2018 - July 2019

Professional Updates

Francesca Ammon (NF’11) – Associate professor of city and regional planning and historic preservation at the Stuart Weitzman School of Design, Universiety of Pennsylvania (July 1, 2019)

Seth Center (NF ’07) – Appointed senior fellow and director of the Brzezinski Institute’s Project on History and Strategy at the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

Catherine Baylin Duryea (NF ’18) – Assistant professor at St. John’s University School of Law (Fall 2019)

Jeanette Estruth (NF ’17) – Assistant professor of historical studies at Bard College (Fall 2019)

Michael Fein (NF ’02) – Appointed dean of the college of Arts & Sciences, Johnson & Wales University (July 1, 2019)

Leif Fredrickson (NF ’17) – Researcher, Environmental Data and Government initiative.

Niki Hemmer (NF ’09) – Associate Research Scholar at INCITE (the Interdisciplinary Center for Innovative Theory and Empirics) at Columbia University, for the Obama Presidency Oral History Project.

Chris Jones (NF ’09) – Associate professor of history, Arizona State University (May 2018)

Matthew Lacombe (NF ’19) – Assistant professor of political science, Barnard College (summer 2019)

Evan McCormick (NF ’15) – Associate Research Scholar at INCITE (the Interdisciplinary Center for Innovative Theory and Empirics) at Columbia University, leading the foreign policy aspects of the Obama Presidency Oral History Project.

Emily Prifogle (NF ’19) – Faculty Fellow at the University of Michigan Law School (Fall 2019)

Amanda Rothschild (NF ’17) – Associate, International Security Program, Harvard Kennedy School Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs

Postdocs, Fellowships, Visiting Scholars

Chris Jones (NF ’08) – Received a 2017 ACLS Fellowship to work on book project, “Immaterial Growth: Energy and Economics in the American Century.”

Jessica Levy (NF ’18) – Postdoctoral research associate in the Corruption Lab in Ethics and the Rule of Law (part of the new U.Va. Democracy initiative)
Julia Ott (NF ’06) – Membership to the Institute for Advances Studies at Princeton (Fall 2019)
Sarah Seo (NF ’16) – Visiting professor of law, Columbia School of Law (Spring 2019)
Justin Wert (NF ’05) – Presidential teaching fellow, University of Oklahoma Honors College (2017-2019)

Awards
Julia Bowes (NF ’18) – The 2019 Lerner-Scott prize by the Organization of American Historians (OAH) for the best dissertation in US women's history
Quinn Mulroy (NF ’11) – The 2018 Outstanding Professor Award from the School of Education and Social Policy at Northwestern University
Tore Olsson (NF ’13) – The Luciano Tomassini Latin American International Relations Book Award by Latin American Studies Association in International Relations for Agrarian Crossings
Pedro Regalado (NF ’19) – Awarded membership to the Harvard Society of Fellows, 2019
Evan Taparata (NF ’18) – Awarded the 2019 University of Minnesota's Best Dissertation in the Arts and Humanities Award

Public Engagement
Emily Baer (NF ’17) – Op-Ed, "What insurgent Dems can learn from the Democratic Study Group." The Hill. November 27, 2018
Matthew Lacombe (NF ’19) – Op-Ed, "Trump is at the NRA today. It didn’t used to be a Republican ally." Monkey Cage, The Washington Post. April 26, 2019
Andrew Morris (NF ’02) – Op-Ed, "How the federal government became responsible for disaster relief." Washington Post, Made By History. December 4, 2018

Books and Journal Articles
Brent Cebul (NF ’14) – Co-Author, Shaped by the State: Toward a New Political History of the Twentieth Century. Co-edited with Lily Geismer and Mason B. Williams (University of Chicago Press, 2018)

Eric Lomazoff (NF ’10) – Author, Reconstructing the National Bank Controversy (University of Chicago Press, 2018)

Nicole Mellow (NF ’02) – Co-Author with Jeffersy K. Tulis, Legacies of Losing in American Politics (University of Chicago Press, 2018)

Margaret O’Mara (NF ’02) – Author, The Code: Silicon Valley and the Remaking of America (Penguin Random House, July 9, 2019)

Sarah Seo (NF ’16) Author, Policing the Open Road (Harvard University Press. April 8, 2019)

NFP Advisory Council/ 2019 Selection Committee

Saladin Ambar
Brent Cebul
Christy Ford Chapin
Chris Jones
Kimberly Phillips-Fein
Vanessa Walker